The Needle Gun.

A writer in the Chicago Tribune gives this description of the Prussian needle gun, which will probably play an important part in the coming battles of Europe.

Josh Billings on Laffin.

Laffin is strictly an amusement, although some folks make a business of it. It has been considered an index of character and there is some close reasoning that they can tell what a man had for dinner by seeing him laff.

New Game.

Out on the Pacific Railroad, the other day, a Kickapoo Indian saw a locomotive coming down the track toward him at the rate of forty miles an hour.

Ala! That Kind.

Among the stories told of General Thomas, is one of an incident which occurred when he and his chief of staff, General Garfield, were inspecting the fortifications of Chattanooga, in 1863.

How to Make a Scrap Book.

It is a very pleasant occupation for children, and sometimes for larger children to make scrap books; and this is the way to do it.

Important Dates.

The following will refresh the minds of our readers as to the dates of the most important inventions, discoveries and improvements, the advantages of which we now enjoy:

Violins invented, 1477. Pumps invented, 1425. Paper first made of rags, 1417.

THE EFFEMINATE MAN.

We do not mean any particular man by inserting the following from Josh Billings: "The effeminate man is a weak poltroon."

A JAPANESE HOUSE.

A JAPANESE house is a convenient house in many respects. It consists at first of one entire apartment, then movable or permanent screens are placed in position or thin walls put up, so as to divide the house into such rooms as the owner may wish.

KNOWLEDGE IS POWER.

KNOWLEDGE IS POWER. The fact that knowledge is power, is very happily illustrated by an anecdote that happened in Edinburgh some few years ago.

THE COLORED PEOPLE DOWN IN DELAWARE.

THE colored people down in Delaware have gotten into such a habit of stealing rails that the farmers have begun to bring their fences in at night.

A GENTLEMAN IN NEW ORLEANS.

A GENTLEMAN in New Orleans was greatly surprised the other day to find a plump turkey served up for dinner, and enquired of his servant how it was obtained.

A BOY'S IDEA OF HAVING A TOOTH DRAWN.

A BOY'S idea of having a tooth drawn may be summed up as follows: "The doctor hatched fast on me, pulled his best, and just before it killed me the tooth came out."
