The Werger Decision.

The decision of the Supreme Court in comment. Chief Justice Chase read an elaborate opinion to the effect that the Supreme Court of the United States has jurisdiction under the Constitution and Judiciary Act of 1789; and that the act of 1867, repealed by that of 1868, does not operate to take away the Jurisdiction of this court in the matter of habens corpus, which is among our most valuable rights, and which is guarded both by the Constitution and statute. The question of Jurisdiction is the only point decided, as it was the only point rgued. The next step is the argument upon the motion for the Issuance of the writ of habeas corpus to bring the prisoner before the Court. This will bring up the whole question of the merits of the case, involving also the validity of certain parts of the Reconstruction acts. The prisoner was once brought before Judge Hill, of the United States Distrief Court of Mississis and the instance of, or on the decision trict Court of Mississipoi, who, upon hearing the return by General Ames, remanded him. His counsel then asked Judge Hill to certify the case to the Supreme Court, which he refused to do. They now ask for both a writ of certies. rari and a writ of habeas corpus. The and the Governor with a fidelity ti has frustrated their hostility to him a exposed their evit purposes. I am, et BENJAMIN HARRIS BREWSTER military authority in the reconstructed States under the revision of the Supreme Court, and to declare virtually that the civil power has been at all times supreme in those regions and the military power subservient. It will be junction case the Court decided that it had no jurisdiction because it was a political case. In the M'Ardie case Congress cut the Covelle. Congress cut the Gordian knot by repealing the clause of the act of 1865, which conferred farisdiction on the United states District Courts in those States, and, consequently, appellate ju-states, and, consequently, appellate ju-station on the Supreme Court. But I wrote to you and you replied the cides that it has jurisdiction, notwith-standing such repeal. Chief Justice Chase de ivered the opinion of the Court while Justice Swayne delivered a disnow the Supreme Court virtually desenting opinion, in which Justice Miller concurred. The vote stood 6 to 2

The Treasury Department is just now exercised over the fact that it has received over the fact that it has received over ninety thousand dollars' worth of counterfeit bonds. These bonds were stricken off from the plates in government possession. How many thousands or millions there may be in the hands of the people, bought and paid for as genuine, no one can say. THE CONTESTED ELECTION CASE IN PHILADELPHIA.—On Saturday last the decision in the contested election case in Philadelphia was rendered. Judges Allison, Ludlow, Pierce and Brewster were present. The news that the decision was to be rendered caused much excitement and a large crowd of spectators had collected. At noon every inch of space in the courtroom was occupied and it was all the tipstayes could cupied and it was all the tipstaves could do to preserve order. About twelve

No sooner had Geary been declared elected than he devised means to drive from Harrisburg, the only honest and upright official there, his Attorney General. We have not space to give all the facts as published in the daily papers, but enough to bear out our frequent assertion that he is a constant liar, and that he holds no pledge sacred. He has lied to M'Clure, to Lowry, in fact to all treatment, or receive it as the price of lied to M'Clure, to Lowry, in fact to all his prominent supporters, and as we have shown, lied to our people in referenc. to the Orangeville School. OFFICE OF THE ATTOENEY GEN'RL. PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 23, 1869. To Gen. John W. Geary, Governor of Penn

SIR:—Yesterday Mr. Harmer handed to me your letter of the 21st of October. It requires my resignation "immedi-ately and without delay," and assigns no cause for the request. It is a peremp-tory demand most nousual among gen-tlemen, and uncalled for in this partic-o'clock Judge Brewster, on behalf of the majority of the court, proceeded to read the opinion.

By the decision of the court, the following Democratic office holders were thrown out of office on account of frauds at the election one year ago: District Attorney Sheppard; City Solicitor Barger; Prothonotary Fietcher; Receiver of Taxes Melloy; City Commissioner Weaver; City Controller Getz.

By this decision all the county Democratic officers are thrown out except Mayor Fox. The result of the count gives Mayor Fox a majority of 68. All the Republicans are declared elected.

Ind put an afform on the court for the service I had rendered thanked me for the service I had rendered your personal and official confidence in me and left me, making arrangements with me for an important official duty to be performed with you. the Republicans are declared elected.

Judge Ludiow delivered a dissenting opinion, holding that no court, except one, had ever thrown out the votes of honest voters, where it resulted in the exclusion of the candidates returned as elected.

There is much excitement in Philadelphia over the decision.—Exchange.

The New York World gives the following among its political items:

The total vote for State Senator in the Fifteenth Senatorial District of Pennsylvania was—Ex-United States Senator Buckalew (Democrat), $2,200; Whitmoyer (Republicao) 6,493; Chalfant (bolting Democrat), 2, 093.

OLD COLLEGE EASTON, Pa. October 16th 1869. Mr. Editor,

DEAR SIE:-A match game of Base Ball was played on Saturday the 15th, between the first nine of the "Lehigh University," Bethlehem, and the first nine of "Lafayette College" Easton,on the grounds of the latter. The game was : cery exciting one; the game was tied on the ninth inning, both sides in having made forty-five runs. The game would most probably have ended in favor of the Lafayette Club, had it not been for the breaking of a bat on the eighth is ning putting the third man out, darkness prevented the playing of anther inning. Over five hundred persons witnessed the game.
