

THE COLUMBIAN, BLOOMSBURG, COLUMBIA COUNTY, PA.

The Columbian.

BLOOMSBURG, FRIDAY, JUNE 14, 1907.

Columbia County Democratic Convention. NOTICE is hereby given that the Democratic convention in and for the several boroughs and electors in Columbia County, will meet at their usual place of holding their annual convention on SATURDAY THE TWENTY SEVENTH DAY OF JUNE, 1907, between the hours of 10 and 12 o'clock in the afternoon of said day, for the purpose of choosing delegates from each election district to meet in County Convention, at the COTY HOTEL in Bloomsburg, on Monday the 29th day of June, 1907, at 10 o'clock, p. m., for the purpose of making the usual annual nomination of the Democratic party of Columbia County.

We make some corrections this week in the Mercantile Appraiser's list by adding some names, and correcting the date of appeal. Those interested will please take notice.

The self-styled "far seeing" editor of the Republican says he "helped to nominate Andy," and that's why he is pitching into him. Then he was "so far seeing" after all. More like the owl than the eagle.

Our hearts go part passu with the heroine, Lady Milford. Both advertised in the American?—Republican.

The Mountain American of last week pulls Bob Clark. Both advertised in the American?—Republican.

And did not advertise in the Columbia Co. Republican—and that's what's the matter. Is Dr. Brower like you, bought by a little patronage?

We published a paragraph last week, that the editor of the Republican is sufficiently "far seeing" to think "keen, and sharp, and smart!"

We should feel gratified if we thought the "far seeing" qualified to judge.

MR. WILLIAM APPLEMAN, of Benton, has bought of Issachar Evans and Hiram D. Appleman, the saw mill and tract of timber land owned by them on Raven Creek, for the consideration of two thousand dollars.

BENJAMIN F. FLANDERS, who has been appointed Governor of Louisiana, is a staunch and devoted loyalist, whose record is known to every one who has intelligently followed the Union movements in that State since the war.—The Press.

Our people have some recollection of Lyophts, in other words Tories, and did not think much of them. It seems devoted to them, how is it with the Republican?

"THE COLUMBIA COUNTY REPUBLICAN" siteth at the gate of the people. Is it because the editorial board is the spectral hand from out the wall that holds the balance that conscience tells him he has been weighed in and found wanting?—Sedah?—Republican.

Is not that eloquent and elegant? A newspaper sits at the gate, it is a special hand, it sticks out from the wall, it holds a balance, and it weighs a man. That out Herold Herod for unmitigated nonsense.

SOME radical changes have been made in our streets during the past week. Certain places have been improved, and others must be tested before their merits can be seen. We would repeat what we said on a former occasion, that if the $2000, road tax were used in properly paving the streets each year, they would soon be in excellent condition and that annual expense reduced. It must be done some time, and why not begin now?

On last Tuesday a young son of Mr. Carver of this place, having got hold of a match, determined to have a private bonfire, and ignited some shavings in the stable on the alley in the rear of his father's house. The blaze increased rapidly, and when he became frightened, and gave the alarm in time to enable the neighbors to put out the fire. Shavings, piled with inflammable material, was only a few feet distant, and the flames spread a short distance farther over a most disastrous loss would have occurred, as our town is destitute of fire engines or hose.

CLAIMS FOR BACK PAY AND BOUNTY.—The Second Auditor receives hundreds of letters daily, inquiring into the condition of claims for back pay and bounty, and urging their speedy settlement. When applications have been examined and found correct in form, they are put on file for settlement, and are taken up in their regular order, and without unnecessary delay; and as the answer of such letters would in no manner aid the claimants, but would occupy much time which would otherwise be devoted to the settlement of claims, parties will hereafter be notified in each case in the letter announcing the correctness of application, that all correspondence relating to the claim must be considered as terminated until final adjustment.

