LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

We are indebted to Hon. C. R. Buckalew for a copy of the report of the Reconstruction Committee.

William L. Maddock & Co., dealers in fine groceries, No. 115 South Third Street (opposite the Girard Bank), Philadelphia.

A frame dwelling-house, situated on Welch Hill, the property of Mr. David Edwards, and occupied by Samuel Hilborn, was destroyed by fire on Thursday evening.

Notice.—The subscribers to the stock of the Bloomsburg Literary Institute are required by the Treasurer, William Snyder, to pay the first installment of five dollars on each share, on or before the fifteenth of August, to July thirtieth, 1866.

The post-office at Jerseytown, in this county, has been removed into the village from its late location, three fourths of a mile distant. It will be kept at the store of Mr. Kreamer, who has been appointed postmaster in place of Mr. Brugler. This is a timely reform, and was required by the convenience of the citizens interested in the office.

The annual Democratic Convention of this county will be held on the twenty-seventh of this month. There is much activity among the friends of the several candidates for nomination. We shall probably in our next number exercise the privilege of an independent and disinterested observer to take some notice of the candidates and of the state of the contest among them; not for the purpose of playing critics or influencing results, but for public edification and instruction.

Base Ball.—The return match between the Shawanees and Continentals was played last Tuesday, at Plymouth, on the ground of the former club. We would impress upon the club the importance of a more extended practice before indulging in contests with other clubs. These unions are of course pleasant, aside from the immediate purpose in hand; but a victory over an older club is likely to work to the disadvantage of the younger, from the fact that it leads to others, and thereby lessens the importance which should be felt for constant practice. The plea that match games afford the desired means of improvement is to a certain extent erroneous, for the reason that this object is lost sight of in the eagerness to produce a successful result. The following is the play on Tuesday:

The Galaxy for August first contains the usual excellent variety which has characterized previous numbers. It is a neat and well-conducted periodical, and supplies a want which, among the variety of magazines now published, would hardly have been felt, but is now indispensable. Next to the two serial stories—"The Claverings" and "Archie Lovell"—the most notable contributors to the present number are Dr. T. W. Parson's translation of "The Story of Ulysses," from the Inferno of Dante, and Richard Grant White's complimentary of Mr. Hunt's "Gateways of the Central Park." A paper on "Essays and Essay Writing," by Theodore Clarence; T. F. Crane's story of "The Emerald Beetles;" Eugene Benson contributes a sketch of the painter Gerome; R. D. Carter pens some amusing reminiscences of the eccentric naturalist Charles Waterton; George Wakeman collects, under the head of "Sound and Sense," some laughable anecdotes, etc.; Edmund Gilbert writes about "The Quartier Latin;" and J. W. Lee tells a story of the Hudson, which he calls "Poljpel's Island." There are three short poems, one of which, "An Accident," by Mr. James H. Williams, though trite enough in subject, deserves particular praise for its charmingly musical ring. And last, but not least, the "Nebulæ."

NEWS ITEMS.

Chief-Justice Salmon P. Chase is on a visit to Cornish, New Hampshire, his native town.

The City Council of Boston has added ten thousand dollars to the appropriation for free public baths.

Although there is still fire in many places in the burnt district of Portland, more than two hundred buildings are now in process of erection.

Henry Fasile and Minnie Busch, being opposed in their matrimonial wishes by the lady's father, took poison in St. Louis on Saturday. Minnie died, but her lover is recovering.

The Petersburg mine "crater" is now in the midst of a luxuriant corn-field, and is itself planted in melons and fruit trees. The immense excavation made by the explosion is nearly closed to the surface, as it was converted, it is said, to the uses of sepulture.

Miss Clara Barton, whose devotion to sick and wounded soldiers in the late war is so well known, proposes, in compliance with numerous requests, to lecture the coming season on "Personal Reminiscences of Scenes on the Battle-fields."

A writer in the Rochester Express says: "I venture the prediction, based upon information derived from farmers themselves, as well as upon actual observation, that the wheat crop now being harvested is ahead of anything Ontario County has produced in that line for many years, and other grain is doing nearly quite as well."

Works for the manufacture of gas out of pine wood, bones, and animal and vegetable refuse, were started in Detroit, Michigan, on Wednesday evening. It was by way of experiment, but promises to be a success.

A dispatch to the Evening Post says that the Second Comptroller of the Treasury is of the opinion that the bill passed by Congress for the equalization of bounties is inoperative, in consequence of serious defects in the wording of the first section.

