 Resolved by the tax-payers of Bedford County, in Mass Meeting assembled, that we are opposed to the building of an expensive Poor House, on the present Poor House property, that we believe the said property to be unsuitable for the purpose of a Poor House, and that the same ought to be sold, and a suitable property be purchased, on which a comfortable, plain and comparative-ly inexpensive building should be erected.
 Resolved, that we know of no way to carry out our wishes except by nominating candidates for county Commissioners and Poor Director, without respect to party who will pledge themselves to our view.
 Resolved, that we do hereby uominate Samuel Shafer of Union twp., for County Commissioner, and Henry Moess of Bedford twp., for Poor Director, as an independent ticket.
