The Columbian has the largest circulation... P. JOHN AND A. JOHNSON.

There were a lingering doubt in the mind of any man that the editor...

Why did P. John support Andrew Johnson? Did they agree in politics...

No love of principles ever actuated P. John in his course relative to the President...

He was willing to be a Johnson man if that would pay, he was willing to be a Radical if it would not...

And a Radical he is; and judging by his paper it appears week after week, we are tempted to ask: What must be the moral, intellectual and political condition...

THE Radicals have no excuse for having failed to restore the Union. They have had an overwhelming majority in both Houses of Congress...

CHANGE! CHANGE! CHANGE!!! This was the fatal cry that went in 1860, but we are greatly deceived if it is not the glorious battle cry of thousands all over the country before long...

TAXPAYERS, remember that the motto of the leading Radicals is "that which is done in a national blessing, and that not long since they issued an elaborate pamphlet to sustain the position. Instead of retrenchment and reform they are committed to a paper currency, to high taxation, and the increase and perpetuation of our national debt...

BEN. BUTLER, the Radical model of a hero and Statesman, has declared in favor of paying the 5-20 bonds in favor instead of gold. Let our Bondholders remember this, and remember also that he is a prominent Radical leader. Is the country safe under the guidance of such reckless men?

THE Democrats of California made terrible havoc with the Pharsians. The efforts of the Radicals were as fruitless as Mrs. Partington's attempt to sweep away the sea with a broom. Pennsylvania will stand side by side with the Golden State on the Second Tuesday of next October.

THOUSANDS of Republicans in California and Maine, utterly disgusted with the negro theories and corruption of the Radicals either remained at home or went to the election and voted with the Democrats.
