LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

It is announced that Rev. Dr. Reily, of Danville, will preach at the Methodist church to-morrow morning and evening.

The election passed off quietly. We noticed some cases of drunkenness, but the general order of the community was well observed.

William L. Maddock and Co., dealers in fine groceries, No. 115 South Third Street (opposite the Girard Bank), Philadelphia.

The Radical orators in the late canvass discussed so many dead issues that we suggest in future they hold their mass meetings in graveyards.

We have received from the Secretary of the Agricultural Society of this county a complimentary ticket to the Fair, which concludes its exhibition to-day.

In California a Chinaman cannot testify against a white man or a negro. Here is an opportunity for more philanthropic amendments to the Federal Constitution.

The vocal music at the concert of the Continental Vocalists on Thursday evening was excellently rendered, and the entertainment as a whole was a very enjoyable one.

The same spirit that mobbed Senator Andrew Johnson in Western Virginia when he was en route against Southern secession, also mobbed President Andrew Johnson when he was en route through Indianapolis against Northern secession.

By reference to our advertising columns it will be seen that Mr. J. W. Chemberlain has opened a clothing store in the Hartman Building. His facilities for supplying citizens with articles in his line of business are superior, and we advise a call on him.

New Music.—Mr. Horace Waters, the enterprising music publisher in New York, has disposed of his business to Mr. Charles M. Tremaine, who promises to conduct it with the same energy and liberality as his predecessor. As an earnest of his enterprise Mr. Tremaine has just issued "Waiting for the Loved One," words by Josephine Pollard, music by Henry Tucker; "Banjo Galop," by Mrs. Parkhurst; "Bells in Distant Lands," by Henry Tucker; and "Beautiful Home of my Dreams," words by W. C. Parker, music by H. O. Danks.

In our notice last week of the yield of Mr. Traugh's some errors occured which we correct this week. It will be found below as it should have been printed:

Mr. P. M. Traugh, of Berwick, in a field of sixteen acres, has raised one thousand shocks of corn; fourteen hundred bushels of onions, from the seed; two hundred bushels of turnips; four tons of hay; one hundred bushels of potatoes; one thousand heads of cabbage; four hundred bushels of ruta-bogas; fifteen loads of pumpkins. The writer states this, to a great extent, from personal observation, and has the assurance of the neighbors that it is rather under than over overstated.

The Swiss Bell Ringers.—We copy the following beautiful extract from the Christian Advocate, complimentary to the world-renowned Alleghanians, Vocalists, and Swiss Bell Ringers, who appear at Snyder's Hall on this Saturday evening. It says: "They are all talented and gifted performers, and a high and blessed mission is theirs, going from city to city, and from village to village, speaking to the great heart of humanity—now in the stirring notes of high and noble song, and again in the sweet and soothing strains of beauty—they are ministers of good, reaping in fields which the same truth, dressed in sterner garb, would leave shearless."

The Galaxy for October fifteenth comes to us with an excellent variety of articles, fully sustaining the high rank it has taken in the periodical literature of the day. An article on Mormonism will be found interesting as conveying an idea of the views of the Mormons in regard to their peculiar religion. The remarks on the same article, by the editor of the magazine, in the "Nebula," should be read in this connection. An account of a portion of the campaign of Sheridan in the Shenandoah Valley, by a participant, will be peculiarly acceptable to the admirers of this gallant officer. The other articles are excellent, and the continued stories by such writers as Anthony Trollope and Mrs. Edwards, are sufficient recommendation. The price of the Galaxy is five dollars a year, twenty-five cents a number. Address W. C. and F. P. Church, No. 39 Park Row, New York.

RULES AND REGULATIONS.
(Article third of the constitution requires persons to pay to the Association one dollar to constitute membership. The practice heretofore has been to buy tickets on Fair days, and have names recorded at the time.)
First, Every person leaving articles for exhibition or competition, must become a member of the Association before entering them.
Second, Minors can become members or exhibitors when their parents are members.
Third, The field of competition is open to all persons from other counties and States, but no other exhibitors than the same terms as citizens of this county.
Fourth, All articles offered for competition must be owned by the competitor. Fruit, vegetables, flowers, &c., must be the growth of the competitor, and all manufactured articles must be made by the competitor.
Fifth, All stock entered must be what represented, or premiums will be forfeited.
Sixth, All articles for exhibition or competition must be entered by 9 o'clock P.M. Thursday, the 11th, and stayed in their stalls or places, by 10 o'clock A.M. of Friday, the 12th, when they will be at the disposal of the ex
