The accusation on which Mr. Chapin was tried appears almost farcical up on its face; but slight and frivolous a it was, it was found to be unjust and false. Besides, it was either concocted some time after his arrest or made to take the place of more material matters of accusation which could not be sus tained. It was first heard of, or produced in a formal manner, when Col.

Albright came upon his expedition as an evidence hunter toward the end of September, but other matters of accusation, or a different form of the same accusation, would seem to have been bruited about before. We have heard that a bill or voucher of Mr. C's for "2 ibs. of lead," was read or reported as "2 bbls, of lead;" the clear inference being that he was engaged in procuring or furnishing supplies for the so-called "insurrection." Bere Robbery.

WE all remember with what a flourish of trumpets and shout of self-lauda tion the Republican party of this State in 1866, announced the abolishment of the tax on real estate, and how they claimed the united support of the citi-sens for so noble an alleviation of the public woes. The better informed Democrats of the State were loath to believe in the honesty of this act, and did not accept it as a proof of willingness on the part of the Republicans to minister to the public good, or as an evidence of the prosperity of the State finances under their management. In other words, it was believed that there was a very large nigger in the wood pile of the Commonwealth. And behold ! these surmises have proved correct. Experdone away with, was necessary to meet the expenses of the extravagant admin-istration, and therefore, rather than ac-knowledge their blunder, the Sinking Fund was made to supply the desired amount. In the recent examination, in Harrisburg, of the administration of the State Treasurership, it was given in testimony that the Sinking Fund had been robbed of a million and a half of dollars, and that the State Treasury was bankrupt. That Is, the money which the Constitution provides shall be used to pay the State debt, had been diverted from its proper purpose and used to fill up the hole in the revenue, made by the stupid, blundering financial policy inaugurated by the Republicans as a catch-penny dodge to ensnare unthinking voters. Here's a fine commentary on Radical financiering to be sure; and now the people will have the satisfaction of knowing that, to bring the State back to the condition in which it was in the spring of 1866, they will have to pay a million and a half of A Spectacle.

Mr. Octoroon Revels "spoke a piece" the other day, in the U. S. Senate ; and "Mr. Morton followed, congratulating Senator Revels upon the fact that he had so well vindicated the ability and intelligence of his race and the country,

Mr. Morton said that in exchanging Jeff Davis for Mr. Revels the country had lost nothing in ability, and gained much in patriotism and loyalty." Wherein Senator Morton told a palpable, unmitigated and deliberate fals hood. As to ability, neither Revels nor Morton, nor both together equal Jefferson Davis; and as to patriotism, there is little or no difference, except as to manliness, and there Davis has the ad-

Mr. Collector Balley.

Another pet of the administration has come to grief. J. F. Bailey, collector of Internal Revenue for the Thirty-second District of New York, who has rendered himself notorious by the vigor of his prosecutions of alleged Governmental defrauders, has defaulted and absconded, indebted to the Government to the extent of, it is supposed $200,000. His bond which is signed by some of the wealthiest men in New York, will reduce the actual public loss $100,000. Mr. Bailey is reported to have said not long since, that "he did not desire money but rather the name of an honest public official" or words of that import. He is one of the class of hypocritical scoundrels who are constantly being exposed and who cloak their nefarious schemes under the garb of patriotic devotion to the interests of th Nation. Investigations show that Bailey's defaications began when he was collector of the Fourth District in 1867, and that his subsequent transactions have been made to cover losses incurred then. Nothing is known of his whereabouts, but diligent search is being made and, he may be caught,--and per haps sent south to carpet-bag it for the United States Senate. In the meanwhile Bailoy greatly distresses his bailces.
