To Make Cider. Pick all the apples, rejecting those that are green, and afterwards let them lie and get dry. Grind and press them, using no water or straw, or any substance that will give the cider an unpleasant taste...

The Musicians of Bremen. A certain man had a Donkey, which had served him faithfully for many long years, but whose strength was so far gone that at last it was quite unfit for work...

The Kidneys are two in number, situated at the upper part of the loins, surrounded by fat, and consisting of three parts, viz: the Anterior, the Interior, and the Exterior.

Most any good sour apple will make cider, but more generally an apple full of juice, and not very good to eat, will make the best.

How can one be merry when one's neck has been pinched like mine? answered the Cat. "Because I am growing old, and my teeth are all worn to stumps, and because I would rather sit by the fire and spin, than run after mice, my mistress wanted to drown me; and so I ran away. But now good advice is dear, and I do not know what to do."

THE GRAVEL. The gravel ensues from neglect or improper treatment of the kidneys. These organs being weak, the water is not expelled from the bladder, but allowed to remain; it becomes feverish, and sediment forms.

At New Hampton with Central R. R. of N. Y. The Mail and Express trains eastward and westward leave New Hampton as follows:
