A Party of Western politicians had occa-tion to call on President Johnson last week. sion to call on President Johnson last week. Their mission was to seek Government patron age for election purposes. One of the number has since let out the fact that the President did not receive them kindly, but rather discouraged them. He spoke dolefully of the prospects of the Democratic party, saying that he firmly believed Seymour would not carry more than four States, in November next.

"IF ANY MAN PULLS DOWN THE AMERICAN "IF ANY MAN PULLS DOWN THE AMERICAN FLAG SHOOT HIM ON THE SPOT." Such were the orders of a distinguished Democratic official under Mr. Buchanan, who loved his country more than his party. The man who made that memorable order was Genearl John A. Dix, who afterwards, when in command at New York, told Gov. Seymour that he had troops enough to manage his "friends" and him too, and who is now the American Minester to France.
