

by the year ten cents. Cards in the "Directory" column, $2.00 per year for the first two lines, and 1.00 for each additional line.

A MODEL CHARGE TO A JURY,-It seems to us the following is worthy of the defunct Wouton Von Twiller:

he warranted not breachy, and the warranty was broken by reason of the brea-flame licked the very clouds! The and the plaintiff took her home again plaintiff's note was worthless and the cow good for nothing, either for beef or > for the court if she understands herself -and she thinks she does-don't know how such a case should be decided."

A GERAT CURIOSITY .-- George B. Warren, of Troy, New York has a pair in my frenzy. I would gladly have upon two bucks with their horns locked together in the manner in which A faithless husband, a murderer and they now appear. One of the animals incendiary, all in one short hour! Oh, was dead, and the other was unable to innocent among us, except those who burthen. It must inevitably have re-What accursed fate led Satan to me in the hunter put an end to its sufferings not have murdered the county I should tion that they were engaged in a fierce In the mean time, the alarm-bells bent under the force of the collision held the bucks together-eye to eye, face to face-and defying all efforts to separate them.

THE following conversation is reported as having taken place in the barber shop attached to one of our principal hotels, the other day :

First man and brother (reading a. newspaper)-I see dis Mr. Rosschilds, what jes' dicd, was worth fo' hundred million dollars. Second man and brother (scraping a

First m. and b .-- Mr. Rosschilds,

Second do. How much was he worf. did you say ?

First-Fo' hundred million dollars. Second-Goshamighty ! ife mus' had a good districk. First-Good districk ! What do you

COL. DEM .--- VOL. XXXII NO. 51.

AATES OF ADVENTISTIC. One square, (ter Hnde of He epitya-lent in nonparell type) one of two trees-tions, 81.50; three insertions, 82.60. matrix is 28. 80. 80. 19 One squares 100 50 7.0 9.0 10.0 Three squares 500 7.0 500 10.0 15.00 Four squares 500 7.0 500 10.0 15.00 Four squares 500 10.0 10.0 17.0 2.00 quarter column. 10.0 10.00 10.0 80.0 80.00 One column. 30.00 80.00 00.00 60.00 One column. 30.00 80.00 00.00 60.00 Executor's or Administrator's Notice. Executor's or Administrator's Notice, 8.00 : Auditor's or Assignee's Notice, 2.50, Local Notices, twenty cents a line ;

RATES OF ADVERTISING.

"If the jury believe from evidence, that the plaintiff and defendent were While I stood hesitating, partners in the grocery business, and the plaintiff bought out the defendant, through it .- for it was bright moon- and gave his note for the interest, and light and the sun had not yet risen,-the | the defendant paid for the note by de-

and died; and if the jury further believe that the defendant's interest in milk, then the jury must find out for

I could no longer see the light of the circle of our friends! And to-day!

Mountain. I could almost have believed in the truth of the silly fable. The speeches. Now-why should I deny it ! -now would I have given my soul,

