

BRADLEY this week has the COLUMBIAN on the brain. I fear, how he squirms!

By reference to our exchanges we observe that it has encountered the same difficulties we did in getting out their editions last week.

PETER SHAMONSKY who was stabbed at Dark Corner a few weeks ago has quite recovered. The intended murderer has not been arrested.

At the late Democratic Convention, quite a number of light fingered gentlemen made their appearance, and carried away a number of papers in their pockets.

Our friends M. L. Veto Esq., of Ashland and J. Harry James, Esq., of Centralia were in attendance at the Irish Republican Convention held at Chicago during the past week.

On Friday of last week Patrick G. Goble of Centralia was carrying some tools from the blacksmith shop to the Breaker belonging to Robert Correll.

Those desiring a neat and healthy home in Bloomsburg can do better than to see the property offered for sale in this week's issue of the COLUMBIAN.

It is hoped that our representative in the legislature next winter will read the constitution as passed for Schuylkill county last session.

DR. SAGE'S CATARRH REMEDY is no Patent Medicine humbug gotten up to dupe the ignorant and credulous, nor is it represented as being "composed of rare and precious substances."

AN EDITOR'S VEXATION.—It has always been an ambition on our part to issue a neat, well-printed paper, and we believe that as yet we have succeeded in so doing.

IN A WAY TO DO.—The choice of the Columbia county having been non-committal for a long time, the question for each voter to consider is "How can I aid in action?"

MAUR.—Monday afternoon, says the Gazette, as Mr. B. Brockway and his son were returning from the Catawissa River, they were stopped by a party of men.

OF COURSE the mass of our readers will good humoredly "accept the situation," knowing that "accidents will happen in the best regulated families."
