Parliament and appeal to the country, May 5.—The proceedings in the British House of Commons last night were of unusual interest. The Premier spoke and reviewed the past policy and uniform triumph, of the Tory Party; and, in the course of his remarks, stated that the Queen had refused to accept his tendered resignation, and had urged him not to dissolve Parliament until an appeal to the new constituencies could be made. He hoped a suspension of the orders of the day would not be pressed now, as he was ready to give some other Government the right to carry on the discussion. Mr. Gladstone followed the Premier. He ridiculed the idea of a disso lution of Parliament by a Ministry defeated by so large a majority. The Premier's course he denounced as unconstitutional. He would not, however, urge the suspension of orders that night, if the Ministry would allow the earliest possible day for the consideration of the resolves. Mr. Bright and others followed Mr. Gladstone. The 7th of May was finally fixed upon for the debate on the Irish Church question.

MR. BROOKS gave notice that at the proper time he should offer a resolution calling the Impeachment Managers to account for their action relative to the Alta Vela Islands, about which so much has been said in the course of the Impeachment trial.

Washington, May 2.

In the House, at the afternoon session, a lengthy acrimonious debate sprang up on Mr. Brooks' resolution calling the Impeachment Managers to account for signing the "Alta Vela" letter, which has provoked so much discussion on the trial. Messrs. Logan, Butler and Garfield explained the manner in which their signatures to the letter were obtained. Mr. Logan used unparliamentary language, and was called to order three times. Messrs. Butler and Brooks indulged in some characteri-tic personalities, after which the resolutions was haid on the table, and the House adjourned.

A resolution was adopted in the House calling upon Gen. Grant for a report of the number of votes cast at the recent election in Arkansas. The members then went to the Senate chamber to attend the impeachment trial. On their return Mr. Donnelly, of Minnesota, rose to a personal explanation. In a lengthy speech he proceeded to explain that some time since he wished to introduce a bill in the interest of his constituents, and that Mr. Washburne, of Illinois, had objected to it. He then explained the matter to Mr. Washburne and again offered his bill, and Mr. Washburne again objected. Thereupon Mr. Donnelly wrote to one of his constituents stating the facts. This letter was published, and called forth an answer from Mr. Washburne wherein he denounced Mr. Donnelly as an "Office beggar," and as one who favored every corrupt scheme proposed in Congress, Mr. Donnelley then proceeded to abuse Mr. Washburne in the most approved congressional manner, using language so unparliamentary that the Speaker Congressional manner, using language so unparliamentary that the Speaker was forced to call him to order several times. He at last informed him that times. He at last informed him that his remarks were not honorable to the House, and he would not suffer them to go on record without his protest, whereupon Mr. Donnelly apologized. Mr. Washburne got the floor, and in a few words reasserted all the charges against Mr. Donnelly which he had made in his letter. He was called to order, and Mr. Windom gave notice that on Monday he would introduce a resolution of censure. The House then adjourned.

PACIFIC GUANO COMPANY'S SOLUBLE

PAC-IFIC GUANO.

THE ATTENTION of Farmers and other consumers of Pertilizers is invited to this Gunno, as worthy of their special notice. Its use for several years in Maryland, Virginia and other Southern States, for all crops, has given it a standard character for excellence unequalted by any other, it possesses all the quiskness of Fernican Guano with permanent qualities not found in that article, 250 ps. of this Gunno are found more than equal to 380 ps. of the best Superphosphates. It ripeas the wheat crop from five oneven days earlier than the phosphates, which factatione gives it incalculated and antages. Liberal discount to desires, for say by