Then it seemed to me as if I were

| 1 | elow Iron. vholesale and retail, Main st., just | • Office at Keller's Holel. v2-n27 | Manufacturers of | I had to accompany my brother to | perstitious fear, and yet I could not rid | strode towards Julia, wound her long | might save me, take from me all mem- | Second—I mean a good districk; dat's |
|------------------|---|--|--|--|--|--|---|--|
| 0 | XCHANGE HOTEL, by Koons & Clark, Main | ESPY DIRECTORY. | POWDER KEGS | different houses. But he saw my im- | | | | |
| - | MERICAN HOUSE, by JOHN LEACOCE, Main | Alternative statements and an and a statement of the stat | LUMBER, | patience and home-sickness, and there- | infibration by the part mountight even | her shricking to the floor, and dragged her about exclaiming-"Faithless wo- | and children in some corner of the earth | key inspector, else how could he make |
| 3 | at, west of Iron street, v1-n43 | J. D. WERKHEISER, Boot and Shoe Hore and manufactory, Shop on Main street, op- | give notice that they are prepared to accomolate their custom with directch and on the chement | fore after a few days advised me to re- turn home without him. I resolved to | more terrible, and his eyes glittered | man ! false wretch !" | where we might spend our days undis- covered. | (Exit Reporter.) |
| | TORKS HOTEL, by G. W. MAUGER, east end of Main st. vi-n43 | DSPY STEAM FLOURING MILLS, C. S. Fowler, | erms. | do so the more readily, as his stay in | oven more brightly. "You have really frightened me like | I rushed to her aid. He pushed me | But the alarm bolls counded still | |
| dph | and the set of the second se | Proprietor. v2-n16 | | Prague would be prolonged several | a ghost," said I; "I tremble all over, | away with such force, that I tumbled back upon the floor. As I rose to my | | KEROSENE EXPLOSIONSScarcely a |
| 1 | B. STOHNER, refreshment saloon, Main st., just above court house. vi-n43 | B. F. REIGHARD, & BRO., dealers in dry goods, groceries, and general merchandise. vi2n11 | U ^{NION HOTEL,} | weeks. I took an extra post, and flew towards my dear home. | How came you to seek me in my sum- | fest again he lot on the unhanny Inlia | ing. 1 sprang from the ground, and continued my flight through the bushes, | week passes during the winter months but we read accounts of frightful acci- |
| | TOONS & CLARK, refreshment saloon, Ex- | T D. CALDWELL, dealer in dry goods, grocer- | R O H R S B U R G, P A. The undersigned would respectfully inform | On the way the strange Mandeville | mer-house? You seem to know every | and cried out to me-"You I'll throt- | | dents from kerosene lamps exploding, |
| | change hotel. vl-n43 | J. les, queensware, hardware, fish, salt, nails, etc., etc., vi2n11 | the traveling public that he has purchased and refitted in the best manner the old stand former- | continually arose before my imagina- | He suiled maliciously, and said- | tie !" In my desperation I caught up a knife from the table, and threatened to | 5. dk d. al a | and killing or scarring for lifemen, wo- |
| 11 | MERCHANTS AND GROCERS. | T. W. EDGAB, Susquehanna Planing Mill and vi2n11 | ly occupied by W. A. Kline, and that he is now prepared to accommodate his friends with all the | tion. I could not forget the odd figure with the red coat, the club foot, and the | "Don't you now know me, and what I | plunge it into him if he did not keenstill | HERE I took breath. All that hap- | men and children. A simple knowl- |
| 1 | | 1. Box manufactory. Trant | comforts and conveniences of a first-class house. A fine new barn has been built and the surroun- | ill-omened features. I could not help | want with you ??! | But the frantic man threw himself up- | pened was so horrible, so sudden, I could not believe it. I looked around | edge of the infiammable nature of the fluid would probably put a stop to near- |
| . 3 | JACOBS, Confectionery, groceries etc Main st., above Court House, vi-n46 | BUCKHORN DIRECTORY. | dings placed in perfact order. The bar will al- ways be stocked with the choisest liquors and ci- gars, and the table furnished with the best the | thinking too of the bushel of black hair | "I don't know you now any better than I did at Prague. But just for the | on me and seized me by the threat. I | me; the relection of the configration | ly all the accidents. As the oil burns |
| as ; | II. MILLER, dealer in dry goods, groceries, | M G. & W. H. SHOEMAKER, dealers in dry | market affords. JAMES V. GILLASPIE. July 3,'68-tf | which stood about his brow. Perhaps | and the second | lost breath, and brandished the knife in all directions. I thrust it repeatedly at | glowed through the pine-trees. I felt | down into the lamp a highly-inflamma- |
