THE Episcopal Diocesan Convention ljourned, Thursday May 13th, after ompleting its business, and directing ne next Convention to assemble in St. uke's Church, Phila., on the third

ABRAHAM WITNER of Roaring reek recently had two horses, harness nd spring wagon stolen from his barn. he wagon was afterwards found in the oad some miles distant, but the horses nd harness were carried off. There is o clue to the thief.

On Friday last, whilst a freight train vas being backed near the Planing Mill n the L. & B. RR. a sudden jar threw he conductor Wm. Barrett, from the top fa car where he was standing, to the round, inflicting such injuries as to seiously endanger his life. At latest acounts he was better with a fair hope of is recovery.

On Sunday afternoon last, we were isited by a hail storm which was excedingly severe whilst it lasted, which ras, fortunately, but a few minutes.vere quite white. Some of the halltones were as large as a hazel-nut. We ave no doubt that much damage has cen done to the tender buds of fruitrees especially the peach.

The claims of Mayberry for the heretofore, our readers will have occaposition, undoubtedly induced the Col. sion to thank the COLUMBIAN for givto make the appointment. Apprehending that the citizens of Catawissa and Many of the townships compris d vicinity remain in blissful ignorance of much more territory than they now do, the valuable and patriotic services renand we have included some lands patdered by Mayberry in the late war, it ented before the division of the county, Patriotism characterized him throughout, and he not only showered contributions of money, when solicited, but like Artemus Ward -he became so extreme in his love of country, t) at if not impracticable with the requirements of public necessity, he would if indispensable, sacrifice his brother, by sending him as a substitute and pay him the highest market price and get credit therefore. But his zeal did not rest here. After the suppress ifter having undergone all the aforementioned trials and hardships, and stemmed the tide of oppression, is not justly entitled to the reward. The Col. and Ulysses have a proper appreciation of his labors and publicly manifest It by receiving him to their bosoms, and lirect the fatted calf to be killed, and the household of the Bioomsburg Ring assemble, that great might be the rejoicing at the return of the wayward prodigal. Col. says, Ulysses ! Ulysses ! let us be thankful and give praise that our beloved Mayberry has returned to us thoroughly contrite in spirit and entirely purged and absolved from all stigma and crime that attached to a bolter or renegade, and asks that he may be again admitted to our midst and allowed some of the crumbs that fall from our table. It may not be inappropriate to par-
