Miscellaneous.

MONEY MAKING-BUSINESS TALENTS.

We are taught in the Bible that the love of money is the root of all evil. Day by day we have illustrations of this truth; yet by most men it is practically believed.

THE DICKENS SCANDAL IN A NEW LIGHT.

The recent lamentable death of the reputed wife of Augustus Dickens, the brother of the great novelist, raised, when the news was first made public, a storm of indignation against Charles Dickens.

TEENYSON AT HOME:

Drinking, Smoking and Reading His Own Poetry. A private letter to the Citizen says: We crossed to Cowes, and took a fly to Faringford, distant twelve miles; glorious drive across the Isle of Wight, between ivied hedges and past gardens of laurel and laurestinias.

THE DIFFERENCE IN BUSINESS MEN.

The difference in business men is remarkable. Some work as it is said, "slow and sure," others work rapidly, but with equal safety and success. Some men seem to have been born with a wonderful amount of business tact and ability.

THE TIME IS COMING.

The time is coming when millionaires in this country will be counted by thousands and tens of thousands. Let them multiply indefinitely, and all become instruments for good.

THE PRIDE OF THE FISH.

The proudest triumph in a man's life is when he makes a friend of an enemy. The joy is then akin to what angels feel as they rejoice over a sinner that repenteth.

ARREST OF CONSUMPTION.

There is no malady which causes so large a mortality as consumption. Statistics show that, through the civilized world, an average of one death in six, every six in the lists of mortality may be attributed to this agency.

RATES OF ADVERTISING.

Table with 3 columns: Description of ad (e.g., One square, Two squares), Duration (e.g., 3 months, 6 months, 1 year), and Rate (e.g., $4.00, $6.00, $10.00).

GOOD SPELLING.

A pious but illiterate deacon, in a certain town in Massachusetts, gave a stage-driver a slip of paper upon which, he said, were written the names of a couple of books, which he wished him to call for at a bookstore.

THE MIND.

Of all the noble works of God, that of the human mind has ever been considered the grandest. It is, however, like all else created, capable of cultivation, and just in that degree as the mind is rendered pure, isman fitted for rational enjoyment and pure happiness.

HOW AN AMERICAN DID EUROPE CHEAPLY.

A Mr. Keeler is lecturing in Boston on the subject of his undertaking to make the "grand tour" of Europe upon the sum of one hundred and eighty-one dollars in greenbacks, his starting point being Toledo, Ohio.

COLORS IN DRESS.

A good eye for color is a rarer gift than it usually supposed. Ladies who possess it, although they probably spend far less money on their wardrobe, it is not possible to instruct everybody in the arrangement of colors, but a few general rules may help most persons.