| - | equensware, flour, salt, shoes, notions, etc. | M goods, groceries and general merchandise. First store in south end of town. V2-n15. | | there was a little horn under it, and then was he Beelzebub complete from | to me,-you will not take it amiss: I | him. Suddenly, the unhappy man felt | that my clothes and my fingers were | ble gas gathers over its surface, and as the oil decreases the gas increases |
| | FRELVY NEAL & Co., dealers in dry goods, | TACOB & WM. HABRIS, dealers in dry goods, | BRICK HOTEL, | top to toe. | thought that if you were not a wizard you must be Satan himself." | The knife was in his heart. | "This will betray mo to the flast that | When the oil is nearly consumed a |
| 7 | proceries, flour, feed, salt, fish, iron, nails, | groceries, drugs and medicines. First store in north end of town, v -nls, | ORANGEVILLE, COLUMBIA COUNTY, PA. | It is true, he had brought back my | | Julia lay sobbing on the floor beside | meets me !" thought I; and I tore off | slight jar will often infinme the gas, and |
| 0 | A liter | Research Contraction of the State of the Sta | WM. MASTELLER, PROPRIETOR. | pocket-book; no man in the world could have acted more honestly. He | | her murdered husband. I stood there like a statue. "Oh !" thought I, "were | my spotted clothes, and hid them in | an explosion is sure to follow, dealing death and destruction. A bombshell |
| - | H. Main st., above Court House, vi-n43 | JERSEYTOWN DIRECTORY. | Having laken possession of this well-known house, so long kept by Samuel Everett, the Pro- | had read Fanny's letters and my broth- | make a bargain with me 7" | it only a dream, and I lay waking on. | in the dow on the grass Thus half | is not more to be dreaded. Now if the |
| | C. MARR. by goods and notions, southwest | TACOB A. SWISHER, dealer in Hides, Leather | priefor has put in it permanent repair and furnish- ed BAR AND LARDER with the choicest liquous and newest delicacies. His stable is not excelled | er's instructions to me and so,naturally | "You will have to offer me much be- | the sofa in my summer-nouse ! A curse | clad, I ran out on the highway. | lamp is not allowed to burn more than |
| 63434 97 - 14 | , corner Main and Irou sts. v1-n13 | Pa, VI-n46 | in the county; and no pains will be spared to accommodate guests | enough, had become acquainted with | 11 The second | upon the Red-coat ! A curse upon my pocket-book ! Oh, my poor children! | "What am I now ?" said I to myself: | half-way down, such accidents are im- |
| mb 3 | J. BROWER, dry goods, groceries, etc., north- | | | my secrets. But-his face-no, nature could not have written so illigibly ! | the state of the | | "whoever sees me, will pursue me. | possible. Always fill your lamps every morning ; then you never need fear an |
| | A. BECKLEY, Keystone shoe store, books and | HOTELS AND SALOONS. | MISS LIZZIE BARKLEY | Enough, had I ever believed in the ex- | is complete." | on the very threshold of my domestic | Only crazy people or murderers run through the weeds half-naked or I | explosion. |
| | , stationery, southwest corner Market and | TXCHANGE HOTEL, | LTL. has had returned from Philadelphis, and has | istence of a Mephistophiles, I should | "Ohot I shall offer you nothing, give you nothing. That was the cus- | paradise, here am I hurled back into | must pretend that I have been robbed. | |
| ne L S | WILLIAM ERASMUS, confectioneries, Main | HLOOMSBURG, COLUMBIA CO., PA. | hought, and is now offering the hest assortment | have had no doubt of it now for a single | tom in old times, when people believed | hell, such as I have never dreamed of ! —I am a murderer!" | Could I only meet a peasant whom I | A REMARKABLE FEAT B Bath, Me., a few days since, a small ind was |
| A. 15. | w st, near the rallroad, vi-nil | The understand having purchased this well- | FANCY GOODS, | I followed this train of thought, and | in the devil, and so were on the guard | The noise in the room awakened the | could overpower, he should furnish me with clothes, so I might disguise myself | riding down hill at full speed on the |
| | C. MENDENHALL, general stock of merchan- | known and centrally-localed house, the Exchange Rotel, situate on MAIN STREET, in Ricomsburg | TREMMINGS, HONNETB &c. &c., | will not deny that I gave myself up | against him; then one of them had to bribe them. But now-a-days | people in the house. I heard them stir- | for awhile. I might hide myself in the | steep road which crosses the railroad |
| | Berwielt road vi-nri | House, respectfully inform their friends and the public in general that their house is now in order | the second s | right willingly to the play of my imag- | the second se | ring and calling. Nothing was left to | woods by day, and continue my flight | track, when a freight train came along. |
