Choice Poetry. THE GIRL WHO LIVED NEXT DOOR. BY ETHEL LYNS.

As possible; regiments will leave New York to-night. All will be ordered to report General Couch.

nor Seymour was called to the city of New York to quell them, and he did so. All must remember his two proclamations that on occasion:

sentation of my official conduct in a message to the Legislature of which I asked a public retraction. My very frank and promptly given a verbal retraction, with a promise of giving one for publication.

A RASCALLY URGING.—A Boston man tells the following newsboy story: Coupon, the corpulent banker, was standing in State Street one hot day in August, "wiping the perspiration off from his brow," when a ragged but sharp-eyed newsboy accosted him with:
