The Columbian.

BLOOMSBURG, PA.

FRIDAY MORNING, SEPT. 25, 1868.

☞ THE COLUMBIAN has the Largest Circulation in Columbia and adjoining counties of any paper published here, and is also a much larger sheet than any of its cotemporaries; and is therefore the best medium for advertising in this section of the State.

Attention! Democrats!!

IN order that cheap reading matter may be furnished the people until after the election, we make the following offer:

That we will send THE COLUMBIAN from now until after the Presidential election to clubs of twenty FOR FIVE DOLLARS. This is only Twenty five cents a number—and just covers the cost of the paper on which it is printed. The paper contains each week sixteen large columns of entertaining literary and political news.

No Democrat is so poor but what he can give twenty five cents to aid in the coming contest, and he should see that his Radical neighbor has a copy.

Clubs should be formed at every Post Office.

Col. Piollet.

THE Congressional nomination made at Danville, will gratify many personal friends of Col. Piollet in every county of our District. It was in our opinion, well-advised and believe will insure success. For there is a spirit of keen inquiry abroad, and the course of our present Representative in Congress has been unsatisfactory and in some respects odious. He has supported the most extreme measures by his votes, though he has been an instrument rather than a leader of party and has contributed nothing of value to the debates or proceedings of Congress.

Col. Piollet is a man of unusual energy, and his abilities are of a very respectable order. As a business man he has been very successful, and the large interests that have been confided to his charge, at several times, have been managed by him with signal skill and fidelity. Whether as Contractor or as Superintendant upon canal or rail-road improvements in Bradford and Wyoming counties, he has performed all his obligations to State and Corporation in a most satisfactory manner, while he has won the confidence and attachment of the citizens with whom he has been brought in contact by most honorable and just conduct towards them.

But it is at home, as Farmer and Merchant, that the Colonel appears most to advantage. He has the respect of all his neighbors, and will receive, very generally, their sincere support, not merely because he has ability and clear opinions upon public affairs, but because they know him to be a true man in all the relations of social and business life, and therefore presumably fitted for the ordeal of public service.

The Colonel becomes a candidate at this time, with particular reference to financial reform. The taxation of the people and the expenditure of the public monies are themes with which he is familiar and in which he feels a deep interest. He will, if elected, labor with diligence and zeal to reform taxation and reduce the public expenses, for he regards these as the most important subjects for consideration by Congress.

We shall take pleasure hereafter in enforcing the claims of Col. Piollet upon popular confidence. For he is a candidate to be supported with zeal and without distrust, and those who know his merit must not withhold their testimony in his favor.

More Work.

THERE is too little activity in Pennsylvania. All acknowledge it to be the battle ground. The Radicals have thrown into it their ablest debaters. What is the Democratic State Committee about that they have not drawn from New York and other States the brilliant orators who could render her effective service? The campaign ought to be aggressive, the issues are with us, the voters are with us, but the canvass will not proceed of itself. There are still three week, let them be weeks of herculean effort, of sleepless energy, and make our victory a Waterloo to the Radicals; destroying them as a political organization forever.

Maine.

THE election in Maine shows that the Democrats gained almost eight thousand votes to the hundred thousand. The whole vote is less than one hundred and thirty-five thousand. That is a tremendous gain. Apply the same ratio of increase to Pennsylvania, and we shall carry the State by fifty thousand. Are we making the same active and determined effort? We ought to do so, for our success is then overwhelming certain. In Maine all they could hope was to reduce majorities. Let us imitate Maine and her gallant Democracy.

FAILING to collect the illegal assessments made against the Democratic counties in the State, and not daring to test the question in the Courts; Radical Hartranft has given notice that he will keep back the appropriation made for common school purposes. So, as they can't steal any longer from full grown men, they propose to filch it from the little school children. Oh! the beauties of Radicalism! the party of great moral ideas, of all the decency and all the education, stealing the educational fund of the children. Is there any other fund they can get their fingers on before the people wipe them out? If there is, they'll be after it.

BONNER, of the Ledger, says if the the Republican party don't make more of Harm Sammy Grant than he (Bonner did out of the biography written by the old man, (Grant's father,) they will have made a bad investment. He paid the old man a good round sum for that biography, yet it some how or other it not only did not increase the circulation of the paper, but actually reduced it.

READING THEM OUT.—One year ago the New York Tribune said:

"Men who hold that none but Whites should vote, may be well enough in their place, but there is no room for them in the Republican party."

