The course was commenced on Thurs-day evening, November 26th, 1868, by Rev. J. A. Dixon of Mount Carmel, His Shingles, No. 1 per thousand. Rev. J. A. Dixon of Mount Carmel, His subject, "Formation of Human Character," was well chosen and admirably handled; elucidating many points of interest, especially to the young. The second Lecture by Rev. D. Washburn of Ashland, Pa. "Progress of History" discovered a most profound research as well as a mind of the highest order .-Any eulogy of ours upon the character or qualifications of Mr. Washburn, would be but feeble praise indeed. The next Lecture was delivered by Dr. E. L. Betterly on the "Character of Woman." This lecture was a decided hit, and was received by a large and appreciative audience. The Doctor is not only a fluent speaker, but his language at times is truly beautiful. The fourth Lecture, by J. Harry James, Esq., subject, "Our People," was well calculated to call into action every energy, and every emotion of the young man's ardent nature. It was well handled and will be remembered by these of his friends who heard him, as another evidence of his growing popularity. Knowing Mr. Boner's executive abilities, we expected a good discourse, and training has developed discipline and mental qualities in him which are truly enviable. AN INTERESTING LETTER is published in the Medico-Chirurgical Review, on the subject of the Extract of Sursaparilla in certain affections, by Berlinnin Travers, F. R. S., &c. Speaking of those obscases, and arising trout the excess of mercury, he states that no remedy is equal to the Extract of Sarsaparille; its power is extraordimary, more so than any other drug I am acquantical with. It is, in the stricted sense, bonte with this invaluable attribute, that it is applicable to a state of the system so suncken, and yet so tritable as renders other substances of the totic class unavailable of injurious,