TROUTING.—Quite a number of our citizens were "trout fishing" last week on the Fishing-creek and its tributaries. The high water during the Spring has therefore prevented this annual amusement. Among the successful fishermen was John J. McHenry, Esq., of Benton, who caught a trout at the mouth of West Creek, which measured sixteen and a half inches in length, and weighed nearly three pounds. He caught his mate soon after, but his rod broke, and though he jumped into the water and secured the pole, the fish had unhooked himself. Mr. McHenry, the same day snared one fourteen inches long. We also spoiled a good pair of boots in the pleasant exercise of causing a fly down the creek, and succeeded beyond our best expectations. There are few deep holes on our route that we did not find.

Mr. Stephen Kiefer is said to have a trout in his spring twenty-two inches long, which we would have given a new dress to have obtained.

THE EDITOR justifies Greeley's action in baiting Jeff. Davis. All the Editor's howling about "treason and traitors" must have been intended for effect, then, inasmuch as he favors the release of the principal traitor. We presume he endorses Greeley's views on "Treason" which we publish this week.

We are requested to give notice that the Ladies of Bloomsburg, intend to hold a strawberry festival in the Literary Institute at this place, beginning on Tuesday evening, June 25th, and continuing every evening throughout the week. The proceeds are to be applied to the purchase of a chandelier and other fixtures for the Institute.

We are pleased to note that Colonel E. Overton, of this place has been appointed Register in Bankruptcy for this District. Colonel Overton is an able lawyer, and his selection reflects credit upon the appointing power. We only hope that the emoluments may prove equal to the honors of the position.—Hartford Argus.

We are assured by Mr. Welles of Athens, that the grading of the railroad from Towanda to the State line will be completed to-day, and that the rails will be laid as soon as they can be shipped over the canal from below. The N. B. and Junction Canals will be opened on the 5th of June. We are also informed that the Southern Central road is being surveyed. What has become of the Ithaca and Towanda road?—Watery Advocate.

The Orangeville Brass Band propose giving a grand musical and literary entertainment at the Academy Hall, in Orangeville, on Thursday evening June 20th, and at New Columbus, on Saturday evening, June 22d. The exercises will consist of vocal and instrumental music, didactic and comic speeches, pantomime, etc. The proceeds are to go for the benefit of the Band. No doubt the people will turn out handsomely, and enjoy the promised rich treat.

We hear of no preparation for the coming Fourth of July. It is a sad token of the degeneracy of the times, when the day which gave birth to American Independence is almost forgotten. Certainly some of our "back townships" can teach the county seat a lesson in this respect, and celebrate the day in the good old fashioned way. True, Radicals may object to the enunciation of the principles of '76,—and we confess they smack of treason,—but nevertheless they were adopted and approved by our fathers, and we endorse them still.

BAPTIZED.—On Sabbath afternoon last, Rev. George J. Bressinger, pastor of the Baptist Church of this place, performed the solemn rite of Baptism, by immersion, upon seven persons, at the mouth of Brainerock. Notwithstanding the weather was somewhat unfavorable, the solemn and impressive ceremonies were witnessed by quite a goodly number of our citizens.

We are requested to announce that several others will be baptized in the Susquehanna river, at this place, on Sabbath morning next, immediately after divine service.—Berkshire Gazette.

P. JOHNS has at last been compelled to answer the question "whether or not he was in favor of negro suffrage and equality." As we expected, he is in favor of perfect equality, and that negroes shall vote, by juries, hold office, etc. Now, ye Republicans, do you longer doubt the aims and purposes of the leaders of your party? It will no longer answer to say you are not in favor of it, so long as you act with a party whose only object and aim, as expressed by their Conventions, speakers and press, is to give the negro, without exception, the same rights and privileges the white man enjoys. How about the Republican orator in this county, who declared that when his party became committed to negro suffrage, he would take the stump against it?

