A CONSCIENTIOUS LAWYER.

Time Danville (N. Y.) Express tells a capital story connected with a promi nent lawyer of that village, who has distinguished himself in the defence of eriminals, as well as in connection with other trials, having frequently through his skill, aided the most hardened crim inals to escape from justice. Some time ago, while he was attending court in an adjoining county, he was applied to, by a singular specimen of humanity charged with grand larceny, to defend him The lawyer very naturally inquired what crime he was accused of. The party accused replied that somebody had been mean crough to charge him with steeling $150 in bank notes, and had go bim indicted. "Are you guilty?" asked

"That's none of your business," replied the accused."They say that makes no difference with you; whether a man is guilty or not you will contrive to dig him out some way. So don't talk any more about the gullt till you hear what
