The Election of Grant

The election of Tuesday last having resulted in the choice of Gen. Grant for the office of President of the United States, we are to understand that the Republican party is to have continued control of the Government.

We need hardly express our regret over this result of the contest of 1868. For, although that regret is most sincere, its formal expression would be needless.

In the first place, the vote of our country is most satisfactory, and there can be no doubt that we will in future be able to manage our affairs with a more energetic party.

Next, it is to be considered that the successful party is made up of discordant elements and that their triumph is not a certain guaranty of permanent power.

Again, we must believe that the Radical party as shown in financial means and in the great iniquity of reconstruction, it is in the hands of the leaders who will make with him (as they did with Johnson) and their common party will be broken or greatly weakened.

Finally, we have reason to believe that the Radical success is but temporary—its success is a foundation of future power—because it is improperly obtained.

It is, in fact, a product of fraud and violence, of corruption and force. Disfranchisement South and in the Central States of West Virginia and Missouri, (in addition to the unlawful establishment of negro suffrage by acts of Congress), has contributed to the result.

One thing is very manifest. The vigorous examination which has been given to public questions (particularly those of finance) by Democratic speakers and writers, has put upon the Radical party a just responsibility for the future, a responsibility from which they cannot escape.

SEYMOUR'S MAJORITY IS TWELVE IN BLOOMSBURG! The utmost efforts of the Republicans to regain control of this district have indignantly failed and the future is secure!

IMPORTANT TO FARMERS.—A writer in the New York Sun advises farmers not to hold on to their crops, but to forward them to market as soon as possible.

PLANT TREES.—The public excitement having in a measure passed away with the election of Grant, our citizens should direct their attention to the planting of trees.

SEYMOUR'S MAJORITY IS TWELVE IN BLOOMSBURG! The utmost efforts of the Republicans to regain control of this district have indignantly failed and the future is secure!

WHERE would the party of silver-advocates, without disfranchisement, just figure it up? All Virginia disfranchised, 170,000 votes; all Texas, 65,000; all Mississippi, 70,000; in Missouri, 60,000; in Tennessee, 100,000; in the so-called reconstructed States, 150,000—total 605,000.

ELECTION RETURNS.

Grant Elected President. NEW YORK AND NEW JERSEY ELECT DEMOCRATIC GOVERNORS.

THE ELECTORAL VOTE. We give below the election vote of each State, together with estimated majorities on the Presidential ticket, according to the latest returns now at hand.

FOR SEYMOUR.

THE NEW POSTAGE STAMP.

The Postmaster General has just awarded the contract for the supply of stamps to the Department for the ensuing 4 years to the National Bank Note Company of New York.

RAILROAD TRAVEL.

The following "rules of the road" are based upon legal decisions, and ought to be universally known: The courts have decided that applicants for tickets on railroads can be ejected from the cars if they do not offer the exact amount of their fare.

LABORERS PAY THE TAXES.

If a farmer during the course of a year has bought 800 bushels of wheat, and has paid, in making his purchase, at least $200 in taxes, the better got his income from his deposits.

WORKINGMEN ECONOMIZE.

The recent cool weather should remind our mechanics and laborers to save sufficient out of their wages for winter vendue. In two months from the present time it will be too cold to make much out of doors, and it behooves those especially with large families to look a little ahead for during our winter months necessities of life are dearer than at any other time of the year.

Liability of Tenant Holding Over.

A. LEASED premises to B. for a term which expired on the 1st of December, the rent being payable quarterly. B. continued to occupy the premises after the expiration of the term, without any further agreement on the subject; and on the 1st of March following, having quit possession, he paid a quarter's rent, and tendered the key, A. at first refused to take, but after a refusal consented to accept, without prejudice to his rights.

Where the time for the expiration of the lease is specified, and the tenant holds over, the landlord may treat him as a trespasser, or as a tenant by sufferance, and turn him out without notice.

In connection with the above, we add the following list of articles, the prices of which have been increased from fifty to five hundred per cent. by the imposition of tariffs, taxes, &c.

Table listing various goods and their prices: Drugs, shoes, &c. 100 per cent.; Boots and medicine, 300 per cent.; Nails, 100 per cent.; Iron and steel, 100 per cent.; Lumber, 50 per cent.; Crockery, 100 per cent.; Liquors, 500 per cent.; Cigars, 300 per cent.

Why Pay the Taxes?

By way of answer to John Covode, and all such Radical numskuls, who are either too ignorant to know, or too venal to tell the truth, and are constantly declaring that the "rich men pay all the taxes," we give place to the following list of articles of every-day consumption, showing what they cost before the advent of Radicalism, what they cost now, and the amount of tax assessed on each:
