BEDFORD, PA., FRIDAY, DEC. 18, 1885.

THE MESSAGE.

To the exclusion of much other, and perhaps more valuable and interesting, matter we lay before our readers the fourth and (let us be thankful) the last annual message of President Johnson. It is a document not entirely without merit, but what good there is in it is not new and what is new is not good, but unmitigatedly bad. Audacity, impudence and egotism are its most prominent features, and frequently crop out all three together at a single point, as when he says of the Reconstruction measures, that "the repeal of all such laws would be accepted by the American people, as at least a partial return to the fundamental principles of the Government."

The dishonest and unreasoning comparison of the expenditures of 1790 and 1791 with those of the present day, and the close of one of the most gigantic wars made by the most brazen-faced demagogue. As to the recommendation of repudiation there can be but one opinion among honest men; the sentence "The lessons of the past admonish the lender that it is not well to be over-anxious in exacting from the borrower rigid compliance with the letter of the bond" is highly suggested of a Dick Turpin code of ethics. The brilliant financial talent of the President has by no means solved the currency riddle, that his genius is much better suited to planning a highway robbery than to the solving of abstract questions of finance, could only be made through his twaddle. Our opinion of the President's so-called reforms, and improvements in our postal arrangements with Great Britain and other countries by the late treaties will be found in another column; the less we have of that kind of improvement the better for us. In discussing the efforts of our neighbors in the West Indies to establish Democratic Governments he again indulges in a characteristic malignant fling at the reconstruction measures, notwithstanding that the fact that the people have endorsed those measures, much as he deprecates them; he seems not to have lost faith however in our institutions as appears from the following:

I am aware that upon the question of further extending our possessions, it is comprehended by some that our political system cannot successfully be applied to an area more extended than our continent; but the conviction is rapidly gaining ground in the American mind that, with the increased facilities for intercommunication between all portions of the earth, the principles of free government as embraced in our Constitution, and its beneficent and salutary effects, would pervade sufficient strength and breadth to comprehend within their sphere and influence the civilized nations of the world."

Which is coupled with an almost direct recommendation to purchase, annex or otherwise obtain possession of several or all of the West Indies. The message closes with, what is very remarkable for so devout a worshiper of the Constitution, a series of recommendations, by no means new, but nevertheless perhaps good, to change the Constitution, in relation to the election of the President, and Senators, to limit the office of the President to one term, the more specific designation of the Presidential succession in case of death and the limitation of the Supreme Judges to a term of years. Altogether it is not a matter of surprise that the Senate, indiscreet though it was, adjourned in disgust before the message was read aloud by the clerk.

A BUNGLING TREATY.

The new Postal Treaty with England that goes into effect on the first of January next seems in some respects to have been made for the benefit of foreigners alone. By this treaty English books in packages to be carried through the country at 16 cents a pound or one cent per ounce while American books are charged at the rate of 96 cents a pound and no packages over four pounds can be sent at all unless the sender prepays letter postage thereon. It is both a cruel wrong and a burning shame that we should send out ministers to Foreign nations to take care of our interests, while we permit ourselves to be hoodwinked, or so brazenly sold as to be bribed, into selling out British gold to the best interests of our country. One would suppose that some agent of the Southern Confederacy had negotiated a treaty of this kind, that rebel histories of the Rebellion might be printed in England by Ex-patriated rebels and sent to Southern rebels at the expense of Northern taxpayers. It could not have been better suited to such a purpose if it had been drawn up for it expressly. The extension of mail facilities to the Southern States has exceeded an excess of over 5,000,000 dollars over the postal department the past year over receipts; so much for ministering to our enemies at home; next we are to pay a similar tax for the benefit of our British enemies, so that the Lairds and Roebucks may be enabled to transmit their brochures at the public expense to their Southern friends. What a blessing it is to a free and proud spirited people to have a drunken President, who sends to-day ministers to foreign courts to barter away their best interests to alien enemies.

INTENT ON BUYING REAL ESTATE.

Cal Cushing has gone to Spain to try to buy Cuba for himself and Johnson. We would suggest that it may be a little difficult to determine who has the disposal of Cuba at present. Spain herself is without an established government and is likely to have a contest between the monarchists and Republicans to determine what shall be the character of her government and who shall conduct it. At the same time Cuba is in a State of insurrection and may have set up for herself before Mr. Cushing reaches Spain. As Uncle Sam is a little short of funds just now, would it not be quite as well to wait a little and perhaps Cuba will come herself. In the meantime Seward and Johnson might explain what became of the $2,000,000 and over, that went into somebody's pocket on the Alaska purchase.

SPAIN IS NOT ADVANCING VERY RAPIDLY TOWARD THE ESTABLISHMENT OF A DEMOCRATIC GOVERNMENT.

The present state of affairs in that Bourbon cursed nation is by no means encouraging either to the friends of peace or of free Government. The monarchists there seem to be insistent danger of a bloody civil war between the two parties. It had been well for Spain if the report of Louis Napoleon's death had been true.

