

The Columbian and Bloomsburg Democrat.

BLOOMSBURG, PA. FRIDAY MORNING, JAN. 8, 1869.

THE COLUMBIAN has the largest circulation of any paper published in Northern Pennsylvania...

What a pity! By a consolidation of the COLUMBIAN and Democrat, we knew that we should defeat Radicalism in the county...

What is it that touches our contemporary to the quick? Knowing the past divisions of the Democracy he hopes to gain the support of the former subscribers...

Not will his frantic appeals to the "Bible-worshippers, McNeils, and the disciples of that tried and faithful Democrat, Andrew Frazer," avail him...

The State Convention. Unless postponed, our next State Convention will meet March Fourth next...

Unless this Legislature proves to be more economical and faithful than its predecessors, we are in order to attain reverse and defeat at the polls next fall.

Law Partnership. We understand that A. P. Spitzley and James Bryson, Esq's, have formed a law partnership...

Book Notices. We have received the first number of Capt. Mayne Reid's Magazine "Onward" published by Carlton, 49 Broadway, New York...

Too True. A charming little story written in simple, natural style, yet containing enough of exciting interest to preserve it from tanniness.

Search After Truth. This work written by Geo. W. Eggleston, is addressed especially to young men, and is well worthy of their perusal.

No Love Lost. A poem by W. D. Howell. It is beautifully printed in the most perfect style, and is bound in exquisite style...

Sunday School Convention.

THE MORNING session was closed by singing the long metre doxology and benediction by Rev. Mr. Melick.

Afternoon session opened by Rev. Mr. Spear, which was followed by a singing exercise conducted by Rev. Mr. Taylor...

Prof. Walker then addressed the convention, directing his discourse to the children, on the great end of life, simplifying it by the familiar illustration of a watch.

After some more exercises in singing, Prof. Osburn addressed the children, and exhorted them to be diligent in their studies...

Prof. Osburn gave a short account of the habits of the people of Palestine, as Bethlehem meant "house of bread," it seemed very appropriate at the present day...

Affairs of Reconstruction.

GEORGIA and Arkansas are reconstructed, and on a loyal basis. In order to show how thoroughly the work has been done, and how beautifully the system works...
