

Farm, Garden & Household.

TOO MUCH LAND.

The desire to own a very large farm is natural, but often proves unwise in its results. When a man wishes to practice a mixed husbandry, and his present acres are too few and unsuitable, it is doubtless wise to annex more territory.

FOUNDING HORSES.

A certain care for founder in a horse is to stand him in water up to his belly. I have known it practiced for fifty years; and swathing the legs in hot water, vinegar and sugar of lead, are all good to some extent; but a founder must be relieved suddenly, or the horse will show stiffness in his action and have deformed and swollen legs.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS.

Without any special complaint, except a gradual declination of bodily strength and nervous energy, will find in the Bitters a fountain of vitality and vigor, refreshing and exhilarating as good in the desert to the sand-soured and fainting travelers.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS.

It is composed of the pure juices (as they are medically termed, Extracts) of Roots, Herbs and Minerals, prepared in a manner highly concentrated and entirely free from alcoholic adulterations of any kind.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC.

It is a combination of all the ingredients of the Bitters, with the purest quality of Santa Ora, and is a medicinal tonic, composed of Roots, Herbs and Minerals, prepared in a manner highly concentrated and entirely free from alcoholic adulterations of any kind.

REMEDIES FOR POISONS.

Cases of poisoning often occur in which life might be saved, and hours of agony averted, by the timely use of the following remedies. If a poison burns the throat and acts violently upon the stomach, swallow half a pint of sweet oil, or melted butter or lard, and within five minutes, take half a pint of warm water in which has been stirred a teaspoonful of ground mustard and salt.

Medicinal.

WHY ENDURE A LIVING DEATH?

The confirmed dyspeptic may almost say to his doctor, "I die daily." The object of this article is not to remind him of his puns, but to show him how to banish them forever. The means of immediate and permanent relief are proffered him in

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS.

And it is to show you why you should continue to endure a living death, or to put himself in a position to render life enjoyable.

LIVING ADVERTISEMENTS.

Of the efficacy of this matchless vegetable stomachic are to be found in every city and town in the United States—healthy men and women rescued from torture by its use, and eager to bear testimony to its virtues. It differs from any other bitter in existence, in this essential particular—it is not alcoholic.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC.

Has been provided—a preparation in which the best extracts of the finest restoratives of the vegetable kingdom are held in solution by a spirituous agent, prepared in a manner highly concentrated and entirely free from alcoholic adulterations of any kind.

A. G. CURTIN, President. N. MICKLES, Vice President. GEORGE CONANT, Secretary. GEORGE ELLIS, Cashier National Bank Commonwealth, Treasurer.

HON. A. K. McCLURE, Philadelphia, Solicitor.

The Chinese Government having (through the Hon. Asson Burlingame) conceded to this Company the privilege of connecting the great seaports of the Empire by submarine electric telegraph cables, we propose commencing operations in China, and laying down a line of one hundred miles at once, between the following ports, viz:

Population. Canton.....1,000,000. Hong-Kong.....250,000. Amoy.....200,000. Singapore.....1,200,000. Swatow.....1,000,000. Hang-Chow.....1,200,000. Shanghai.....1,000,000. Total.....5,910,000.

These ports have a foreign commerce of $900,000,000, and an enormous domestic trade, beside which we have the immense internal commerce of the Empire, radiating from these points, through its canals and navigable rivers.

The cable being laid, this Company proposes erecting land lines, and establishing a speedy and trustworthy means of communication, which must command there, as everywhere else, the communications of the Government, of business, and of social life, especially in China. She has no postal system, and her only means now of communicating information is by couriers on land, and by steamers on water.

The Western World knows that China is a very large country, in the main densely peopled; but a few yet realize that she contains more than a third of the human race. The latest returns made to her central authorities for taxing purposes by the local magistracies make her population Four Hundred and Fourteen Millions, and this is more likely to be under than over the actual aggregate. Nearly all of these, who are over ten years old, not only can but do read and write.

Her civilization is peculiar, but her literature is as extensive as that of Europe. China is a land of teachers and traders; and the latter are exceedingly quick to avail themselves of every proffered facility for procuring early information. It is observed in California that the Chinese make great use of the telegraph, though it there transmits messages in English alone. To day great numbers of feet steamers are owned by Chinese merchants, and used by them exclusively for the transmission of early intelligence. If the telegraph we propose, connecting all their great seaports, were now in existence, it is believed that its business would pay the cost within the first two years of its successful operation, and would steadily increase thereafter.

No enterprise commends itself as a greater degree remunerative to capitalists, and to our whole people. It is of a vast national importance commercially, politically, and evangelically.

The stock of this Company has been unqualifiedly recommended to capitalists and business men, as a desirable investment by editorial articles in the New York Herald, Tribune, World, Times, Post, Express, Independent, and in the Philadelphia North American, Press, Ledger, Inquirer, Age, Bulletin and Telegraph.

Shares of this Company, to a limited number, may be obtained at $50 each, $10 payable down, $15 on the 1st of November, and $25 payable in monthly instalments of $2.50 each, commencing December 1, 1868, on application to FRENKEL & CO., 24 South Third Street, Philadelphia.
