DEATHS FROM LOCUST STINGS—A few days ago in York county, on the road leading from York to Gettysburg, seven boys, members of one family, named Schaeffer, while out in cornfields, were stung by locusts, and all seven died. They were buried the same day.

All lovers of good eating are hereby informed that there will be Baked Chicken at the Exchange Saloon on Saturday evening. There is no place in town where they get up little delicacies, in as good style as at the Exchange. Don't fail to call there if you are fond of good eating.

WE SEE AMONG THE NAMES OF THE DELEGATES TO THE GENERAL CONVENTION OF THE EPISCOPAL CHURCH, FROM THE Diocese OF PITTSBURG, SEVERAL WELL KNOWN NAMES TO THE WHOLE STATE; AS GEN. GEORGE W. CASS, Judge Church, Late of the Supreme Court, and Benjamin Grant, Esq., Law Reporter.

KEEP COOL!—The way to do this during this exceedingly hot weather is to go to Chamberlin's and get a suit of his light summer goods. He has everything in that line, as well as a new and complete assortment of linen shirts, and underclothing generally. His goods combine cheapness with excellency.

FOURTH IN ROARINGCREEK—The two Sunday Schools of Slabtown and the Furnaces met in the beautiful woods west of the village, on the Fourth, to have a celebration. A large number of the citizens joined in the festivities of the day.

General Superintendent, Elijah C. Cleaver, Esq.; Committee of order and arrangement on the ground, Hon. Peter Herbelin, Silas Johnson, Leonard Adams, Hiriam T. Hoyer, Shultz Knifte and Henry Yost.

The exercises opened with a hymn, followed by prayer by the Rev. Mr. Mendenhall. After the singing of another hymn, Col. Freese read the Declaration of Independence. After an oration by the Rev. Mr. Mendenhall, the ladies, managers and teachers displayed abundance of refreshments.

At half past two in the afternoon, the audience was again called to order and listened to a address by Col. John G. Freese. More refreshments and general hilarity followed, and about 5 o'clock the exercises were dispensed.

The celebration was a decided success in every respect, and highly enjoyed by all, notwithstanding the extreme heat of the day.

IMPORTANT TO FARMERS—The following points of law relative to a tenant of a farm were recently settled by a decision of the Supreme Court of this State:

A tenant of a farm, under a lease from year to year for agricultural purposes, is entitled to the way-going crop, and such letting must be presumed to have been made, if nothing to the contrary be said. This implication cannot be rebutted by implication of bad husbandry, and a trespass by the landlord in destroying the tenants' crop, after the expiration of the lease, cannot be justified by an alleged breach of contract. If there be bad husbandry, the remedy is by suit, and not by compensation of the tenant's rights. There being a crop in the ground, whether good or bad, the tenants had a right to it, and to take it away when it ripened.

The opinion of the Court, delivered by Judge Thompson, was as follows: By the custom, or as it has been called, the common law of Pennsylvania, the tenant of a farm under a lease from year to year for agricultural purposes, is entitled to the way-going crop. This is the law in view of which such letting must be presumed to have been made, if nothing to the contrary be said. In the case before us this application was attempted to be rebutted by proof of bad husbandry, and a trespass by the landlord in destroying the tenants' crop, after the expiration of the lease, cannot be justified by an alleged breach of contract.

DENTISTRY, H. C. HOWE, DENTIST, respectsably offers his professional services to the ladies and gentlemen of Bloomsburg and vicinity. He is prepared to fit his profession, and is provided with the latest improved PRACTICAL TEETH which are to be held as the natural teeth. Teeth extracted by all the new methods. Extracted teeth, and have estimated its value in the damages given. There being a crop in the ground, therefore, whether good or bad, the plaintiffs had a right to it, and to take it away when it ripened; and this being found by the verdict, and that the defendant destroyed it, there was an end of the matter.

PENSOX—The absence of proof of the death of a soldier hitherto been the greatest obstacle in the way of the widow's receiving her pension papers. Many soldiers have been lost from the ranks in the field, or in hospitals. In these cases it has been customary to petition Congress for relief, but now such a course is unnecessary.

Mr. Perham, chairman of the committee on invalid pensions, stated recently in the House of Representatives that the Pension Department had established a rule that it shall be held sufficient if proof can be made that the soldier disappeared under circumstances which would lead to the presumption of his death, and that he had not been heard of for two years. In reply to questions on the subject from other members, Mr. Perham stated that the decision of the Pension Department was a final, not a temporary one, and that the committee on pensions would not report a general bill to obviate the necessity of positive proof of the death of a soldier, as the new rules of the department covered every meritorious case.

Mr. Hesser was followed by the Rev. Mr. Kilgore with a few pertinent remarks, after which the audience was dismissed.

The dance by torch light was a tip-top affair, and was participated in by a large number of gentlemen and ladies until near midnight, when the grove without any use of any part of the playground.

Fourth of July.

The anniversary of our National Independence was celebrated in a most proper manner in Bloomsburg. In accordance with the programme, the procession formed at 7 o'clock in front of the Court House and proceeded to the depot to receive the delegations from Danville and Berwick. After the arrival of the train which contained a party of Indians from Berwick, and three Fire Companies from Danville, the Friendship Fire Co. of Bloomsburg escorted them from the Depot to the Court House when the procession disbanded for a half hour. At the expiration of this intermission the procession reformed and marched up Market Street to the place where a flag staff had been erected. The historical scenes of the saving of the life of Capt. John Smith, Penn's treaty with the Indians and the rescue of John Harris were then enacted in a most creditable manner. The line of march was then taken up, and after reaching the Court House, the procession was broken for dinner. When the important duty of despatching dinner had been performed, the line was again formed, and a march was made to Snyder's Grove, where, after the vast concourse had been called to order by Dr. John Gilbert H. Fowler, who was chosen President, John Hendren, Thos. J. Vandervise, Jacob Evans, Isaac Edele, D. Jamison, and Jas. Denhoff, Vice Presidents; and Monroe Millard and Prof. F. M. Bates Secretaries. Addresses were then delivered by E. H. Edele and J. B. Robinson, the Bloomsburg Brass Band performing some fine air at various times during the afternoon. In the evening, the platform erected in the grove was filled with my patriotic friends, who tripped the light fantastic till the "two-soushauntoursay the tw!" without doubt Bloomsburg has credit in this complete and well conceived celebration of the day. We trust that the future anniversaries of our Independence may be as well and thoroughly observed.