BOLE REBELLY.—We learn from the Danville Intelligencer, that a bold and daring burglary was perpetrated at the residence of Michael Rosenstein in Danville on Saturday night last. The burglar or burglars effected an entrance into the house and carried off therefrom, a box containing two gold watches, six silver spoons, a diamond breast pin, and other jewelry, besides two hundred dollars in greenbacks, seventy-three dollars in silver and a two dollar and fifty cent gold piece. The box of valuables was located under the bed where Mr. Rosenstein and wife were sleeping. It is pretty certain that the robbers had a prior acquaintance where the box was situated previous to their entrance into the house. No clue to the robbers has been had. A reward of fifty dollars is offered for the return of the property and conviction of the parties taking it.

MR. ROSENSTEIN is a hard working mechanic who is fully able to bear this heavy loss.

THE Editor of the Republican is a natural born orator, if not a first-rate writer. Just read his last gem!

It is said that the Republican may host to the American Eagle as it snags all and rests one foot on the mountains of Russia and America and poses the other in close proximity to the Parliament to grab the Demon of injustice that would dare to show its head under the proud bird's overshadowing wings—shall look down upon a country where all men are equal before the law?

Jack Downing is nowhere; his high-falutin is tame in comparison with this. We might modestly suggest that it is a huge stretch for our national bird to put his feet on the mountains of Russia, one foot on the mountains of Canada, America, and the other in (Canada), but this may be a "poetical license."

The poor bird has also a "demon of injustice" under its wing, which, P. John says, is going to get "grabbed as soon as it shows its head." Republicans, are you not proud of your self-styled "far-seeing" and independent-as-an-eagle-on-his-kyrie" editor?

NO. XXIV. MUSIC.

No doubt, before the series of papers you are now publishing is brought to a close, you would have made the subject to which we draw your attention, one of them. But as it is one which is just now exercising my mind, I will ask your opinion on it.

I know that the man who has no music in his heart, nor is not moved by the sound of a sweet sound, is fit for treason, stratagem and spoils. I take no pleasure in that denunciation of music, because I have a great love for music, and it is that which is at the bottom of this letter.

There was a vocal and instrumental concert held in our town some time ago, and as everybody, his wife and sweetheart were expected to go, I was, of course, present. Now I do not intend to ensure anybody, but I must inform you that we have very few people among us, who even pretend to a scientific knowledge of music. Yet the managers had fixed upon a programme, consisting for the most part, of foreign, and operatic music. I don't know that I can even name them. But we had "Hilfrotovars," "Montezuma," "Cuckoo Solo," and "Lone Wolf." I can't tell you how many more of the same kind.

Now, to a musically uneducated audience, what enjoyment do you suppose could be derived from such selection of pieces? I venture to say that to ninety-nine out of every hundred present at the performance, people are in a hurry to get home, to avoid the indelicate thumping on the piano, or scrapping on the violin; and for anything I could see or hear, anybody else could have done it as well.

It is the most absurd and ridiculous thing for any gentleman to fix up such a programme for a miscellaneous audience. It is as if one were to make a programme of a miscellaneous audience, that could be imagined; and what annoyed me quite as much as my inability to understand the musical music, was, to have a set of people who understood that scientific performance still less than I did, if possible, clapping their hands to the echo, over scrapping and pounding which did not give them one pleasurable moment.

Do try to give me some assistance in this business, for I am persuaded you are not an entire stranger to

"NELLIE GREY."

And each of you will take notice that by visiting the majority of the articles in this issue, you will find that the majority of them are of the kind that we have been discussing.

THE EDITOR of the Republican, in his issue of the 29th of May, 1907, has published a series of articles, in which he has endeavored to show that the Republican party is in a state of confusion and that it is unable to present a united front.

It is well known to all concerned in the highest musical grade; but popular well known music is what creates enjoyment and awakens interest. When the whistle and sing on the street is what touches the heart and charms the ear; and if an instrumental performer desires to give his audience real pleasure, he must come down to their level.

It is understood that a concert of sweet sounds will be given at the residence of Mrs. W. J. McHenry, at Fishing Creek, on the 14th inst.
