TAXES: TAXES: TAXES!!!

One of the copperhead speakers on Saturday night struck up the old cry of taxes. Taxes on bread, taxes on butter, taxes on beef, taxes on everything we eat or wear.

And rebels, such as you, have made them!—made the houses of mourning through all the land, where fathers, mothers, brothers, sisters and friends mourn the loss of loved ones, whose bones bleach upon southern soil.

And rebels, such as you, have made them!—made the graves of the brave men that dot the southern plains, where repose the starved thousands of Andersonville and Belle Isle, and the unnumbered thousands of Fort Pillow and Plymouth.

And rebels, such as you, have made them!—made the widows and orphans, dependent on the nation's charity for food, raiment and shelter, and for whose support a large portion of the present and future burthen of taxes must be laid upon the people.

And rebels, such as you, have made them!—made the widows and orphans, dependent on the nation's charity for food, raiment and shelter, and for whose support a large portion of the present and future burthen of taxes must be laid upon the people.

"DESERTING THE SHIP."

The Democratic line seems to be in much the same condition as was the Rebel line in the case of Petersburg just after Sheridan's victory at Five Forks.

THADDEUS STEVENS.

The remains of Thaddeus Stevens, the Great Commoner, were interred at Lancaster, Pa., on Monday last, with appropriate honors.

A DEMOCRAT was overheard to ask a Republican whether he knew the cause of the adjournment of the Democratic meeting, on last Saturday evening, from the Court House to the front of Shoemaker's Hotel.

The whole country will be rejoiced to learn that Commissioner Rollins of the Internal Revenue Department is now likely to continue in office until the close of the present Presidential term.

VOTES AS HE SHOT.

The papers of the opposition are crowded with articles on "Radical Plunders," "Radical Extraneous," "Mountains of Debt" and "Tax-a-s-e! T-a-x-e-s!"

A Democratic orator, shouting at the top of his lungs, exclaims: "I assure you, as a historical fact, without fear of successful contradiction, that the representatives of no two races have ever yet successfully mingled in the administration of a government for any length of time."

CONGRESSIONAL.

The Democratic convention of Adams County, on Monday last, was called by John C. Cassina for Congress.

POLITICAL ITEMS.

SEYMOUR has never held a national office, and so far as national politics are concerned he cannot be a statesman by experience.

GENERAL NEWS ITEMS.

JOHN RATHBORN SCROTTIER, eldest child of General J. M. Schofield, died at West Point on Friday morning.

WHO DID IT.

Some of our friends, Democratic as well as Republican, may have a desire to know why and whom Frank Blair was nominated.

THE ALABAMA LEGISLATURE.

The Alabama Legislature has left the question of the Presidential election in a very uncertain condition.

THE KLU KLUX KLAN.

FRANKLIN, August 20.—Last night about twelve o'clock a party of some fifteen masked, horned men rode into Franklin, in Williamson county, and broke open the doors of the store of a Jew named Bierfield, a Radical.
