The Columbian.

BLOOMSBURG, FRIDAY, OCT. 23, 1868.

THE receipts at the Baptist's table during the Fair netted over $182.00.

FOR SALE CHEAP—a good parlor or office stove. Inquire at this office. 3t

HARTRANFT's majority in the State is between 9,000 and 10,000. Geary's majority was 17,178.

A COMMITTEE waited on P. John and gave him notice that "his time had come." Exit, Palemon.

ON Saturday morning last there was a slight fall of snow. On the night of the same day considerable ice was formed.

THE men who have been fighting P. John for a few years, have finally forced him to retire. They are going to run the machine.

SOLD.—Samuel Everett has sold his Hotel stand at Orangeville to Rohr M Henry for $3,500. The latter has made a good bargain.

CAPT. C. B. BROCKWAY will address the citizens of New Columbus and vicinity on the duties of the hour next Tuesday evening. A general invitation is extended.

A DEMOCRATIC meeting, respectable in numbers was held at Swisher's Tannery, Madison township, on Monday afternoon, Oct. 12, which was addressed by Senator Buckalew.

ELLWOOD HUGUS will sell at public Vendue at his residence near Fowlersville on Thursday and Friday the 5th and 6th days of November 1868 all his stock, farming implements and household goods. 3t

AN interesting meeting was held at Thompson's Hall, Danville, Saturday evening, October 17, which was addressed by Capt. Brockway. The Democracy of Montour will maintain their fine vote obtained at the late election.

DURING the campaign we were told that Columbia county was to be reconstructed; but it turns out that it was the Columbia County Republican that needed reconstruction:

Farewell P. J.—— ne'er shall we see,
A foolish fellow that shall equal thee!

CORRECTION.—Last week we printed a communication from H. Gray, on the subject of "Oral Arithmetic." The first solution closed with the word "second cup," and should have read first cup. We make the correction at the instance of our correspondent.

"THIS county will be 'reconstructed' in a not very distant day."—Republican, Aug. 27.

The prophecy has been promptly fulfilled! 1,983 for Boyle! 1996 for Piollet!! 2126 for Ent!!! We rather like this "reconstruction" and are inclined with poor Oliver to let the story, to ask "for more!"

LOST.—The undersigned, on Monday evening, October 12th, between Bloomsburg and Light Street lost a book called "McPherson's Hand Book of Politics for 1868." At the time, it was tied up in a newspaper. The finder will be suitably rewarded by leaving it at the Columbian Office. C. B. Brockway. 2t

PRESENTATION.—On Wednesday night of last week, Miss Allie Welsh on behalf of the ladies of Bloomsburg presented to the Order of United American Mechanics, at this place, a large and splendidly bound Bible for the use of the Society. Her neat and pertinent address was responded to in behalf of the Order by Dr. J. R. Evans.

WE are informed on what we consider good authority, that Low's boys in Centre township, notified all their workmen, that those who voted the Democratic ticket on the 13th of October, would be discharged. If it is true, there are no words in the language strong enough to show the contempt every true man should have for them. Indeed they are beneath contempt.

FIRE.—On last Thursday night during the Radical jubilee on Market Square, the stable of Henry Hartman was discovered to be on fire. The night was perfectly calm, so that the flames did not spread. The little "Rescue" was promptly on hand, and aided materially in subduing the fire. It evidently began in the hay-mow, and was either the work of an incendiary, or a chance spark from the Republican bonfire.

A RUNAWAY.—On Monday afternoon while Miss Eva Rupert was driving her father's horses down Market Street, they became frightened, and at Mr. Waller's corner ran against a tree, and then the wheel struck a hitching post, throwing Miss Rupert out on the boardwalk. She is considerably bruised, but it is hoped has escaped serious injuries. The horses were caught by running against a tree. The buggy is badly shattered, the tongue and swingle trees broken and the harness torn in tatters.

