Suppry Death.—One evening last week Mr. John Hull. of Napier township, having been at his work all day, and in robust healthretted to rest as usual. During the night some member of the family hearing an unusual noise in his chamber repaired to his bed side and found him in a dying condition.
Before the family could be aroused the vital spark had fled. We believe there was no post mortem examination and consequently no explanation of the cause of his death.
