

FARMER'S COLUMN.

To See Down a Well.

A New Hampshire Journal of Agriculture suggests an excellent plan for exploring the bottom of a well...

Value of Hen Manure.

The best method of using an article so strong in ammonia as this is by aid of compost.

A Maryland farmer recently tried two experiments. The first was an application of a certain amount of pure manure to 90 hills of corn.

The produce of the latter was twice as good in proportion to the former, and 50 per cent. better than from Peruvian guano.

Frequent experiments demonstrate the fact so plainly that a load of barnyard manure mixed and fermented with an equal quantity of muck, loses none of its value for fertilizing purposes...

Valuable Table of Dry Measure.

A box 16 by 24 inches square, and 28 inches deep, will contain one barrel. A box 16 by 24 inches square, and 14 inches deep, will contain a half-barrel.

Onions for Poultry.

It is a well known fact to the owners of poultry that the occasional use of onions, mixed and fed to poultry with their other food, is one of the best ways of keeping a yard of poultry in health.

BETTER SOIL EXHAUSTERS.

The Utica Herald says no valid objection can be raised to this crop on the score of its exhausting the soil.

THE YOUNG FOLKS.

A Tale of One Who Traveled to Learn What Shivering Meant.

The second night he went up again into the castle, and sitting down to the fire, began his old song, "If I could but shiver!"

THE KIDNEYS.

The Kidneys are two in number, situated at the upper part of the loins, surrounded by fat, and consisting of three parts, viz: the Anterior, the Interior, and the Exterior.

The anterior, interior, consists of the ureters and vessels, which serve as a deposit for the urine and convey it to the exterior.

The bladder is composed of various coverings or tissues, divided into parts, viz: the Upper, the Lower, the Nervous, and the Muscular.

To cure these affections, we must bring into action the muscles, which are engaged in their various functions.

The reader must also be made aware, that however slight may be the attack, it is sure to affect the bodily health and mental powers.

THE GRAVEL.—The gravel consists of small or improper treatment of the kidneys. These organs being weak, the water is not expelled from the bladder, but allowed to remain.

It becomes feverish, and sediment forms. It is from this deposit that the stone is formed, and gravel causes.

HOW TO CURE CONSUMPTION.

THE PHILOSOPHY OF DR. SCHEENK'S GREAT MEDICINE—Will people never learn to know that a diseased liver and stomach necessarily render the curative system...

It may be asked by those who are not familiar with the nature of this medicine, "What is the effect of SCHEENK'S medicine?"

It is a well known fact that a diseased liver and stomach necessarily render the curative system of medicine almost entirely unavailing.