DRUM CORPS.—One of the many attractions at our late Fair was the parade in uniform of the "Rescue" and "Friendship" engine companies of this place headed by the Drum Corps of Protection Hose Company No. 1 of Wilkes Barre under command of Elisha Herring. The town of Bloomsburg never heard drumming equal to it, nor can it be excelled in the State. Our citizens were much gratified at the display. Why cant we have a Drum Corps in Bloomsburg?

RADICAL JOLLIFICATION.—On last Thursday evening the Radicals of this place having come to the conclusion they were not beaten in the state, ordered out the band, and after stealing a lot of dry-goods boxes, had a bon-fire in Market Square. P. John, Dan. Beckley Sam. Knorr, and Mike Whitmoyer displayed their eloquence to the crowd, and told them how they had contributed to the success of the Radical ticket. Of the 1996 majority in this County they said nothing.

As Robinson was about to ventilate himself, the cry of "fire" was raised, and the crowd adjourned to Hartman's stable.

The intended programme of visiting Democrats with a Salt River boat was not carried out from prudential motives.

A GOOD spring wagon for sale. Call at L. T. Sharpless' store. *

IT seems that catnip would not do,
To "reconstruct" the voters true
Who swarm Columbia Co., through:
And nineteen hundred eighty-one
Petarded our poor friend P. John,
Whose owners seek another man
And try the "allopathic" plan!

BRADFORD county gives a total vote of 11,429, Mercur 7,480, Piollet 4 029, making a majority for the former of 3,480. Piollet runs ahead of the Democratic State ticket and his candidacy aided us in Bradford. The greatly increased vote in that county has saved Mercur from inglorious defeat, but his lean majority is a virtual condemnation.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—A young man by the name of Washington Trowbridge was accidently killed, by the discharge of a gun in the hands of Daniel Myers, on Sunday last, while out hunting in Centre township, Columbia county. It is reported that when in the act of getting over a fence Myer's gun lock struck a rail, putting off the load, which took effect in the breast of Trowbridge, killing him instantly. The deceased was about 21 years of age. There were three in the party hunting. An inquest was held over the body and the verdict rendered was in accordance with the above facts. This is another sad warning to Sabbath breakers. The seventh day should be respected and kept holy. No good ever comes out of a violation of holy writ.—Democrat.

THE FAIR.—The weather opened inauspiciously on Wednesday of last week, the day being cloudy, damp and chilly. But few visitors were in attendance, but exhibitors were busy arranging their goods so as to display them to the best advantage, and our townsmen were busy arranging booths, stands, and tables, for the purpose of supplying the expected throng with catabes of all kinds from roast turkeys down to peanuts.

On Thursday a large crowd gathered in, new carriages and old ones, plow horses and fast trotters, were alike brought into requisition. The pea-nuts disappeared at an alarming rate, and colored lemonade was in active demand. Old flirtations were renewed, old times and reminiscences were recalled, and "all went merry as a marriage bell." The Bloomsburg Brass Band at appropriate intervals discoursed its sweetest strains. The fat woman, the Lilliputian Queen, and the Circassian girl, displayed themselves as usual, and high above all was heard the cry of patent medicine venders, who offered to kill or cure on the spot.

We have not the space to speak in detail of the goods, and animals exhibited. While the number and quality was fair, we are of the opinion that many of our citizens do not appreciate the importance of contributing their share towards the general good. We need better and more permanent buildings, not only for the convenience of the people, but for the security and proper display of the articles. We also think it is a mistake to permit itinerant jockeys to monopolize the track three-fourths of the time. It is also unjust to our land-lords that tables should be spread on the grounds without the payment of licenses. The recipts were over $2,200

Our citizens should not only preserve their membership tickets, but be active in attendance upon all meetings of the Society and upon all occasions endeavor to advance its interests. The list of awards will be found in another column.

THE majority for Boyle in this County has been erroneously reported at 1981. The footing up shows it to be 1983.

