PRIDAY MORNING, MAY 31, 1862.

DESERTER VOTING.

AT the late term of the Court of Quarter Sessions of this County, Lewis Boner, one of the officers of the election last Fall, in Centralia Borough, was a fine of fifty dollars, and the costs of he says:

samilited in the most unqualified manner that the Act of Assembly disfranchising so-called deserters from the properties of the reinperance in a special properties of the reinperance in the control of the reinperance in the reinperance in the reinperance in the reinperance in the control of the reinperance in the reinperance in the responsibility of our porties, it is bareception was resisted in a speech from the signorant of law and had sinned unwitingly. This defence did not prevail, and their elient was convicted. There can be little doubt that this decision was just, not only because every man is bound to know the law and obey it, especially where the rights of his neighbor are concerned, but also because the defendant had full information given him concerning his duty as an officer of the election. The law, so fix adding that I must so plant the concessions in public circulars by the District Attorney, and the decision of the Supreme Court upon the sam question had been published in the newspapers. No intelligent person in the County could therefore make the plead of gnorance when called upon to decide this question as an election of its convenience. The responsible for the algority of the responsible for the fairly viewed by hundreds of our citizate to fair the respectation of the reinperance in specific to the clude to the clude to the plead of the properties and the converted that the converted to the plead of the person that the plead of the supreme Court upon the same question had been published in the newspapers.
