A YOUNG BOY in Dinois, a few days ago, laid a train of powder through the kitchen of flesh, thirty-two pounds of bone contain as much oitregen as one thousand pounds of farm manure; and hence that the carcass of a dead horse is worth more than a ton of flee best farm yard manure for the purpose of vegetation.

The Journal of Health objects to the common practice of putting as open yessel of water on the stove to prevent the air of the room from getting to dry. It says that hy thus 3lling the air with steam it is made far less salubrious, and also renders the person hreathing it extremely liable to take cold. Pure air admirted from without is better than filling the room with vapor of water.

For DROPSY and DROPSICAL SWELLINGS the vehiculd be taken in large and frequent doses to produce the effect of a drastic purge.

For SUPPRESSION a large dose should be taken as it produces the desired effect by sympathy. As a DINNER PILL, take one or two PILLs to promote digestion and relieve the stomach. An occasional dise stimulates the stomach and bowels into healthy action, restores the appetite, and invigorates the system. Hence it is often advantageous where no serious derangement exists. One who feels tolerably well, often flads that a dose of these Pills makes him feel decided by better, from their cleansing and renovating effect on the digestive apparatus.