The farce known as the trial of Jeff. Davis has been on the boards during the past week and passed to a new stage. It seems to be rapidly drawing to a close. The Arch Traitor, as was designed by Andy Johnson long ago, will soon be released and go scot free. So much for punishing traitors and making treason odious.

It is given out in certain quarters that J. Edgar Thomson declined to be a candidate, his friends will press him for United States Senator. The story is circulated for a purpose, and the only person in a position to do so is Mr. Thomson. He will be pressed with all the determination the Ring that has been made up can summon. So prominent is the idea, however, to the Republic that special means are to be employed to disguise the intention until the trap has been securely set. Mr. Thomson is not only a candidate, but he is extremely cautious; and a combination made up of a variety of very questionable influences is preparing to thrust him upon the Republicans in the Legislature, and even now speaks with confidence of being able to procure his election by the Legislature.

We hope to hear of no buying and selling in the election of United States Senator. Let the election be made alone on merit and fitness. Let integrity especially be made a test of fitness. And in this connection let freedom from entangling alliances with rich corporations and monopolies that have axes to grind be made a requisite. We want for this high office ability and integrity combined with that freedom from all trammels that could in any way warp judgment or influence action. We want Statesmanship and not pettifoggery in the United States Senate.

CONGRESS HAS NOT YET GONE FAIRLY TO WORK and will not until after the Christmas holidays. Enough however has been done to indicate that the national finances will come in for a large share of attention at the present session. The question of suffrage will absorb considerable time and the necessity for a reform in our naturalization laws will be brought to the early consideration of Congress. Altogether an important session of very important legislation is likely to signalize the last session of the fortieth Congress, and the session though a short one will be an unusually busy one.

SPANISH AMERICA IS AGAIN FULL OF TROUBLE.

In Colombia the President refuses to obey a decision of the Supreme Court, and gathers an army to resist it by force. Peru is threatened with a new revolution. In Chili the Supreme Court has been impeached by the Senate, and the great delinquent, Clerical party, while on the other hand the Liberal party are greatly excited against the Senate, and have even insulted the Archbishop of Santiago.

THE SUPREME COURT, ACCORDING TO THE LATEST ADVICES FROM WASHINGTON IS LIKELY TO PRODUCE THE LEGAL TENDER ACT UNCONSTITUTIONAL.

What effect such an announcement will have upon the national credit and business interests generally it is impossible to foretell.

THE RELIEF NEEDED TO MANUFACTURERS.

The country, we think, looks for relief to its financial ills, and for prospective power as one of the surest means of adding to its taxing capabilities, to the increase of the assessable base and securing the consequent reduction of the tax rate. One of the surest modes of this relief is by a reduction of duties on the importation of the raw material, which has to be brought here to be manufactured, and the added labor of our home industry, a new branch of industry. It is to this result that England has been led, after many years' experience and final abandonment of contrary systems. She has reduced the duties on the raw material, and the result has been a great increase in the production of the raw material, and a consequent increase in the production of the manufactured goods. The lowering or abolishing of the duties on raw materials, such as wool, copper, hides and the like—which are not the subject of immediate consumption, but require to be turned by labor into a new article for use—many branches of our manufactures which should be abandoned, as not only unproductive, but actually causing loss to the manufacturer, and to the public as well, so high, that unless our rates of labor here are as high as those of the most advanced countries are allowed to get it, we cannot produce with them in the production of the manufactured goods, and drive out our own home market even for its sale. Thus it is cheaper at this moment to import and pay the high duties on many articles—raw materials, such as wool, copper, hides and the like—which are not the subject of immediate consumption, but require to be turned by labor into a new article for use—many branches of our manufactures which should be abandoned, as not only unproductive, but actually causing loss to the manufacturer, and to the public as well, so high, that unless our rates of labor here are as high as those of the most advanced countries are allowed to get it, we cannot produce with them in the production of the manufactured goods, and drive out our own home market even for its sale.

CONVERSION OF THE JEWS.

A vigorous effort for the conversion of the Jews is being made by the Presbyterians of Illinois, and the Rev. Dr. McCall, in a speech which he made before the National Christian Association, said that an Ecumenical Council of all Christians would be held in the city of Philadelphia, and that the great object of the meeting would be to produce harmony and good feeling among all the denominations of professing Christians. To carry out this measure effectually, the Rev. Dr. McCall, in a speech which he made before the National Christian Association, said that an Ecumenical Council of all Christians would be held in the city of Philadelphia, and that the great object of the meeting would be to produce harmony and good feeling among all the denominations of professing Christians. THE GETTYSBURG MONUMENT.

The design for which were awarded to James G. Batterson of Hartford, Connecticut, is in the works at Westley, Rhode Island, and is nearly completed. It will be set up in the Spring. TRADE MARKS.

Secretary of State has issued a proclamation, giving notice that the additional article to the treaty of commerce between the United States and the Kingdom of Siam, which was ratified by both parties, is now in full force. This article provides that any counterfeiting in one of the two countries of the mark of the other, shall be treated as piracy, and shall be punished accordingly.

THE PRESIDENT HAS PARDONED BENJAMIN F. OGDEN.

