

LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

WILLIAM L. MADDOCK & Co., dealers in fine groceries, No. 115 South Third Street (opposite the Girard Bank), Philadelphia.

WEAVER AND SPRANKLE, wholesale grocers and commission merchants, Nos. 225 and 227 Arch Street, Philadelphia, have a superior stock of goods in their line, and a call will be a benefit to all parties.

That portion of our readers who are Philadelphians, or who have occasion to visit Philadelphia, will want to know where they can be suited in their purchases. Schell, Berger and Co., commission merchants, and dealers in fish, salt, cheese, provisions, etc., are fully able to meet the demands of those wishing articles in their line of business. They are located at Nos. 122 and 124 North Wharves, above Arch Street.

Now that warm weather is approaching a change of clothing to suit the temperature is necessary. In this connection a knowledge of a desirable place to procure your goods is valuable information. Mr. S. H. Miller has recently returned from a business trip to the cities, and brought with him a superior assortment of Spring and Summer goods. His advertisement in another column more fully sets forth the articles he has for sale.

SOLDIERS' CONVENTION.—The Montour American, under the above caption, publishes the proceedings of a Radical Republican meeting at Danville, Montour County, held on Monday last. The resolutions are denunciatory of the President's policy, and of course complimentary to Mercur, member of Congress from this district. The force assembled is said to have been under the immediate command of Lieutenant-Colonel Frick, who acted under orders from Major-General Hartranft. The resolutions will be found in another column.

A CARD.—On behalf of the officers and members of the Catawissa English Lutheran Sabbath-School, we desire to return our humble thanks to the citizens of Catawissa and vicinity for their attendance and the very liberal patronage bestowed upon our Fair, on the 25th and 26th ultimos. We feel proud to acknowledge that the result of our sales exceeded by far our greatest expectations, and deem it an additional evidence of the good feeling and liberal spirit ever manifested by our citizens when called upon to aid in the success of a good and laudable purpose.

M. M. BROBERT, Sec'y.

AMONG other remarks about this paper, not complimentary, the editor of the Montour American observes that mechanically the COLUMBIAN is not a success. This is discouraging, if the opinion as expressed be correct. The fitness of the editor of the American to pronounce judgment upon our merits, mechanically or otherwise, will be easily determined by an inspection of his own paper. If it be a mechanical success we have and must ever fall in our enterprise. The two papers are unlike in their "make-up," and will so continue, unless the American man should become ashamed of his. For information we add that the Montour American is published in Danville, Pa.

DR. DARRIN is still at the Montour House, Danville, astonishing a constant throng of patients by the rapidity with which he relieves them of their aches, pains, and disabilities. We are pleased to learn that he is coming to Bloomsburg for a short time, stopping at the Exchange Hotel, commencing June 4, and remaining until June 9. We have not space this week to print the certificates of Thomas Williams, of Danville, who was cured of rheumatism in ten minutes; of Harmon Snyder's little girl, cured of deafness of six years' standing, living in Rush Township, Northumberland County; and John Dalley, of Danville, who was troubled with a pain in the breast and sides, shortness of breath, cured with one treatment of five minutes.