The Texas Secretary of State has been notified by the President that the Legislature will be permitted to assemble on the sixth of August, and orders have been issued for the transfer of the State Provisional Government to the elected authorities.

Rear-Admiral Charles Stewart on Saturday completed the eighty-eighth year of his age. He was born in Philadelphia July twenty-eighth, 1778, the month after the evacuation of that city by the British army. It will gratify the many friends of this veteran patriot to know that he is still active and hearty.

A most remarkable temperance lecture was delivered in New York, by Dr. Crane, at the meeting of the Metropolitan Board of Health. The lecture entire was as follows: "In the Stygian and pest-ridden Twelfth Ward of Brooklyn not a solitary one of the five hundred members of the Father Mathew Society resident therein has been attacked by cholera." Mr. Acton clinched this remark by adding that not a cholera case had yet occurred among the sixteen thousand members of the Father Mathew Society in this city.

A National Cemetery is now preparing at Culpepper, Virginia, on the farm of Mr. Hill. It will embrace about six acres, situated on a rising ground a quarter of a mile from the Court House, and visible from the Orange and Alexandria Railroad for a distance of four miles. The remains of soldiers buried between the Rappahannock River and Gordonsville are to be interred in this cemetery, including those who fell in the battle of Cedar Mountain.

THE GALAXY,
A FORTNIGHTLY ILLUSTRATED MAGAZINE.
THE GALAXY is published fortnightly, on the first and fifteenth of each month, and has the advantage of coming to the reader intermediately between the monthlies and the weeklies.
With the second number the Magazine was enlarged by sixteen pages, making it to contain ninety-six pages of matter.
LIST OF CONTRIBUTORS.
THE GALAXY will be an original American Magazine of the highest class. Arrangements have accordingly been made for regular contributions from the best known and most meritorious writers in the country; and moreover, the Editor will always seek to elicit and encourage contributions from new authors of real ability or decided genius. The articles in THE GALAXY will be signed with the names of their authors, who will be allowed a wide freedom in the expression of opinions.
The first and second numbers of THE GALAXY, for May first and fifteenth, 1866, contain contributions from John Esten Cooke, Frances Power Cobbe, Rose Terry, George Alfred Townsend, Edmund C. Stedman, the Author of "Emily Chester," Professor Pierre Blot, Dr. W. H. Draper, Stillman S. Conant, General Cluseret, and others. "The Claverings," by Anthony Trollope, and "Archie Lovell," by Mrs. Edwards, were commenced in the first number of THE GALAXY, and will continue to be published serially simultaneously with their appearance in England. The back numbers of the Magazine containing these stories may always be obtained from a newsdealer or from the publishers.
PROFESSOR BLOT ON COOKERY.
In the second number of THE GALAXY was commenced a series of articles on Cookery, by Professor Pierre Blot, the well-known teacher of the art. These articles will be made of great practical value to every family. Beside many gastronomical directions of essential importance, they will contain receipts and practical suggestions which must secure for them thousands of readers.
TERMS.
The price of THE GALAXY is 25 cents a number; $5 for the year of twenty-four numbers; $3 for six months—twelve numbers. The volumes for the year will include 2,376 octavo pages, illustrated by twenty-five or more full-page engravings, printed on tinted paper; beside innumerable smaller illustrations, scattered through the text. THE GALAXY may be ordered at the rate of twenty-five cents a number, for any length of time desired.
Specimen copies will be sent on receipt of 25 cents. Address

GODEY'S LADY'S BOOK FOR 1866.
LITERATURE, FINE ARTS, AND FASHIONS.
EDITED BY MRS. S. J. HALE AND L. A. GODEY.
The publisher of Godey's Lady's Book, thankful to that public which has enabled him to publish a magazine for the last thirty-six years of a larger circulation than any in America, has continued his arrangement with the most popular authoress in this country,
MARION HARLAND,
Authoress of "Alone," "Hidden Path," etc.
This alone places the Lady's Book, in a literary point of view, far ahead of any other magazine. Marion Harland writes for no other magazine. Our other favorite writers will all continue to furnish articles throughout the year.
SEVEN SPECIALTIES
that no other magazine has, and only to be found in Godey: "Original Music," "Model Cottage, with Diagrams," "Drawing Lessons," "Children's Department," "Original Health Department," and "Double Extension Fashion-plates."
OUR SPLENDID STEEL ENGRAVINGS.
The unanimous voice of the press has pronounced Godey's engravings to be the best ever published in any magazine of the world, and equal to those published in the Annuals of Great Britain. You may look in vain for foreign steel engravings as have been published in the seventieth and seventy-first volumes of this Book, and those for 1866 will surpass them.
GODEY'S IMMENSE DOUBLE-SHEET FASHION-PLATES.
The publication of these plates cost
TEN THOUSAND DOLLARS MORE than Fashion-plates of the old style, and nothing but our wonderfully large circulation enables us to give them.
TERMS OF GODEY'S LADY'S BOOK.

