NASBY.

Mr. Nasby and his Friends in Raptis Immitation of Reynolds and Co. Write a Letter to the People of the North, Giving their Idea of what the South ought to have.

POST OFFIS, CONFEDRIT X ROADS, (Wich is in the State uv Kentucky,) September 1, 1863.

Yesterday afternoon at precisely 4 P. M. a stranger of prepossessin appearance, hove in sight at the Post offis. Wat I mean by "prepossessin appearance" is, he had on a paper collar wich had only bin turned wunst.

"Is Mr. Nasby in?" sed he. "But why do I ask so stoopid a question? Heaven I a sufficient knowledge uv human nacher to read humanity ez it is set forth in the human face divine, and don't I know that there ain't but one Nasby? Kin I mistake it? Duth any other man carry that Wednesday frone? Hath any other man that eagle nose? That eagle lips? He is—"

"That'll do," remarkt I, in alarm, for he was a perfect nitmare about me. "Draw it mild, my gushin friend, for I don't owe you a dollar of it wat so ever."

"I am mistaken," he did reply, "I don't want to borrer. I am not on that ky at present. I want information. I come to you sir, ez the Professor of Biblickle Literature in the Southern Military and Classickle Institoot—sir one uv the ernest in classic grove—that peace duz not is to be found in the hostile world outside—information upon the condishun uv the South, her wants and expectashens, which I purpose to sprit acrost to fellow citizen uv Ingeany. I com sir, on my own accord. My instinct is a spirit uv unsolicitid devotion to the public good. I was a Commissary in the federal servis, and have a brother who was not altogether unconnected with the sutlery department. That brother is runnin for sheriff on the Democratic ticket; the Abolishun candidate for the same office is the Kernel uv the regiment who pocketed our dismissis for cittin irregularities in accounts and also do what he was pleast to term swindlin the subjoys. Wat I want is sich a statement ez will set at rest the slanders the Abolishuns is circulatin regardin me, wich I will publish to my return. I am actooated, in fact, by no personal motive. Speck."

"My dear sir," returned I, "I approve of your mishun, and permit me to say, you have come to the right shop. But I will put my answer in writin and bet it signed by the leading citizen, here that its authenticity may not be disputed."

I, therefore, sot down and wrote, and when I had finisht I sent out and got my witness to it. It is as follows:

Citizens uv X, respekt in the to give you a candid statement in what we follows to be a parallel existence in the South ern people on various subjex. Whatever differinces may have prevailed in the past in the matter uv Afrikin slavery or the rite uv Stait to secede from the Yoonyun, we believe we express the sentiments uv the Conservatives when we declare that we cum out here to fite, and we intend to fite in the dark. When we first took holt uv our hoes and our sord was twist before us, and while you talkt about forts at secesh and appeal to cannon for your possis uv the Government, we never permitted the enemy ez maneuvers we permitted the enemy to get between us and our Legislatures or the election uv sich Legislatures in the interest uv our party. We allowed you to carry several Stait Legislatures in the North by this means, and when you talkt about arrest uv sich officials we cried out that you were violatin the Constitooshun. And we were right. We always are right. We are the people, and when we say a thing is so it is so. We are the South, and when we say we will do a thing we will do it. We are the people uv the South ez torns, and we are hostile to all Governments but their own. The Constitooshun which we also love except in those instances where it interferes with our peculiar institooshun, we construe to suit ourselves. We are the people uv the South, and we are the power, and we will have our own way. The people uv the South ez torns
