NEWSPAPER LAWS .--- We would call the special tention of Post Masters and subscribers to the QUIRER to the following synopsis of the News-

Indiffuence to the state wing of paper in the state of th TO ADVERTISERS: whether he has subscribed or not is responsible for the pay. 3. If a person orders his paper discontinued, he must pay all arresrages, or the publisher may continue to send it until payment is made, and ollect the whole amount, whether it be taken from the office or not. There can be no legal discontin-uence until the payment is made. 4. If the subscriber orders his paper to be stopped at a certain time, and the publisher con-tinues to send, the subscriber is bound to pay for it, if he takes it out of the Post Office. The law proceeds upon the ground that a man must pay for what, he uses. 5. The courts have decided that refusing to take merspapers and periodicals from the Post office, or removing and having them uncailed for, is prima facia evidence of intentional fraud. for the exercise of this most important and merciful prerogative. The pardon report will exhibit that many instances in which Excentive elemency has been invoked, youthful prisonars, charged with their first offences, and those of a triv-ial character, have been the recipients. The object of punishment, in all cases, should not be so much to inflict pain as to reform the sufferer and prevent the repetition of evil deeds. This fact is frequently loss sight of in imposing punishment upon criminals, especially when inexperienced youths are shut up in close cells with men hardened in crime, where its arts are daily taught and a shut up in close cells with men hardened in crime, where its arts are daily taught and a romance thrown around its commission. In-stead of being improved, they come forth at the expiration of their terms of sentence with the loss of self-respect, their moral sentiments blunted, and prepared to prac-tice upon society the infamous lessons they have learned. Such punishments tend to increase rather than lessen the quantity of forme. When houses of correction and re-formatories are constructed, or a proper sys-tem of confinement and prison discipline is adopted, there will be a material decrease of erime, and comparatively few cases to de-mand the exercise of the pardoning power. Commutation of Sentences.
