

The Columbian and Democrat, Bloomsburg, Pa.

FRIDAY MORNING, SEPT. 17, 1899. THE COLUMBIAN HAS THE LARGEST CIRCULATION OF ANY PAPER PUBLISHED IN CENTRAL PENNSYLVANIA...

To the Voters of Columbia County.

The Democratic Standing Committee have made inquiry into the facts pertaining to the nomination of a Senatorial candidate by the Senatorial Conference at Northumberland...

But it is opposed in Montour county by the candidates whose names were placed in his newspaper in the place appropriate to that of a regular nominee...

The single alleged reason for opposition to our candidate, of a legal character, is the only one founded upon party laws or usages...

The Senatorial Conference.

THE CASE MADE UP AND THE ACTION OF THE MAJORITY FULLY VINDICATED.

The several papers published here with fully explained the proceedings of the late Senatorial Conference and answer in a most effective manner the misstatements of the seceding conferees...

Now it is upon the McNinch vote that the Montour candidate stands; he has no pretense for bolting the nomination for Senator except the fact that that vote was, in some way, secured for him on the 20th ballot...

From our point of view the differences of statement between the majority and minority of the Conference are not important in forming an opinion upon the general question of the nomination...

But we must say in regard to those differences that the seceders are very thoroughly contradicted. The strong weight of direct evidence and all the probabilities of the case are against them...

Meeting of the Standing Committee.

A meeting of the Standing Committee of Columbia county was held at the Chamber for Saturday last...

Upon the whole the point we make is this: That there is no such offense to the local claims of Montour in Mr. Buckalew's nomination...

BY ORDER OF THE COMMITTEE.

SENATORIAL.—It will be seen by our issue of this week, that we have placed the name of Hon. Charles R. Buckalew at our head as the Candidate for State Senate of the 15th Senatorial District...

WE MAY GO FURTHER AND SAY THAT Mr. Withington had an independent right to change his vote on the 20th ballot, a right which the Conference could not justly deprive him.

THINK OF IT, laboring men! Five years ago the close of the war, the premium on gold was 136. The greenbacks in which you are paid are worth but seventy cents on the dollar...

It is true that some legislative bodies have adopted rules which limit or regulate this right of changing a vote, but as none of their rules were adopted by the Conference it could not apply or enforce them.

Statement and Answer of Messrs. Clark and Withington, Conferees.

WE HAVE read the statement of the seceding conferees from the late Senatorial conference at Northumberland...

When the 20th ballot was reached the conferees were called in their order and the vote of Mr. Clark was given in favor of Mr. Buckalew...

A Brief View of the Senatorial Nomination.

TO ROBERT F. CLARK, ESQ., CHAIRMAN OF THE LATE SENATORIAL CONFERENCE.

SIR:—Some people have a strange perversity of mind. They are forever trying mentally to look under a corner. Whatever is fair, straight, and regular has no charm for them...
