LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

WILLIAM L. MADDOCK AND CO. dealers in fine groceries, No. 115 South Third Street (opposite the Girard Bank) Philadelphia.

WE are unable to publish this week the list of premiums awarded at the late Fair on account of the examination by the Executive committee not taking place until to-day.

E. R. IKELER, well known to our readers as the Junior of the Democrat and Star, has been succeeded by J. P. Shuman, foreman of the office. We are pleased to notice this instance of the advancement of a worthy young man.

MR. B. STONER has bought a portion of the Robison property near our office. It is now occupied by Mr. FOX. We are told that the announcement in the Republican of the purchase of the other part by Mr. A. M. Rupert is premature.

MR. E. H. BIGGS is making a substantial improvement to the town by laying down a most excellent pavement in front of the Exchange Block. Will not our other property holders follow suit? There is great room for improvement in this respect.

BY reference to our advertising columns it will be seen that Mr. J. W. Chemberlain has opened a clothing store in the Hartman Building. His facilities for supplying citizens with articles in his line of business are superior, and we advise them to give him a call.

THE County Fair was a gratifying success to the managers and the people at large. There was a large turn-out of the people on each day to witness the numerous attractions of the Exhibition. The closing day being a delightful one, the fair sex took advantage of it, and were noticeable participants in the enjoyments of the occasion.

P. JOHN crows lustily over the election returns outside of Columbia County, but complains that the Democracy in many of the townships in this county "fairly swarmed;" all which means, where P. John has run the party machine the Republicans have been badly beaten, while their majorities elsewhere have been satisfactory.

THE editor of the Republican is as much at fault in his knowledge of arithmetic in computing the election returns as he is in giving the amount of the circulation of the COLUMBIAN. After stating the number of votes cast for Clymer in this county at 3,588, and those for Geary at 1,950, he makes out the majority for Clymer to be 1,618! We publish in another column a correct return.

WE understand that our friend and neighbor Judge Elwell made a speech in Franklin before the election. Result—Judge Mercur ran ahead of the ticket.—Columbia County Republican.

The above paragraph is one of the numerous small lies contained in P. John's last paper. We know that Judge Elwell made no speech in this county nor anywhere else in his Judicial District in the late canvass, and we take it for granted that he was never in Franklin Township in all his life.

THE Republican Standing Committee of this county have it in serious contemplation to engage the services of Robert F. Clark, Esq., to stump the District against Mercur in 1868. He made votes for us at every place he spoke this Fall.—Columbia County Republican.

Mr. Clark spoke upon the Congress question, and only in Fishing Creek and Greenwood. In both districts Judge Elwell runs ahead of Clymer. In Greenwood, Mercur had a majority in 1864, but is now beaten six votes. In Fishing Creek the majority against Mercur is fifty-one greater than it was in 1864. These facts, taken from the figures in his own paper, show P. John's veracity, or rather his want of it.

WE are continually receiving letters from persons in different parts of this district complaining that they can get no replies to their letters to the Assessor requesting official information, and others complaining that they can never find him at his office. That these complaints are well founded we have no doubt, but we cannot relieve them. Let them forward their complaints to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue at Washington.—Columbia County Republican.

During the temporary absence of Mr. Clark, in Ohio, P. John publishes the above paragraph, which we are satisfied is false in every particular. We have reason to know that Mr. Clark's chief clerk is constantly in the office, and attentive to every request by mail for information, and he is more competent than P. John ever was to perform the duties of the place. We make this reply in the absence of Mr. Clark, because we believe this sneaking and false attempt is made only because he is absent.

IMPORTANT LEGAL DECISION.

THE case of the heirs of H. H. Harris, contesting the final settlement of Sec. Parker, Administrator, which was tried and argued at great length, some time ago, before Hon. George B. Saunders, Probate Judge of Sumter County, and which was held up by him for consideration, has been decided in favor of the Administrator. By this decision, so far as this court is concerned, the following principles are settled:

1. The ordinance of the State Convention, and the different acts of the Legislature, for the protection of administrators, executors, and guardians, are valid; and investments made by them in good faith, in late Confederate securities, under color of law, will now be upheld; the loss falling upon the estate, and not upon such executors, administrators, or guardians.

2. Contracts made during the war, [illegible] recognizing the law[illegible]

Confederate Bonds and Treasury Notes, and which were then valid, will not now be pronounced void.

3. Collections of debts due an estate by the personal representative, in Confederate Treasury Notes, will be upheld if made in good faith, even though the debt was due before the war, and the notes became worthless in the hands of the administrator.

4. Where rights had already vested before the surrender, or acts have been performed under then laws the in force, the public policy which existed at the time such rights accrued, and not present public policy, will control the question of their legality; and loyalty to the National Government does not require interference with such past transactions, if honestly made, and in accordance with the laws of the State at the time.

5. The administrator in this case, having in good faith sold a large amount of cotton, by the advice and order of the Probate Court, in 1863, for a fair price, and having taken a note for the purchase money, from the purchaser, which was delivered to the guardian of the heirs, and afterward collected by the guardian in Confederate money, he is not liable to account again for said cotton; although the sale was made with reference to the market price in Confederate money.

6. The administrator, having distributed in kind to the heirs all the specie and bank notes of the estate, is not now chargeable with the same.

The counsel employed in the foregoing case were, for the heirs, T. R. Cornick, Esq., Reuben Chapman, Jr., Hon. A. A. Coleman, A. W. Cockrell, Esq., and Judge S. F. Rice. For the Administrator—Thomas Cobbs, Esq., E. W. Smith, Esq., T. B. Wetmore, Esq., P. G. Nash, Esq., and Judge William M. Brooks.

THE ROUND TABLE.

A SATURDAY REVIEW OF LITERATURE, SOCIETY, AND ART.

The Round Table is established for the unflinching discussion of the subjects named in its title. Its purpose is to be utterly fearless and untrammelled in forming its opinions, and to collect the most brilliant and scholarly writers in the country to give them expression. Some may occasionally be displeased by the tone and spirit wherein this is done, but we beg all such to consider—in the words of Mr. Ruskin—how much less harm is done in the world by ungraceful boldness than by untimely fear.

The Round Table is independent in politics, and it will not hesitate to condemn or to sustain such men or measures of whatever sect, clique, or party as may seem to the editors to be from time to time in a position of antagonism or otherwise to the material interest either of the metropolitan community or to those of the whole common country.

The Round Table exists to serve the public, not individuals, and contributors are requested to avoid personal puffery and animadversion of every kind. Vigorous writers and able special correspondents are regularly employed, but the opinions of the paper are open to merit, let it come whence it may.

Articles may be sent through any channel, but we will hold no personal explanations or discussions respecting them; moreover, we must decline to return rejected matter unaccepted MS., and to this rule we will make no exception.
