UNFATE .- The Republican is ungen rous in trying to create the impression hat we acted unfairly in distributing pamphlet copies of the 'Rea Homicide. We did not wait until the evidence for the Commonwealth was closed. The sooks did not come out until Thursday norning, and we at once supplied the court and counsel with copies, and are ratified to know that the book was of ssential service to both sides in the rial of the cause. We distributed them among the people that evening by per-mission of the Court, the jury having teen empanneled and sworn. Besides, at no time could the book have worked ny harm, because it gave the testimony on both sides, without partiality.

WE are rapidly selling the remaining wopies of the pamphlet containing an ments of every intelligent family.
