The Bedford Inquirer

A Local and General Newspaper, Debated to Politics, Education, Literature and Morals.

JOHN LUTZ, Editor and Proprietor.

BEDFORD, PA., FRIDAY, AUGUST 27, 1899.

VOL. 42 NO 31

Inquirer Column.

TO ADVERTISERS:

1. A Postmaster is required to give notice by letter, (returning a paper does not answer the law) when a subscriber does not take his paper out of the office, and state the reasons for his being taken; and a neglect to do so makes the Postmaster responsible to the publishers for the payment of the paper. 2. Any person who takes a paper from the Post Office, whether directed to his name or another, or whether he has subscribed or not is responsible for the pay. 3. If a person orders his paper discontinued, he must pay all arrears, or the publisher may continue to send it until payment is made, and collect the whole amount, whether it be taken from the office or not. There can be no legal discontinuance until the payment is made. 4. If the subscriber orders his paper to be stopped at a certain time, and the publisher continues to send, the subscriber is bound to pay for it, if he takes it out of the Post Office. The law demands from the ground that a man must pay for what he uses. 5. The courts have decided that refusing to take newspapers and periodicals from the Post office, or removing, and having them uncollected for, is prima facie evidence of intentional fraud.