MASS MEETING AT BENTON.

Another Outpouring of the People!!

BANNERS, FLAGS & MUSIC.

THE meeting at Benton on Friday last, was a rouser and clearly indicates the interest the people feel in the coming contest. The Orangeville Brass Band was present, and flags and banners floated in all directions; showing the zeal of our friends in that section. We were glad to see our friend Aaron Patterson of Orange, there with a six horse team, loaded down with sturdy Democrats, it is, and we trust it will be imitated by others, not only during the contest, but especially on the day of election.

The stand was erected directly opposite Stiles' Hotel on the vacant lot, and all well and completely arranged. At about two o'clock order was called by the choice of the following officers: President, Peter Eat; Vice Presidents, J. L. Cary of Cumbra, E. N. Tubbs and Geo. Gearhart of Fairmount, Aaron Young and John Ikeler Benton, J. J. Rance and Wm. Ikeler of Fishingcreek Andrew Laubach and Jesse Hartman, of Sugarloaf, Aaron Patterson and Col. H. R. Kline of Orange, Iram Derr of Jackson. Secretaries, Chas. Conner, P. Call, J. J. Stiles, Silas W. M'Henry, C. B. M'Henry, S. Rhone.

Robert F. Clark, Esq., was then introduced, and was listened to with the most profound attention; not only, doubtless, on account of his ability as a speaker, but because of his well-known previous political position. His address was in all respects just what it should have been, and that is perhaps all we ought to say of it, not having taken any notes. Its effects upon those present, of the Radical party, cannot, of course, be known, but they could hardly listen to such a speech, and then go away perfectly satisfied that the principles and practices of their party are not antagonastic to the Government, as formed by Washington. If he did not show that, and further, that the Radical party does not hold the principles of the Republicans of '56, then all our ide as of logic are at fault. He was frequently applauded, and evidently gratified all present, not of the most extreme Radical pursuasion.

Col. Freeze followed—showing how the Radicals are ignoring the principles of Jefferson and carrying out those of the monarchist, Mr. Hamilton; how tyranical extravagant, and corrupt they are, and how necessary it is, that they should be driven from power.

Judge Derr was called for, and in his usual happy style gave us a song, and then after cheers for Seymour & Blair, for the Speakers, and for the Song, all prepared to return to their homes greatly delighted.

Congratulatory Address.

DEMOCRATIC STATE COM. ROOM, }
903 ARCH ST. PHILADELPHIA. }

To the Democracy of Pennsylvania:

THE sturdy Democracy of Maine have covered themselves with glory.

In the very citadel of Radicalism they have demonstrated that you are upon the eve of a magnificent victory.

The two parties were last arrayed at the polls upon national issues in 1866. Maine then polled a vote nearly equal to her vote of 1864, whilst Pennsylvania polled her largest vote.

In 1866 Radicalism received in Maine 69,637 votes. In 1868 it received, as they themselves estimate, 75,002 votes. This is an increase of 8 per cent. upon the vote of 1866.

In 1866 Democracy there received 41,947 votes, and in 1868 it receives 55,725 votes. This is an increase of 30 per cent. upon the vote of 1866.

In 1866 Radicalism received in Pennsylvania 307,274 votes, and Democracy received 290,096 votes.

Apply the test of Maine to this vote, and Radicalism will receive in Pennsylvania an increase of 8 per cent. or 24,581 votes, making a total of 331,855 votes, and Democracy will receive an increase of 30 per cent. or 87,028 votes, making a total of 377,124 Democratic votes, showing that we will have a clear Democratic majority of 45,269 votes.

Whilst the totals shown by this estimate are too large for the vote that we will cast in October, no man who knows the condition of public sentiment in Pennsylvania will assert that the relative proportion will be lessened.

Maine voted for John C. Fremont, yet James Buchanan was elected President, and Pennsylvania led the column of States that made him the Chief Executive of the nation.

The hope of the Republic is in the Democracy of the Keystone.

As in 1856, the responsibility of determining the contest now rests with you.

Maine has proven that you can again bring triumph to the principles you love.

Let us arouse to renewed energy and more determined effort.

By order of the Democratic State Committee.

WILLIAM A. WALLACE,
Chairman.

