How beautifully this editor illustrates and enforces the idea that some men prefer falsehood to truth! The public are beginning to understand this, and will govern themselves accordingly.

THE BLOOMSBURG POST-OFFICE,-The Radical Postmaster at this place, having ascertained that he is to be removed, has written the insolent letter which we give below to the Postmaster-General. He risks nothing, because his fate is already fixed; but he attempts to Improve the occasion to play the part | Grand Jurers-September Term, 1866. of a disinterested patriot. It is the ease of the Assessorship over again. When the office can no longer be held the incumbent pretends to care nothing about and vaunts his own independence. All at once the grapes are very sour:

POST-OFFICE, BLOOMSBURG, PA., }

Hon. A. W. Randall:

SIR,—I have just received your call for the Philadelphia Convention, under the frank of Senator Cowan, and I hasten to reply.

I most heartily approve of said call.

and for the following reason, viz: it will place all such renegades as Cowan and pace all such renegates as Cowan and yourself in the ranks of the Copper-Rebel Democracy, and so fully show up your baseness and treachery to your friends and your country as to render you powerless for harm.

I hold the best post-office in Columbia County. It is at your disposal. My political principles and doctrines belong to myself. Respectfully, etc...

self. Respectfully, etc., D. A. BECKLEY, Postmaster.

We think very likely that the circular for the Philadelphia Convention has been in his hands for some time, although he pretends to have just received it.

WITHIN a few days we have seen a letter from a gentleman of standing in Bradford County, detailing an open conversation with Mercur about his prospects of re-election. Mercur is delighted with the Democrat and Star, of this place, which has been for some time so obviously edited in his interests. Its denunciations of Johnson men generally; its flings at Senator Buckalew, who had John removed, and beat him (Mercur) upon Clark's confirmation; its following the Philadelphia Conjany.
