MANY of our farmers have sustained a severe loss by the recent fall in wheat and potatoes. Some of them who re-fused $2.25 for their wheat would be glad now to sell at $1.40. While we do not rejoice at their losses, we trust that it will have the effect of breaking down the system of hoarding op grain until it reaches extortionate prices. The farmer should receive a fair price, and so all other classes.

STRAWBERRY SHORT-CAKE. - Take one quart of sifted flour and make into t remedy to allay the pain of a baking powder biscuit, making very short, and use four teaspoons of baking powder; roll out in a large cake one inch thick, and put in a pan and bake; have ready one quart of strawberries, mashed with sugar to make them sweet, and a tea-cup of sweet cream; mix sugar, berries and cream well, and when the cake is done cut it in the centre, or split it, and lay the prepared berries on one-half, covering with the other. This must be eaten while warm: you will find it delicious. Other berries can be used the same way.

4. OLD ENGLAND; Its Scenery,

"This book has the advantage of concisety and emphatically pointing out many comparatively neglected objects of interest and sources of information and pleasure. 'Old England is just the book for the departing traveler to put in his pocket to refresh his memory and make sungestive his lour." "Booken Transcript."

"It is not so much what Mr. Howells sees as what he ignores that gives his readers the sense, when they have finished his books, of having been lingering over a charming narrative."— Boston Post. 6. VENETIAN LIFE; Including

"It is Venice directly presented to the imag tion, steeped in its own peculiar atmospher that we see what the writer says, share his rather than the reader of his pages,"-Restoil 7. REMINISCENCES OF EUROPEAN

8. TWO THOUSAND MILES ON

"He is a good traveller, and, combining the disciplined mind of a student with the training of an army office, is well qualified to give an opinion upon what he observes. He needs of travelling has formshed him with excellent opportunities for careful observation and with scent variety of ndve, ture in the prairie. —Sominard New Bestford, Mass.

The title gives, however, an intelequate idea of the nature of the book, which contains not only descriptions of the incidents of travel, but valuable historical matter which is both repy and interesting. "Evening Past, New York. 9. THE HAND-BOOK FOR MOTH-

"Undoubtedly, Mr. Darley is the best draughtsman in the United States; and judging him by what he has here done, he can have no superior anywhere. His designs are engraved by accumpit shed artists in the best style of art, and taking these, together with his own entirely natural and unaffected description of what he saw abroad, we know of no similar production which we should be willing to recommend so unreservedly."