The President has pardoned Benjamin F. Ogdén, who was convicted in the Southern District of New York, at the October term, 1867, and sentenced to ten years' imprisonment for conspiracy in the Post Office Department. The pardon was recommended by Major Hoffman, Congressman Brooks, Fox, Chayler and Stuart, and by nine of the jurors who pronounced him guilty. The executive clemency was extended in consequence of the previous good character of the prisoner, his present ill health, and the destitution of his wife and children.

WE LEARN BY THE NEW YORK TRIBUNE THAT THE EAST INDIA TELEGRAPH COMPANY HAS PERFORMED ARRANGEMENTS FOR COMMENCING THE CONSTRUCTION OF THE LINE AT ONCE.

That a party has been organized, which will be proceeded up to the trench which will be the subscription books will be closed. Whatever balance of stock there may be outstanding will be subscribed by capitalists and bankers engaged in the enterprise. Arrangements will at once proceed to Europe to purchase the cable, which will probably be found already manufactured.

DICKENS'S READINGS.

It has recently transpired that the reading tour of Dickens in the United States, which was commenced in New York, at the October term, 1867, and sentenced to ten years' imprisonment for conspiracy in the Post Office Department. The pardon was recommended by Major Hoffman, Congressman Brooks, Fox, Chayler and Stuart, and by nine of the jurors who pronounced him guilty. The executive clemency was extended in consequence of the previous good character of the prisoner, his present ill health, and the destitution of his wife and children.

FOREIGN IMMIGRATION.

But few persons have an adequate idea of the number of immigrants annually arriving in the United States, or of the amount of wealth they have brought with them. The number of immigrants from Europe to this country, since 1770, at six millions five hundred thousand, and that of the wealth they have brought with them, is estimated at $1,000,000,000. THE POWER OF A COURT TO STRIKE OFF AN ORDER.

Over a year ago, the Judges of the United States District Court of the District of Columbia struck from the rolls of practicing attorneys the name of Joseph H. Bradley, for contempt of court; he subsequently applied to the United States Supreme Court for an order setting aside the order of dismissal of said Bradley, and the Supreme Court directed a writ to issue upon said order to show cause why a mandamus should not issue to compel them to restore his name to the rolls. A reply has been prepared and printed, stating that "said rule ought to be discharged, first, because said Bradley was removed from the said office of attorney of said court only after due notice had been served upon him, and he had been heard in defense, and after mature consideration by the court; that said order of the court was a judgment of the court, and not a mere order within its own exclusive jurisdiction, and not subject to review in any other court, and especially not in this form of process."

GENERAL NEWS ITEMS.

In the face of a duty of $24.00 per ton, of $600 per ton, and a duty of $100 per ton, on the invoice value of steel, the importation of foreign railway bars has trebled within three years, showing, for the same period of three months, in 1885, 229,365 tons.

A NEW AND MOST PROFITABLE SOURCE OF WEALTH HAS BEEN VERY LATELY DEVELOPED IN LOUISIANA.

The rice-culture of the State has been for many years, confined to a few small coast-planters, whose product attracted little or no attention in the local markets. It is now, as we learn from the New Orleans Republican, such success has attended the cultivation of this grain as to warrant an estimate of the Louisiana crop, for this year, at an aggregate of five thousand acres more than the entire product of the entire State. It is signed by D. R. Carter, Chief Justice; G. P. Fisher, A. B. Olin, A. Wylie, Justices.

THE DAILY GAZETTE.

This journal enters upon the 83d year of an existence which has never been more vigorous, or rewarded by the confidence of the people who read the latest current news, or by a leading newspaper of the Commonwealth, the present generation of the people, the third since the establishment of the Gazette in the last century, still regard it, did their fathers, with unabated respect and with an entire reliance upon its faithful exposition of the soundest principles of political and social economy. The proprietors need only point to the unblemished record of this journal in the past, to pledge to their fellow citizens the same fidelity to the highest considerations of public duty.

THE DAILY GAZETTE.

Our facilities, for obtaining the latest and most reliable news, increase daily. All recognize our devotion to those political principles which have recently achieved a fresh and most signal vindication before the tribunal of the people. The effective services of this journal in promoting their triumph are acknowledged by an annual subscription of $1.00.

THE DAILY GAZETTE.

The close of a momentous political struggle, and the victorious situation to which it has brought us, will find the Gazette acting in harmony with the new administration of the Government in its most important departments. We shall have access to the most reliable information, on all matters transpiring at the National and State Capitals, and will make the collection of such intelligence a leading specialty. Our special and regular daily reports from Washington and Harrisburg, particularly during the approaching session, will be early, minute, unintercepted, and from the very highest sources.

THE DAILY GAZETTE.

The Daily Gazette, at only two thirds the price of any other paper, will give an equal amount of interesting matter, its eight broad pages making it the cheapest, as it is one of the largest, daily journals of the Commonwealth.

THE DAILY GAZETTE.

The Weekly Gazette, with its days of publication so arranged as to suit all the public, will give the same matter in Edgar's Crossed and Crusader, at a lower price than any other journal in the State.
