CONNECTICUT.

In a few weeks an election will take place in that State for Governor and other State officers as well as for members of Congress. In 1865, Buckingham, the Republican candidate was elected over Seymour by over 11,000 majority. In 1866 Hawley, Radical, was elected over English, by only 541 majority. The same candidates are again in the field, and we confidently expect a victory, as 300 votes of a change will give that State to the Democracy. Last year the Radicals proclaimed themselves supporters of President Johnson's policy and as opposed to negro suffrage. This year they have thrown off the mask, and fully endorse the revolutionary schemes of Congress, and proclaim themselves in favor of negro suffrage. Two years ago the latter question was submitted to the people of that State, and rejected by 6,000 majority, and it is not likely the Radicals have made a change of over 3,000 since. Besides all this, Lieut, Governor Winchester, and Secre tary of State, Pease, who were elected with Hawley last year, and who hold next to him the two highest offices in the State, have come out openly in support of the Democratic candidates. If we have strength enough to carry the Governor, we will probably carry three out of the four Congressmen,

MORE CUFFEE.

In the State Senate on the fifth of February, Mr. Connell presented the petition of one hundred citizens of Pennsylvania, praying for a law to compel railroads to carry people without dis-tinction of color." He was followed by Worthington, LANDON (the Radical Republican candidate for United States Senator), White, (whose name ought to be black to agree with his tastes) Shoemaker of Luzerne, Cowles, Coleman, Fisher, Billingfelt, Bigham, Taylor, Brown (Mercer), Browne (Lawrence), and tailed off by that immaculate worshiper of Old John Brown, Lowry, by others of similar import.

It is hardly necessary to say that all these people are double-dyed-in-the- excluded, or assist in the exclusion from wool-radicals. And any white man or woman can imagine the comfort and commodation of passengers, any person pleasure of riding, during the hot or persons on account of color or race,

SHAD IN THE SUSQUEHANNA.

Susquehanna, has made his official report. A series of steps have been erect-$5,000, and the shad are invited to climb the court. them before any further improvements are made. If that proves a success, a similar improvement will be made in the Clark's Ferry and Shamokin dams, and then we can catch our own fish. As a rule, however, shad do not proceed viso: far above their spawning ground, and it far above their spawning ground, and it provided. That if said corporations may be some time before they reach our shall provide for the accommodation of waters even if the dams prove a success. As our people are considerably interested in this question, we will refer to it again. We attended the "Shad Conven tion" last year, and, therefore, consider ourselves sound on the fish question.

TERRIBLE SLAUGHTER IN THE UNITED STATES SENATE.

MORE UNION SOLDIERS KILLED IN THREE DAYS THAN WERE SLAIN AT

"A battle has been going on in the Senate of the United States between the members of that body and the soldiers of the Union army, which surpasses in its terrible results the awful slaughter at Gettysburg. The gallant men who fought their way through Baltimore to save the Capitol, who led and bled at Antietam, at Gettysburg, at Vicksburg, at Port Hudson and at Fort Fisher; who followed the lead of Hookrisher; who followed the lead of Hook-er and Burnside and Moade in nearly all the battles of the army of the Poto-mae; who sustained Sheridan-in the Valley, and supported Grant through the trials of the Wilderness until victor-ry perched upon his tattered banners, have been defeated, routed and killed in a manner so cruel and unnatural as to make the barbarisms of Indin fight-ing appear in comparison the mildest ing appear in comparison the mildest mode of civilized warfare. The tomahawk never was half so cruel. The guillotine was mercy itself when com-pared with the merciless treatment by United States Senators of their countrymen who were so recently leading our battalions to glory and to victory." vania.

SAMBO LEGISLATION.

XCLUSION OF COLORED PERSONS FROM RAHLROAD CARS.

The bill, entitled An act to punish, by fine, any railroad corporation within ons, on account of color or race, esumed the second reading and considcration of the same.

Mr. Wallace moved to amend the first section to the effect that when a comfortable seat in a passenger car is given to the colored race, they are comfortably provided for, and should not enter into the seat of a white person. Will the Senate agree to the amendnent of Mr. Wallace? The yeas and navs were required by

Mr. Wallace and Mr. Jackson, and were s follows, viz:

YEAS-Messrs. Burnett, Davis, Donovan, Glatz, Jackson, James, M'Candless, M'Conaughy, Randall, Schall, Searight, Wallace, Walls and Hall, Speaker-14.