HOWELL COBB, who was Buchanan's Secretary of the Treasury, paid fifteen per cent. premium on a part of the National debt incurred by the Mexican war still unpaid, which he finally cancelled in order to leave the Treasury empty when he ran away to engage in the Rebellion, after borrowing money to meet pressing demands at twelve per cent in gold!—Republican.

Remember, all this took place, if at all, after the defeat of the Democrats in 1860, when the cloud of woe, debt, and taxation, that has since fallen upon the country, was hanging over us. It was about the time that Horace Greeley, then and now, the Radical leader, was advocating the right of Se cession, and when in this comm unity, it was common to bear the remark from Radicals —"Let the South go"—"We are better off without them."—"They are an expense to us"—"They cant be kicked out."

That the credit of the Government was low, is probable, but bear in mind it was all in consequence of the defeat of the great party that had so long ruled the Country, with such wisdom and success. Note the fact, moreover, how unwillingly the Republican has complimented Secretary Cobb—We are told that, instead of appropriating the money in the treasury to his own use, or that of his friends, as a Radical would have done; for fear it would be wasted or stolen, by the party coming into power, he actually took it and paid off the Bonds of the Government.

Grand Mass Meeting at Centralia.

The people fully determined to thrust their Oppressors from Power!

IN accordance with the announcement in the bills, the Democracy of Centralia and Conyngham township, assembled at the house of Robert Farrell in Centralia, on the afternoon of the 12th inst. The Democracy of Schuylkill was largely represented, and the Ashland Band also lent their aid to the glorious cause. Many Republicans were present on the occasion. After a grand procession through the town, the meeting was organized by electing Wm Torrey, Esq., President; W. S. Whittier, James Kealey, Robert Farrell, J. P. Hannon, Thos. O'Connor, Richard Thornton and Thos. Conor, Vice-Presidents, and C. G. Murphy, J. J. Coughlin and Wm. Bryson, Secretaries.

The President then announced Jas. Bryson, Jr., Esq., would address the meeting, and after loud and continued cheering, he in one of his mighty bursts of oratory, depicted in clear and unanswerable logic, the living issues of the campaign, and the unhappy results consequent on a renewed lease of Radical power.

Mr. Bryson's lofty style, natural gestures, extensive vocabulary, sublimity of thought, and elegant comparisons, place him on a level with the first spenkers of the State. He held the audience spell-bound and left the platform, encircled by a wreath, amid great enthusiasm.

Gen. Ent was then introduced and received with applause. He deliniated the object of the war, the inconsistency of Gen. Grant, and the violated pledges of Congress, with force and reasoning beyond refutation.

His appearance is pleasing, his manner courteous, and depend upon it the people of this end of the county will do their whole duty to make him their next Surveyor-General. He was followed by Lawyer Scott of Pottsville, who spoke at length on finance—onerous taxation, useless expenditures, increasing debt, unwise legislation, and proved beyond the shadow of doubt, that the party in power are unfit to conduct "the Ship of State" to the haven of peace, happiness and prosperity. His speech was nicely punctuated with hearty cheers.

At the call of the President three cheers were then given for Seymour & Blair, and three more for Gen. Eat and the State ticket, after which the meeting adjourned. C. G. M.

Fortieth Congress—Adjourned Session.

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 21.

THE Senate was called to order at 12 o clock. Rev. Dr. Gray, Chaplain, in the course of his prayer, invoked the wisdom and grace needful to support members in their public duties, so that whatever course they pursue may meet the Divine approval and the sanction of the whole nation.

The Clerk commenced reading the Journal, but on motion of Mr. Edmunds, the further reading was dispensed with.

Mr. Anthony offered the following resolution:

Resolved, By the Senate, (the House of Representatives concurring,) that the President of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Representatives do adjourn their respective House until 12 o'clock, noon, on the 16th day of October, 1868; and that they then, unless otherwise ordered by the two Houses, further adjourn their respective Houses until the 10th day of November, 1868, at 12 o'clock, noon; and that they then, unless otharwise ordered, further adjourn their respective House to the first Monday of December, 1868, at 12 o'clock, noon.

On motion of Mr. Sherman there was a call of the Senate, when thirty-four members answered to their names—exactly a quorum.

Mr. Anthony stated that his colleague, Mr. Sprague, was not present, owing to illness.

The question was taken on the adoption of the resolution, which was agreed to—yeas 33, nays 1—Mr. Buckalew.

On motion of Mr. Anthony, at 12:15 the Senate took a recess for half an hour.