| NC. | J J. ROBRINS, dealer in dry goods greeries etc. Bhive's block, Main st., below iron vi-nij | for the reception and cutertainment of traveliers who may be disposed to favor it with their cua- | make up dresses and all other articles of female wardrobe, at short notice, and in the best and | ination ; for it beguiled the time. I con- cluded that my honest Man-devil might | devil and every thing is carrie ! | me but flight, to escape discevory. 1 sizzed the candle to light myself out of | by night. But where get food ? where | The little fellow struggled hard to turn his sled from the path to apparently |
| а III (| Least corner Main and Iron Streets, vi-add | tom. They have spared no expense in preparing the Exchange for the entertainment of their quests | LATEST SPRING STYLES. | be the real devil, and his honesty a | on by reason, the children of men are | the house. | money ?" "And now I recollected that I had left my pocket-book in my coat, | certain death, but was unable to do so, |
| | the second | neither shall there be snything wanting on their part to minister to their personal comfort. They | Rooms in the Ramsey Buildings, on West | mere trick to snap up my poor soul on the | ns cheap as dirt." "I hope it otherwise with me, al- | CONSUMMATION OF HORROR. | which I had thrown away, and so de- | and was carried forward and downward |
| e 11 | A. BLOAN, dealer in choice dry goods, House- keeping goods, fresh groceries, etc., etc. Main L, epperite court house, v-infi | house is spacing, and enjoys an excellent lass- news location. Outdows run, at all times between the Ex- | MainiStreet. Call and see her varied stock of | way to heaven. And if he really were the devil, what had he to offer me?- | though I do not believe in Beeizebub. A | As I rushed down the steps, I resolv- | prived myself of all my cash. | with the speed of lightning. But instead of being crushed he shot |
| P | J. K. BYER, groceries and general merchandlise visual visual visual | change Hotel and the various railroad deputs, by which travailers will be pleasantly conveyed to | Spring Goods May 1, 55. | Gold and goods?-I was never avarie- | drachm of reason is worth more to me | ed to hasten to my house, awaken my | I stood for a moment undetermined. I thought of turning back to seek my | across the track, between the wheels of |
| 110 | The second | and from the respective stations in due time to | | ious. A throne? Yes, that I would | than a bushel of faith in the devil." | wife and children, press them once more to my heart, and then, like a sec- | pocket-book. But-the blood of the | one of the cars, like an arrow, coming |
| | T. SHARPLESS, dry goods, groceries, bools, atoes, etc., Hupert block, Main st., west of | Bloomsburg, April 3, 1888, | | have been giad to have for a week, in, order to give peace to the world; but | mortals-permit me to speak in the | | count ! I could not have looked upon | out safely on the lower side. A more |
| | C CRAMER & A. E. HAYHURST, Dealers in | FORK'S HOTEL, | HORNE, KING & SEYBERT, | then I should want to go back again to | character you have assigned me-your | | | thrilling scene was probably never wit- nessed, and the bystanders hold their |
| 10 | Groceries, Confectioneries and Notions, cottown, south side, two doors above Brobst's | GEORGE W. MAUGER, Proprietor. | WHOLFSALE DRY GOODS. | my own simple dwelling to cultivate | proud security supplies me with more | | been to be got by it. And to go back, to have continually before my eyes the | baeath in terror, expecting to ago the |
| E(9) | wagonmaker shop. v -118. | The above well-known hotel has recently under- gone fad cal changes in its internal arrangements, | No. 313 Market Street, PRILADELPHIA. | tarnips with my own hand, like a sec- ond Cincinnatus. Pretty women ?-A | recruits than a legion of recruiting offi- cers in Satan's uniform. Since you | CONTRACTOR OF A DESCRIPTION OF A DESCRIP | light of the conflagration flickering | mangled remains of the lad as the cars |
| | MISCELLANEOUS. | and its proprietor announces to his former custom and the travelling public that his accomodations | Orders filled premptly at townst | harem full of the most beautiful Hel- | have begun to consider eternity as a | | the second se | passed on. But the lad lives unharmed to tell the tale of this wenderful adven- |
| | JOHN M GUGEL, Sign, Ornamental and Deco- rative painter Scottown, cor 4th & R B st, v1-43 | the country. His table will always be found anp- plied, not only with substantial food, but with all | January I, Diff. | ens, Armidas, and Armaudas? No, | problem, and holl as an Eastern faule; | turned to escape through the yard, I | no, the flames of an open hell rather ! | ture. |
