The Columbian.

GEORGE H. MOORE, EDITOR.

BLOOMSBURG, SATURDAY, JUNE 2, 1866.

LIEUTENANT-GENERAL SCOTT.

On Tuesday last the hero and patriot Scott died at West Point, about eleven o'clock in the forenoon.

A CALUMNY REFUTED.

The imputation upon the President of the United States of intemperance is one which may be received by many as true, from the mere lack of contradiction.

of physical prostration induced by disease, and with voice impaired by previous exertion, he delivered his inaugural address with some difficulty and embarrassment.

A SAD CASE.

ONE who frots and foams and swears at the "Disorganizers," and we are very sorry to say there are such, has failed with all his astuteness to discover anything interesting in this sheet.

THE PRESIDENT AND HIS CABINET.

We have first says the Baltimore Sun, reviewing the late speeches of the Cabinet officers the elaborate address of Secretary Seward at Auburn, nicely balancing the pros and cons upon all the leading topics which agitate the American mind.

place, in the order of destiny, will be assumed by some now and yet undeveloped political organization.

THE BOURGANANI-EATON CASE.

THE recent remarkable elopement of an Italian adventurer (who seven years ago wedded the widow of General Eaton) with the granddaughter of his wife, has created a sensation in political and fashionable circles, both in this city and in Washington.

Her second husband enjoying relations of the closest intimacy with President Jackson, his wife in consequence assumed a high position among the female notabilities of the National Capital.

of the Government has been "fully performed" in that regard. He believes, however, that time and discussion are bringing Congress and the President more nearly to each other—that at least they are not as wide apart as at the opening of the session—and that the work of restoration calls for every concession authorized by the Constitution.

THE PANIC IN EUROPE.

THE news from Europe as to financial matters is of an exciting character. It excites the greatest interest and some perturbation in the gold, stock, and exchange market here, but does not and need not create alarm.

FREEDMEN'S BUREAU FRAUDS.

Major-General O. O. Howard, Commissioner Freedmen's Bureau:

THE MONEY PANIC IN ENGLAND.

The money panic in England has abated.

THE SPRINGFIELD (MASS.) REPUBLICAN.

The Springfield (Mass.) Republican says: "If members of Congress will take pains to inquire they will find that not a few of the most staunch and influential Republicans all over the country believe that the loyal representatives from the South should be admitted to Congress, and that their continued exclusion threatens ruin to the party."

THE STATE DEPARTMENT.

The State Department has received advice from London, April 21, that the rinderpest is decreasing rapidly, and will soon disappear.

THE NORTH CAROLINA STATE CONVENTION.

A motion was made to adjourn sine die, but was defeated. A message was received from Governor Worth, in which he says he has no recommendations to make for reconstruction measures, but that the action of Congress must be waited for. He says all are loyal here, including the Congressmen elected. The President is heartily endorsed, and the civil government is in complete operation.

period his wife, directing her social talents to the Old World, became almost as noted there as she had already rendered herself in the New. She visited London and Paris, and finally settling at Madrid, established herself as a decided favorite. Various anecdotes are recorded of her stay in the Spanish Court, for only one of which we can find space. It seems to have been a Spanish custom when wishing to evince admiration for a lady to proffer her some valuable present, merely as a matter of form, the lady being presumed to gratefully decline the offer.