After the recess a message was received from the House that the latter had passed the resolution to adjourn to the 16th of October; if not then otherwise ordered, to the 10th of November, and then, unless otherwise ordered, to the first Monday of December.

Mr. Buckalew offered a resolution requesting the House to inform the Senate whether a quorum of members were present at the sitting to-day. He said he was informed there was not when that resolution was passed.

Messrs Anthony and Edmunds thought it would be discourteous to ask the House that question. It was presumed that the House could not put it without a quorum, and besides it was improper thus to inquire. The House resolution was concurred in and the President declared the Senate adjourned.

At one o'clock, while the roll was being called in the House, to get a quorum, a message was received from the Senate announcing the passage of the House resolution by that body, which instantly put a stop to the House proceedings. As both Houses having concurred in the resolution it was now a law. The House adjourned at ten minutes past one o'clock. The Senate adjourned previously. Only five Democrats were present in the House—Brooks, Randall, Eldridgr, Boyer, Haight; in the Senate only two Democrats—Buckalew and M'Creery. The latter came in after the Senate resolution had passed. Fully 120 members of the House were in the city and a quorum would have been found, if necessary, at the next Congress meeting.

SOLDIERS.—Vote against the party that for the sake and purpose of making the negro your equal, allowed thousands of your comrades to starve in the Andersonville prison.

POOR-MEN, Workingmen, now is your time to do justice to yourslves, by voting down the party that has oppressed you for the last seven years. Be true to yourselves, be true to the country.

WORKINGMEN.—Vote against the party that caused the War, caused the debt, caused the taxation, caused the high prices of all you eat, drink or wear.

Pennsylvania.

To this State the eyes of the country are now turned. Each party claims it for itself, and both are struggling desperately to make good its claim. Pennsylvania once a Democratic State for many years has been carried by the Republicans by large majorities. Last year the Democrats made a vigorous fight under the guidance of a most efficient Executive Committee. The result was the election of the Democratic candidate for Justice of the Supreme Court by 927 majority, the total vote of the State being 62,795 less than that of the previous year. Now comes the question, which party will secure next month a majority of these nearly seventy thousand votes? But thereare other questions to be decided by the canvass which are of more importance than the choice of the State officers; they are the election of representatives in Congress and a State Legislature, which latter is to choose a United States Senator in place of Hon. Charles R. Buckalew, whose term of office will expire on the 4th of March next. In the present House of Representatatives the Pennsylvania delegation is politicaly divided thus: Democrats, 6; Radicals, 18. At the election last year the Democrats carried all the districts which they carried in 1866 and four more, besides pressing the Radicals so closely in another district (the Tenth) that the result was a tie vote. They have, therefore, reasonable grounds for expecting to elect ten and perhaps eleven of their candidates for Congressmen, and thus secure a more honest representation on the floor of the House of Representatives than it has had in several years.

All the information that has reached us concerning the progres of the campaign in this State is full of encouragement. The Democrats have been and are working with commendable vigor and discretion. Their forces are well officered and thoroughly drilled; and unless some unexpected event occurs during the next three and a half weeks they will march over the field on the 13th of October, and at night-fall rejoice with their comrades in other State over the redemption of the Keystone State, and the consequent triumph of the cause of Democratic party in November.—World.

Terrible Earthquakes.

A Dozen Cities Destroyed!—20,000 to 60,000 Lives Lost, and $300,000,000 worth of Property Distrbiged.

A TERRIBLE earthquake which has just devasted South America seems to have ranged from Port Conception, the southern coast of Chilli, up to Quito, the capitol Ecuador, just below the equator. The length of coast line affected by the several shocks is estimated at about 2,000 miles. The extreme distance from the sea coast into the interior, where the shocks were felt, is not known; but it is supposed that the devastation extended to the east of the Cordilleras. Peru, Ecuador, and Chilli are known to have ben the principal sufferers srom these great catastrophies. No advices have been received from Bolivia and the Argentine Republic. Mariners who had arrived at Peruvian Ports reported that vessels in which they rode were rocked by a fearful undulation far out at sea.

The total loss of life by these earthquakes, from the 13th to the 17th ult., was estimated to be from thirty thousand to sixty thousand lives!

The total loss of property was estimated at three hundred millions of dollars!

