

LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

"JUNIOR, spell thieves." "T-h-i-e-v-e-s."

Will the Democrat and Star inform its readers where we can find their quotation, "It is well with thee, my brother?"

WILLIAM L. MADDOCK & Co., dealers in fine groceries, No. 115 South Third Street (opposite the Girard Bank), Philadelphia.

S. FRANK LATHROP, of the late La Raysville Union, has commenced the publication of a paper at Athens, Bradford County, entitled the Athens Republican.

This Congressional District was represented in the Philadelphia Convention by Colonel Elhanan Smith and C. L. Ward, Esq., of Bradford County, and by General W. H. Ent and John K. Grotz, Esq., of this county.

THE Democrat and Star, in repeating the falsehood of the Republican about our circulation, is performing its accustomed business of second fiddle to P. John. It echoes the music of its friend with lively admiration, and drops into all his false notes with the aptness of a devoted scholar.

DESERVED PROMOTION.—Our young friend, Major R. Bruce Ricketts, has been commissioned by Governor Curtin as Colonel of the First Regiment Pennsylvania Light Artillery, dated March fifteenth, 1866. This promotion is deserved, as no officer in the county has seen more field service or kept a clearer record. The compliment will be heartily endorsed by the soldiers of the county.

THE Montour County Democratic convention, held on Monday last, nominated William A. Dean, of Limestone, for Senator and Captain Thomas Chalfant, of the Danville Intelligence, for Representative. Peter Hughes and James L. Curry were nominated for Associate Judges. Isaac Amerman and John W. Miles were appointed Congressional conferees without instructions. Senatorial conferees, Judge Moore and Judge Oaks.

We endeavor to publish a Democratic paper for the good of the Democratic party of this county (some doubt of that) and it is our sacred duty to warn Democrats against any faction which has for its mission a spirit deceitful and dangerous.—Democrat and Star.

Now whether a spirit is the mission of a faction or a faction the mission of a spirit is about equally intelligible. Sentences which make capital nonsense read backward or forward must be written under a happy condition of the intellect.

REMOVED.—C. F. Knapp, local reporter and accredited agent of the Columbia County Republican, has been removed from the office of Assistant Assessor in this place, and John Thomas of Bloomsburg appointed. It is generally believed the public interests will not suffer by this change. The public treasury certainly will not, unless, like his predecessor, Mr. Thomas has the power of ubiquity. If anybody does not understand what is meant by this we beg to assure them that it is susceptible of explanation.

THE Democrat and Star has cooled down from its fever heat upon the Congress question, a salutary result of our exposure of its course, and of a pretty general sentiment in the county, strongly expressed. It may ere long be brought over to the point of agreeing that men who are not among its subscribers may without abuse be permitted to vote against a Disunion candidate for Congress. But evidently this gracious concession, if made, will be due to its fears rather than its magnanimity.

IN an article published two weeks since, by an error of composition we were made to say that delegates to the Philadelphia Convention were arriving here. The correction was made for our main edition; but a few advance or early copies, which went out uncorrected, afforded an opportunity for a small criticism by both of our amiable neighbors of the Press. In the case of the Democrat and Star, probably incited to do so by the editor of the Republican, it was published in the face of the explanation in our last number as to how the mistake occurred.

THE Republican and the Democrat and Star are equally indignant at the ostracism of Wood and Vallandigham in the Philadelphia Convention. On this on many other subjects they are in happy accord. P. John says the failure to admit them was "illogical and ridiculous;" and he also denounces it as "inconsistent as well as mean." Brother Ketcher in turn exclaims: "Did not the Convention stultify itself? Will not this action be recorded in history as a lasting, dark, and damning blot upon its character?" Whatever regrets may be expressed by our neighbors, we think that Wood and Vallandigham would have been out of place in the Philadelphia Convention, and in this opinion not only the people of the county generally but even their friends concur.

The following paragraph immediately follows another relating to a young man in a deranged state of mind. He evidently had his influence on the Junior, for witness the middle he was in when writing the following:

THE DIFFERENCE.—While we oppose the negro-suffrage, Mercier, at heart, earnestly, and from principle, the COLUMBIAN is hired, or bought up, to do its blowing, and after all has the impertinence and audacity to charge the Democrat and Star with infidelity. "O, shame, where is thy blush?"

THE plethora of words with which the Junior of the Democrat and Star is afflicted appears in an article about "stabbing." In his last number, "The COLUMBIAN, according to this authority, is stabbing the Democracy, stabbing the Radicals, and what is worst of all, stabbing the subscription list of the Democrat and Star. As to that remarkable journal itself, he says that the COLUMBIAN aims at it "its poisonous darts," which must be regarded, of course, as very naughty warfare. But all this stabbing and shooting of darts receives a harmonious explanation from the Junior. The cause is founded in the "real nature" of the COLUMBIAN, which resembles that of a crocheting and blood-thirsty tiger, in its being "like Satan," and its determination "to steal the livory of Heaven to do the work of Hell." Besides, to elench the matter, we are told that, "like the Father of all Evil," it quotes "sacred doctrine (not Shakespear's)" to accomplish its wicked purposes." This explanation must be considered satisfactory!

Weeks before our advent both the Republican and the Democrat and Star (from motives well understood and generally appreciated by the public) commenced their warfare upon us, and how persistently they have continued it their respective journals will show. We made up our mind at the outset to withstand this combined and preconcerted attack with becoming patience, repulsing our enemy when occasion might require. To this position we have adhered. After this singular combination of forces to oppose us is considered, the most amusing feature in this little drama is their cool frontality in complaining that this paper abuses them. They must be allowed to exhaust the vocabulary of denunciation when they speak of us (and in this respect there has been a generous rivalry between them), while our right to reply is denied, no matter how justly that reply may be made. We state the case between us and our two contemporaries fairly. Formerly the Republican was the most virulent and malicious, but latterly the Democrat and Star carries off the palm.

WHEREAS, we, as members of the Bloomsburg Lodge No. 139, of the I. O. of G. T., beholding the poisonous influence of the wine cup, imbedding its deadly venom within the bosom of the community, and in defiance of our mightiest efforts put forth to banish it from our midst, destroying the lives of the aged, and fastening its grasp upon many of our youth, causing premature decay and untimely death, are resolved that an attempt be made to make an impression upon the public mind by means of the public lecture.

Accordingly Rev. M. Rhodes, of Sumbury, a firm and able advocate of the Temperance cause, with the glorious emblem of our noble order unfurled about him, willingly responded to the call. To him we return our most sincere thanks for the laudable manner in which he has served us. Although the words to which he gave utterance have ceased to vibrate within those sacred walls, may the sentiments that he advanced have awakened the drowsy powers of the people that have slumbered during the long lapse of years, and let their influence be as noiseless as the dew, and after our honored brother has left this unfortunite world, may the seed that he has sown continue to bear fruit, until this shall cease to bear upon its wings the influence of words.

By order of the Bloomsburg Lodge of I. O. of G. T. August 22, 1866.
