

The Columbian.

BLOOMSBURG, PA. FRIDAY MORNING, JULY 3, 1898.

THE COLUMBIAN has the largest circulation in Columbia and adjoining counties of any paper published here, and is also a more largely read than any of its competitors; and is therefore the best medium for advertising in this section of the State.

The Campaign Columnian.

By our next issue the Democratic nominations for President and Vice-President will have been made, and the principles laid down, upon which the campaign will be conducted. The success of our cause depends upon the propagation of our principles, and for this purpose no agency is so complete as the Party Press. By circulating our party papers, the falsehoods of the enemy can be exposed, as well as their criminal misconduct while in power.

In order to place the COLUMBIAN within the reach of every man, we will send a copy from this time until after the Presidential election for seventy-five cents. It will contain the proceedings of the Democratic Convention, as well as ample returns of all elections held. Send in the names of one, for the time to organize and begin the work has arrived. The richer radicals pay for many of their papers to be sent to poor Democrats. We should retaliate. See that every Democrat in the township, has a sound Democratic County paper and send a number to each of your Republican neighbors. Every man can aid in this work, and should begin at once.

The Mississippi Election.

For the past ten days the negroes and carpetbaggers in Mississippi have been holding an election, the object of adopting a constitution. Great States like Pennsylvania and New York can do their voting in one day, but the manipulators of southern ballots require ten.

The telegrams from Mississippi announce that the Democrats, in spite of all opposition have carried the State by 29,000 majority. Another telegram, however, states that this is not believed at Grant's Headquarters. Of course if the Democrats had carried the State, the Union would be restored. But if the Democrats had carried the State, the Union would be restored. But if the Democrats had carried the State, the Union would be restored.

That Vote.

HAPPENING in Bloomsburg a few days ago, I was met by a person who had been denouncing Hiram R. Kline for holding the vote in the "Furnace Tax" Bill. Now my recollections are that Col. Kline voted against that Bill; but as you are doubtless able to refer to the record I hope you will give the facts in the case the length of your very large circulation.

FAIR PLAY.

Our correspondent is not the only gentleman who was misled by the falsehoods of the "person" in Bloomsburg, who first retailed that slander. The COLUMBIAN is not the champion of any man, but in the case of the "Furnace Tax" Bill, we were misled by the facts in the case the length of your very large circulation.

PROGRAMME.

At 7 o'clock, A. M. The fire companies, in front of Snyder's Hall, will proceed to the railroad station to receive the Danville fire companies, and to witness the Indian ceremonies, the procession will march to the front of the Court House and disband one half hour.

PREPARATORY TO THE PROCEEDINGS OF THE TENTH NATIONAL DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION.

At 7 o'clock, P. M. The regular procession of the day will form in front of the Court House, and march to the railroad station to receive the Danville fire companies, and to witness the Indian ceremonies, the procession will march to the front of the Court House and disband one half hour.

AN ANTIFRAG.

As for abuse and slander of Mr. Bucklew and other prominent Democrats, coming through the same channel, it will only recoil upon the heads of its authors and cover them with confusion and the just indignation of the people.

Commencement.

BLOOMSBURG LITERARY INSTITUTE. The third day of June 23-24-25 were held as the commencement of the Bloomsburg Literary Institute. The examinations had been conducted by Prof. Colburn and by Rev. Mr. Collins of Luzerne county. The report of the examining committee will be published hereafter. The exercises in the forenoon of Thursday were participated in by the following students, in the presence of the Governor, Prof. Wickersham, and a large audience.

Veterans to the Front.

Veterans to the front! That is the cry of the thousands of Conservative soldiers who will gather at the representatives of a mighty host in New York on Independence Day. In that city on the glorious 4th will be assembled the unscathed veterans, the brevet-brigadier who never saw a battle, the corpulent commissaries, the puffy paymasters, the sleek sutlers and the horde of political schemers who followed the armies of the Union and gorged themselves with plunder; but the battle-scarred veterans who were the first to volunteer and to last to be mastered out. There will be gathered, not the holiday soldiers who composed the convention at Chicago—not such military humbugs as Carl Schurz; but the heroes of the East and the West, the men who breast the shock of battle on the Tennessee and the Potomac, those who fought with Franklin, Hancock and McClellan, and those who marched with Sherman to the Sea. There too will be those who led in the murderous assaults under Grant, the men who obeyed him with the unquestioning alacrity of true soldiers, but who seem to follow him now when, at the bidding of a set of radical fanatics he has voluntarily sacrificed every principle which once made him seem to be worthy of admiration.

Home and Abroad.

It is estimated that the cotton crop of the South will reach 4,000,000 bales this year. WILLIAMSPORT and vicinity was visited by quite a severe frost on the 10th.

THE NINETEENTH ANNUAL CONVENTION OF THE STATE MEDICAL SOCIETY WAS HELD IN HARRISBURG.

A resolution to admit women to practice was defeated by a vote of 37 to 45. Dr. Alex. of Lancaster was in favor of admitting negroes as well as women. Dr. W. H. Bradley of Bloomsburg was the delegate from this County.