Over four hundred thousand people were deprived of shelter. Fifty large cities and towns, and more than two hundred smaller town and villages, are in ruins. The vast mineral province of Huancavelica, Peru, has been utterly devasted. The agricultural interests of the country, like those of Ecuador, and those parts of Chilli and Bolivia, are nearly destroyed; manufacturing, and other producing interests have also received an unprecedented shock; in the various ports of deposit all goods have been washed away or badly damaged, and hundreds of merchants are bankrupt.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

THOSE irreverent lads who called names after a certain "bald head" of old, deserved their untimely end, because at that time no panacea had been discovered to restore the human hair upon the bald spots. But now Ring's Vegetable Amboila is known to possess the rare merit of invigorating the roots and filling them so full of life, where not entirely dead, that they cannot help putting forth a new growth which rivals in beauty the locks of youth.

The great amount of time consumed by the ladies in dressing and arranging their hair must make any article which would lessen their labor particularly desirable. Ring's Vegetable Amboila has been found the hair in such condition as to render the dressing and arranging a very easy matter. It imparts to it that splendid glossy appearance so much admired, cleanses the scalp from dandruff and all humors, and prevents baldness; promotes its growth and restores gray hair to its original color. ADDRESS TO THE NERVOUS AND DEBILITATED, the sufferings have been caused from hidden causes, and whose cases require prompt treatment to render existence desirable. If you are suffering, or have suffered, from involuntary discharges, what effect does it produce upon your general health? Do you feel weak, debilitated, early tired? Does a little extra exertion produce a palpitation of the heart? Does your liver, or urinary organs, or your kidneys, frequently get out of order? Is your urine sometimes thick, milky, or ropey, or is it ropy on settling? Or does a thick scum rise to the top? Or is a sediment at the bottom after it has stood awhile? Do you have spells of short breathing or dyspepsia? Are your spirits unbalanced? Do you have spells of fainting, or rushes of blood to the head? Is your memory impaired? Is your mind constantly dwelling upon this subject? Do you feel dull, listless, sleepy, tired of company, of life? Do you wish to be left alone, to get away from everybody? Does any little thing make you start or jump? Is your sleep broken or restless? Is the lustre of your eye as brilliant? The bloom on your cheek as bright? Do you enjoy yourself in society as well? Do you pursue your business with the same energy? Do you feel as much confidence in yourself? Are your spirits dull and flagging, given to fits of melancholy? If so, do not lay it to your liver or dyspepsia. Have you restless nights? Your back weak, your knees weak, and have but little appetite, and you attribute this to dyspepsia or liver complaint?

Now, reader, sexual excesses, venereal diseases badly cured, and sexual excesses, are all capable of producing a weakness of the generative organs. The organs of generation, when in health, are what make the man. Did you ever think that those bold, defiant, energetic, persevering, successful business-men are always those whose generative organs are in perfect health? You never hear such men complain of being melancholy, or nervousness, of palpitation of the heart. They are never troubled; they cannot be, and in business they don't become sad and discouraged; they are always polite and pleasant in the company of ladies, and look you and them right in the face—none of your downcast looks or any other meanness about them. I do not mean those who keep the organs inflated by running to excess. These will not only ruin their constitution, but also those they do business with or for.

How many have, from badly-cured diseases, from the effects of self-abuse and excesses, have brought about that state of weakness in those organs that has reduced the general system so much as to indnce almost every otherdisease—as decay, misery, paralysis, hypochondriacal affections, and almost every other form of disease which humanity is heir to, and the real cause of the ground not being suspected, and have doctored for ait but the right one.

Diseases of these organs require the use of a Diuretic. Heimbold's Fluid Extract Buchu is the great Diuretic that is a sure cure for all diseases of the Bladder, Kidneys, Gravel, Dropsy, Organic Weakness, Female Complaints, General Debility, and all diseases arising from Indiscretion, whether existing in Male or Female, from whatever cause originating, and no matter of how long standing.

If no treatment is submitted to, Consumption or Insanity may ensue. Our flesh and blood are supported from these sources, and the health and happiness, and life of Posterity, depends upon prompt use of a reliable remedy.

Heimtold's Extract Buchu, established upward of 18 years, prepared by H. T. Heimbold, Druggist, 594 New York, and 104 South 10th Street, Philadelphia, Pa. Price—$1.25 per bottle, or 6 bottles for $6.50, delivered to any address. Sold by all Druggists everywhere.

None are genuine unless done up in steel-engraved wrapped, with fac-simile of my Chemical Warehouse, and signed H. T. HEIMBOLD.