NAYS-Messrs. Bigham, Billingfelt, Browne (Lawrence), Brown (Mercer), Coleman, Connel, Cowles, Fisher, Graham, Landon, howry, Shoemaker, Stutzman, Taylor, White and Worthington-16.

So the question was determined in the negative.

Mr. SEARIGHT. 1 offer the following amendment, to come in at the end of the first section:

Provided, That if such agent, conductor or employee shall set apart, in their said cars, comfortable seats at the end thereof, or shall provide separate cars for the accommodation of persons of color traveling therein, no such fine or penalty shall be imposed.

The amendment was voted down. Mr. WALLACE moved to amend, by dding to the end of the first section the following:

Provided, That nothing herein con-tained shall be construed to compel the admission of negroes into berths in sleeping cars, or to punish one for the exclusion of persons of color from the cars set apart for the use of ladies.

That amendment was also voted lown, and among the nays the "lovely LANDON." After some more discussion the first section of the bill passed oy the following vote.

YEAS-Messrs, Bigham, Billingfelt, Browne (Lawrence), Brown (Mercer), Coleman, Connell, Cowles, Graham, Landon, Lowry, Ridgway, Stutzman, He was followed by Taylor, White, Worthington and Hall,

NAYS-Messrs. Burnett, Davis, Donovan, Jackson, James, M'Candless, M'conaughy, Randall, Schall, Searight, Shoemaker, Wallace and Walls-13. The second section then read as follows:

SECTION 2. That any agent, conductor or employee of any railroad or railway corporation within this Commonwealth, who shall exclude, allow to be any of their cars set apart for the acmonths of the coming summer, along or who shall refuse to earry such person ed at the Columbia dam, at a cost of (30) days, or both, at the discretion of

Will the Senate agree to the second section?

A motion was made by Mr. M'CAND-LESS to amend the same by adding to the end thereof the following pro-colored persons at least one passenger car in five of those used upon their line of travel, and shall distinctly mark the same upon the side of such cars so set apart for such persons, the penalty here-by imposed shall not be inflicted.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree so to amend? The yeas and nays were required by Mr. M'CANDLESS and Mr. SEA-RIGHT, and were as follow, viz:

YEAS-Messrs. Burnett, Davis, Donovan, Jackson, James, M'Candless Randall, Schall, Searight, Wallace and Walls-11.

CONGRESS.

WASHINGTON, Pelsunry 17. The Senate remained in session until six o'clock Sunday morning, at which hour it passed the bill providing for the military government of the Southern States, with an amendment agreed on by the committee appointed at the senatorial caucus held on yesterday morning. The bill as it passed virtually embraced the Blaine amendment, and re quires universal suffrage of the Southern States and the ratification of the constitutional amendment as conditions precedent to their admission to representation.

THE PRESIDENT AND MR. GREELY. Among the rumors insisted on in cerain quarters to-night is one that the President has written a letter to Horace Greely, tendering him the position of Postmaster-General. The rumor is doubted generally as much as the one that preceded Bancroft's appointment, but it may prove as true.

The Democrats, or opposition men threw their votes solid against it, with the single exception of General Rousseau, of Kentucky, who voted for it. Messrs. Cooper, Bergen, Leftwitch, Taylor, of New York, and one or two others, however, did not answer when their names were called, but, before the result was announced, voted against it. This made forty-one votes, to which were added fifty-seven Radical Republican votes, thus defeating the bill by a majority of twenty-five. Seventy-two Republican votes, and one opposition (Rousseau) were thrown in its favor. The result was received with surprise, but in dead silence. The bill was immediately sent across the Capitol to the Senate and quickly taken up in that body. The parliamentary question there, was on ordering a conference committee on the disagreement between the two Houses. This met with general opposition, except from Sumner and Fessenden. The latter was personally attacked by Howard and Wade for deserting his post on Saturday night on the passage of the bill. Fessenden bitterly replied; accused Howard of glorifying himself, and sharply told Wade that he did not propose to be rebuked or abused by him. The wrangle was racy and annusing, and was but a duplication of Republican gainst the amendment, and in favor of harmony exhibited on the same question in the House.