ON FRIDAY THE 12TH INST. HON. REVEREND JOHN SENATOR TOM MARYLAND.

was unanimously confirmed by the Senate, as Minister to England. STRAWBERRIES are selling in Scranton at forty cents per quart, in Cincinnati at eight cents. Bloomsburg prices not fixed, there being no berries in market.

WE ALL HAVE OUR TRIALS—EXCEPT JEFF DAVIS.

There is a dispute among some of the old omnibus proprietors in New York city as to who ran the first bus in America. The New York Sun thinks it was Queen Isabella, and the names of the bus was Columba.

EXTENSIVE FIRE.

The large planing mill and saw factory of Potter & Co. in Williamsport was entirely destroyed by fire on Wednesday last, together with all the valuable tools and machinery. The adjoining residence of S. M. Kinable was also burned and some neighboring buildings more or less injured. The total loss is estimated at $30,000, which there is an insurance of $20,000. The origin of the fire is unknown but is thought to have been caused by friction of the machinery.

KNIGHTS TEMPLAR.

The annual convocation of the Knights Templar of Pennsylvania was held in Scranton on Wednesday last. The attendance was very large. Several hundred knights from different parts of the State were in the procession. Gen. R. Biddle Roberts of Pittsburg delivered an oration. The following grand officers were elected for the current year and publicly installed.

JOHN VALLEHANG GRAND COMMANDER.

James H. Hopkins, D. G. Commander; William R. Keon, G. Grand Scribe; C. M. Howell, G. Captain General; Rev. T. J. Elze, G. Grand Prelate; Abram Miller, G. Senior Warden; Fitz James Evans, G. Junior Warden; R. A. O. Kerr, G. Treasurer; Alfred Creigh, G. Recorder.

AMONG THE PROCEEDINGS OF THE EPISCOPAL CONVENTION, LATELY IN SESSION WE FIND THE FOLLOWING:

Rev. Dr. Rudder moved that a committee of three be appointed to draft resolutions expressing the sense of this Convention touching the death of this Presiding Bishop of the Protestant Episcopal Church of the United States, Carlisle.

THE JOURNAL OF THE DAY WAS THEN READ BY THE SECRETARY, AFTER WHICH REV. DR. HOWE, FROM THE COMMITTEE ON RESOLUTIONS TOUCHING THE LATE PRESIDING BISHOP OF THE PROTESTANT EPISCOPAL CHURCH OF THE UNITED STATES, REPORTED THE FOLLOWING:

Whereas, Since this Convention last met, the Right Rev. John Henry Hopkins, D. D., L. L. D., has passed from his high office on earth to the rest that remaineth for the people of God; therefore,

Resolved,

That the Convention of the Church in this diocese, with which, and honorably connected, desires to record his high office on earth to the rest that remaineth for the people of God; therefore,

Bloomsburg State Normal School.

Laying of the Corner-Stone—Gov. Geary (Speech)—Address by Hon. C. L. Ward, Gov. Geary, Judge Elwell, Imposing Exercises.

Board of Trustees then gave a sketch of the rise and progress of the Institute, a copy of which sketch had been deposited in the Corner-stone.

Judge Elwell then on behalf of the Board of Trustees delivered an able and interesting address; going pretty fully into the history of the Institute, and the circumstances attending the erection of the building, bidding him God speed in the noble work, and again urging our citizens to come up nobly with their money to the support of this great enterprise.

Gov. Geary then handed over to Prof. Carver, in a neat and pertinent speech, the plans and drawings of the new building, bidding him God speed in the noble work, and again urging our citizens to come up nobly with their money to the support of this great enterprise.

Prof. Carver in response to numerous deserved compliments to himself, made an earnest speech, promising to have the building ready speedily, and the Gov. agreed to be present at the dedication.

Prof. Carver in response to numerous deserved compliments to himself, made an earnest speech, promising to have the building ready speedily, and the Gov. agreed to be present at the dedication.

By eight o'clock in the evening a splendid audience had assembled in the hall of the Institute. The stage was occupied by Gov. Geary, Prof. Wickersham, Rev. M. Collins, Hon. C. L. Ward, and the Board of Trustees.

Prof. Wickersham then proceeded to address the vast audience upon the subject of education in general, and especially upon State Normal Schools. It is impossible for us to give even a synopsis of it. He held the people for an hour in silent attention, and at the close of his speech was greeted with hearty applause.

It was moved by Mr. Waller that a copy of the address of Judge Elwell, and a copy of the report of Mr. Collins be requested for publication. As soon thereafter as we can find room, and of Judge Elwell, and the history of the Institute by Judge Rupert, and the report of Mr. Collins will be published in full.

JOHN G. FREEZE, Sec'y. Board of Trustees.

A Myth.

Pius IX entered on his 77th year on the 25th of May. He is fond of mentioning that his father, Count Jerome, died at 84; his mother, the Countess Catharine, at 82; his paternal ancestor, Count Hercules at 96; his brother Gabriel at 87; his second brother at 81.

THE EIGHT-HOUR BILL.

President Johnson has signed the bill in favor of enforcing the eight-hour law in all the navy yards and other government workshops. It takes immediate effect, and the employees at the Government Printing Office have commenced work under the eight-hour law to-day.