| | O W. CORELL, furniture rooms, three story | the delicacies of the season. His wince and li- quors (except that popular bevorage known as | | when I thought of Fanny, the lovellest | since honesty and stupidity have come to be considered as virtues of equal val- | heard people crying and calling after | I heard the rattling of a vehicle-per- | |
| 14 | U. brick on Main al., west of Market at. vi-nis | "McHenry", purchased direct from the importing houses, are entirely pure, and free from all poi- | CHAS. G. BARKLEY, | Circassians seemed to be but old wo- men. I would not have given a straw | ue; since licentiousness is held to be an | to the barn; I knew that thence I could | haps a fire-engine and peasants running | A cuntous legal question is pending in California. In a bar room two men |
| . E | f. THOHNTON, wall paper, window shades, and fixtures, Rupert block, Main st. v1-n43 | sonous drugs. He is fbankful for a liberal patron- age in the past, and will continue to deserve it in the future. GEORGE W. MAUGER. | Attorney at Law, | to be Dr. Faust. And why? I was | amiable weakness, selfishness magnan- | | to give their aid. Instantly I threw myself into the bushes, whence I could | were engaged in dickering about the |
| town . | HOSENSTOCK, photographer, Exchange block, Main st., opposite court house, vi-nis | the future. GEORGE W. MAUGER, | BLOOMSBURG, COLUMBIA CO., PA. | happy! Happy? No, not quite so, | imity, public spirit a folly, and mere trickery prudence,-you give the devil | | look out, I trembled like an aspen- | purchase and sale of a ben, which, at |
| ary i | | EXCHANGE SALOON, | Office in the Exchange Building, second story, over Widniyer & Jacoby's Confectionery, Second door | even because I was so happy. I trem- bled a little at the thought of the Skel- | | ed the barn when some one seized me | leaf. A handsome open traveling car- | the time, was resting quietly in a cor- ner of the room. At last the sale was |
| | A. BROADT, photographer, Hartman's build- ng northeast corner Main and Marketst, vl-nsi | THE Proprietor of the Exchange Saloon has now | Widniver & Jacoby's Confectionery, Second door above the Exchange Hotel Bloomsburg, Jun. 1, 1800. | eton, who with his terrible scythe | me of your own accord. You have rea- | by the coat, With fearful desperation | riage, drawn by two horses, and loaded | effected, and immediately after it was |
| Land | 7. J. BIDLEMAN, Agent Munson's Copper To- Pi+ bular Lightning Rod, v2-n19 | on hand a large stock of SUMMER REFRESHMENTS, | bioomsturg. Jun. 1, 1800. | might so easily mow down my Fanny, | | I tore myself away, and hurled the | with baggage, approached. A man sat in it, driving. He stopped just be- | discovered that the hen had just laid an |
| Constant of | J B. PURSELL, saddle, trunk and parness maker, Main st., below court, house. vi-n46 | consisting of SPICED OVERTERS, EARDINES, TRIPE, BOLOGNAS | C E. SAVAGE, | my two sons, and even myself. And then there was always the great ques- | | burning candle into a large haystack near by. It suddenly canght fire; so I | fore me, got out, and went back a little | egg. The purchaser claimed the egg as his; but the former owner of the fowl |
| (Jaires) | BOSTER, Gine Maker, and White and fancy | SHREP TONGUE, BOILED EGGS, SWEITZER CHEESE, | PRACTICAL WATCH MAKER & JEWELER. | tion, Whether and how we should ever | | hoped to save myself. I succeeded. | way to pick up something he had | maintained that the egg, not being |
| | J. Tanuer, Scottown, vl-n47 | LAGER BEER, ALE, &C. | Main Street, (near the Court House, | come together again in paradise ?I | sin." | They let me go, their attention being | dropped. "It would help me mightily to get | warm when found, had been laid pre- |
| r (| Band dealers in Lumber, of all kinds, planing | COME ONE, COME ALL AND SEE. "En LAWSON CALMAN. | BLOOMSBURG, PA. Constantly on hand afine assortment of Amer- | should have liked to have thrown a | deed," cried I. | diverted by the fire ; I escaped into the open country. | off," thought I, "were I only in that | vious to the completion of the pur- |
| logi ID - | mill near the rath-road. vi-n46 | Bloomsturg, May 3, 1867. | can and Swiss Watches, clocks, jeweiry, silver- | look into the future life, just to quiet myselt. But suppose my devil had granted me my pieus wish, and let me | "Certainly !" cried the red gentleman | | carriage ! my legs are giving out; they | chase. The purchaser, doubting the statement, is about to open legal pro- |
| 00014 | J. HIDLEMAN, saddle and harness maker, the near southwest corner Main and Market st. V. near | | al, consisting of butter dishes, goblets, knives, forks, spoons, napkin rings etc. Particular attention paid to repairing watches | Frances and my prous many many received | and grinned. "But I speak the truth | and hillocks. The idea of seeing my | will drag me no farther. Clothes, money swift flight, all within reach. Heaven | ceedings to recover the value of the |