ANOTHER COUNTERFEIT.—A very skillfully executed counterfeit $10 note on the Third National Bank of Philadelphia is in circulation. Look out for it.

UPON the announcement within a few days of P. John's retirement from the Republican and probable resumption of medical practice, the price of catnip rose largely in the market.

JAMES M. ASHLEY who originated Impeachment in the House of Representatives, is defeated for reelection in the Toledo district, Ohio. This is a most righteous judgment upon a bad man.

THE Appletons, Publishers of New York, have given to Bishop Beckwith of Georgia, $20,000 to found an Orphan's Asylum, at Macon, under the auspices of the Episcopal Church.

THE Division of the Diocese of Pennsylvania on the Fourteen County Line has been finally defeated. Hereafter the only division sought for should be on the Five County Line. It can be carried. F.

JOHN ALLEN, "the wickedest man in New York," has been arrested and held to answer, on the charge of keeping a resort for thieves and prostitutes. His "reconstruction," like that of the Southern States, did not last long.

COLD weather is setting in, and the only way to provide against colds, rheumatism, &c. is to provide warm and comfortable clothing, which can be had in abundance, of good quality, and at cheap rates by calling at Chamberlin's new clothing Store in Hartman's Block. Buy while goods are cheap, and before the increased demand raises prices. *

SELLING off at reduced prices—L. T. Sharpless will offer for a few weeks at very low prices to close out his entire stock consisting of dry goods of all kinds, notions, hoop skirts, boots and shoes and gaiters of all kinds; hats and caps, queensware, stoneware, baskets of all kinds, &c., &c. To all who desire to make money we say give him a call as a great many goods will be sold below cost.

SUICIDE.—On Friday morning last between twelve o'clock and daylight, a young girl aged about 22 years, named Sarah Jane Ely, of Mayberry township this county, went to Jacob Swank's Mill dam in the above named township and drowned herself. We have not heard what it was that drove her to the act, further than that she had been much afflicted, with depression of spirits.—Danville Intelligencer.

ON Thursday evening Capt. Brockway of Columbia County, a veteran of the late war, and now editor of the Bloomsburg Columbian made his opening speech for the campaign at Seymour Hall. Capt. Brockway is one of the most effective and pleasant speakers it has ever been our good fortune to hear. He deals in incontrovertible facts and figures, and the absence of all bombast and intolerance in his manner of speaking gives him that hold upon his hearers which affords the best assurance of success.—Wayne Co. Herald.

TROT AT BLOOMSBURG.—At the last day of the Columbia county fair, held at Bloomsburg, (Friday,) Mr. F. A. Page, of Wilkes-Barre, took a $50 purse trotting his "Warrior" against "Prince George." He took the first heat in 2:37; the second in 2:37; in the third heat the driver of Prince George drove against Page's sulkey, which was on the inside, tipping it over and spilling out the driver, Peter Eckroth, of Wilkes-Barre, on account of which the Prince took the heat; the fourth heat and the purse were taken by Warrior, in 2:38. Mr. Eckroth was universally praised for his skillful driving. Scranton Rep.

The City Election.

THE return Judges of the city met yesterday, and after canvassing the vote of the several wards, cast on Tuesday last, gave certificates of election to the following Democrats, with the annexed majorities:

Daniel M. Fox, Mayor, majority 1,838.

John M. Melloy, Receiver of Taxes, majority 238.

George Getz, City Controller, majority 728.

Thomas J. Barger, Solicitor, majority 884.

Major David P. Weaver, City Commissioner, majority 973.

Furman Sheppard, District Attorney, majority 1,275.

Albert W. Fletcher, Clerk of Court of Common Pleas, majority 631.

Thomas Greenbank, Associate Judge of the District Court, majority 125.

From the above it will be seen that the whole Democratic City and County ticket is elected with the exception of the Hon. William L. Hirst, our candidate for President Judge of the District Court, who has been counted out by an alleged majority of 25 against him, by the Radical wire-workers and manipulators.—Age.