One copy one year	$3 00
Two copies one year	5 00
Three copies one year	7 50

EVERY SATURDAY:
A JOURNAL OF CHOICE READING.
SELECTED FROM FOREIGN CURRENT LITERATURE.
Much of the best literature of the day is found in the English and Continental magazines and periodicals; and it is the aim of the publishers of this new journal to reproduce the choicest selections from these for American readers, in a form at once elegant and inexpensive. The publishers believe that such a journal conducted upon the plan which they propose, will be not only entertaining and instructive in itself, but interesting and valuable as a reflex of foreign periodical literature of the day. It will be, in short, the aim of its publishers that Every Saturday shall commend itself by its freshness and variety to all classes of intelligent and cultivated readers. Every Saturday will contain each week thirty-two large octavo pages, handsomely printed in double columns, in a new and clear type.
TERMS.—Single numbers, 10 cents; subscription price, $5 per year, in advance. Monthly parts will be issued, containing 128 pages each, handsomely bound in an attractive cover, price 50 cents. Subscription price, $5 per year, in advance. Subscribers to any of the other periodicals published by Ticknor & Fields will receive Every Saturday for $4 per year, in advance.

OUR JULY VOLUME.
NEW SUBSCRIBERS WANTED AT A PREMIUM.
It will be borne in mind that we begin a new semi-annual volume of the Cultivator and Country Gentleman with the first of July. The interest taken in extending our circulation during the present season, to which we owe the fact that it is now about one third larger than last year, encourages us to present some extra inducements for new subscribers, trusting, although Summer is often favorable times for obtaining or Winter for procuring large lists, that these offers may nevertheless lead to a very considerable addition. We still have a limited number of complete sets from January first, so that new subscribers can be supplied from the date if desired; but unless so expressly ordered, subscriptions will be considered as for one year from the first of July. It will be remembered that our terms are: for one year, strictly in advance, each copy, $2 00; for six months, $1 00. We will send by mail postpaid.
Address all letters of inquiry or remittances, in all cases, to LUTHER TUCKER & SON,
Albany, N. Y.

HARPER'S NEW MONTHLY MAGAZINE.

Persons wishing to meet or see their friends depart, can be accomodated upon reasonable charge by leaving timely notice at any of the hotels.
JACOB L. GIRTON, Proprietor.

THE AMERICAN HAY KNIFE AND FORK.—We the undersigned citizens of Columbia County witnessed the trial of hay forks on the farm of Mr. Pursel, in Hemlock Township, on Monday, May 7, 1866, between the American Hay Knife and Fork manufactured by SLIFER, WALLS, SHRINER & Co., of Lewisburg, Pa., and the Randel's Patent Hay Hook. The American Fork lifted more hay in one draught than the Randel in three. We are satisfied it will take as much hay into the mow as two good horses can draw. We also saw it cutting hay, and think it cannot be beat as a hay knife, and cheerfully recommend it as the best hay fork and knife we have ever seen.
C. BITTENBENDER, W. H. KOONS, JOHN DEITERICH, H. DIEHLMILLER, MICHAEL HELLER, DR. F. C. HARRISON, JOHN DOAK, DANIEL SOYER, SYLVESTER PURSEL, JOHN WOLF.
They also manufacture the celebrated Buckeye Reaper and Mower, and other agricultural implements.

FORK'S HOTEL,
GEORGE W. MAUGER, Proprietor.
The above well-known hotel has recently undergone radical changes in its internal arrangements, and its proprietor announces to his former custom and the travelling public that his accomodations for the comfort of his guests are second to none in the country. His table will always be found supplied, not only with substantial food, but with all the delicacies of the season. His wines and liquors (except that popular beverage known as "McHenry"), purchased direct from the importing houses, are entirely pure, and free from all poisonous drugs. He is thankful for a liberal patronage in the past, and will continue to deserve it in the future. GEORGE W. MAUGER.