| - 8 | WITMAN, marble works, near southwest | THE ESPY HOTEL, | Particular attention paid to repairing watches and jewelry. This department is under the su- | peep through a crack in heaven's gate, what else could a subject of Adrame- | because you people do not any longer believe it. So long as the truth was yet | Fanny, and Augustus and Leopold, was no more to be thought of. The instinct of | certainly means to favor me. I'll take | egg. a fill of same fill as can y a set the ray |
| | A. corner Main and Markel ats. v1-n43 | ESPY, COLUMBIA COUNTY, PA. | Revision, of A. F. Savage a practical watering ker and Jeweler of twelve years experience in a large Wholesale and Manufacturing house. Masonic marks made to order. All goods and | lech have been able to show but his | sacred among men, Satan must needs | self-preservation took precedence of ev- | the hint. I'll jump in !" | -Dusing the homeward trip of the |
| | R. H. BINGLER, dealer in planes, organs and melodeons, at G. W. Corell's furniture rooms | The subscriber respectfully informs his friends and the public, that he has taken the above well known Hourse of Entertainment, and will be pleased to rescive the custom of all who will have hour with a cult | Masonie marks made to order. All goods and work warranted. [Jan 1,59, | Contra dinta inconset | be the father of lies. But now the case | ery thing else. When I thought of | A BOY and girl of ten-der years were | Henry Chauncey, from Aspinwall, the |
| | VI-n48 | pleased to receive the custom of all who will favor him with a call. | TIOP A DI TOTI ETA 1860 | But enough of this nonsense. | | my return home yesterday, and of my | disputing as to what their mothers | steerage passengers were so numerous |
| OSD . | D. W. ROBBINS, liquor dealer second door from D. mathwest corner Main and Iron sts. v1-n43 | HE WILL KEEP A GOOD TABLE, | E ^{STABLISHED 1798.} | I had been two days and a night on my way home, and it was getting late | the antipodes of mankind." "Then, in the present case at least, | expectations of the coming morning, I could not believe what had happened. | could do. Getting impatient, the little | as to make them uncomfortable. As for sleeping accomodation, it was apply |
| | W . PEACOOF, Noting Public, northeast corner vi-add | a Bar well stocked with the best of Lignors, and every effort will be made to render suffre satis- | JOHDAN & BROTHER, Wholesalo Grocers, and Dealers in | on the second day. In vain did I scold | you are not my opponent; for I think | But my bloody and clotted clothes and | damsel blurted out by the way of eif- max and as a clincher: "Well, there's | described by a Celifornian who ap- |
| | | a Bar well stocked with the best of Lignors, and every effort will be made to render suffro sath- faction. C. H. DIETTERICH. Espy, Pa., April 12, 1807. | SALTPETER AND BRIMSTONE. | the driver, and urge him on with words | just as you do, my philosophical Mr. | the cool morning str, which chilled me | one thing my mother can do that yours | proached the captain, and said: |
| | This A. FUNSTOR, initial and each mites fire | | No 240 North Third St. | and money. It was growing late, and | | through, convinced me only too truly of the reality, I ran, almost breathless, | cm'i; my mother can take every one of | "I should like to have a sleeping berth, if you pleme." |
| N, | AMUIN. I.A. OBY, Marble and Brown Hone | W WHOLESALE GROOMERS. | Philadelphia. | darker, and I was becoming more and more impatient. Ab. I had not seen | ready. Let a man give me hold of a | | her teeth out at once." | "Why, where have you been sleep- |
| В | 19 Wearfield Beach Stream and Annual Storwich road, why in | N. M. Corner Second and Arch Streets, ParLANRIA CO. | MERCHANT'S HOTEL, | Fanny for almost three months, nor | single hair, and I will have his whole | any weapon of death about me, or had | | ing these two met nights since we |
| | N. Wana all the state blacting bis. She liber na- | Design in | and the second s | and the second | | a stream been near, I should have coased | Morris took place at St. Luke's Church, | left P' |
| 5 I | NELIGE - mechanery made and repaired. value | BICH, MPICHE, DI DARN BODA, &C. 4C. | PHD ADELPHIA. | buds near a hardly blown rose! I initiy | riege is, i guess, sil risety i must start. 180 good-bg. ²² | In ites; Designing with sweat and attorig ex- | Phil'a., Dos. Sd., The concerniors wood the Rt. Rev. Bishons Lee. Odenheimer. | bat he's got baller now, and won't |
| | S. RUHN, dealer in meat tollow, etc., Chem- | and Orders will receive prompt stimution. | J. & W. G. M'EUBIN, Proprietor, Msy 10, 1967 (p. | | | hansted, with trenibling knows I contin- | | Istand it any longer." |
| CHORY. | · ···································· | | | | | | | |