The Columbian

S PUBLISHED EVERY FRIDAY MORNING IN THE COLUMBIAN BUILDING NEARTHE COURT HOUSE, BY

HENRY L. DIEFFENBACH, EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR.

Terms -- Two Dollars a Year payable in advance

CIRCULATION 2500. JOB PRINTING tall descriptions executed with neatness and dispatch at reasonable rates.

Columbia County Official Directory. President Judge-William Elweil. othenotory, dec.—Wellington H. Engpotage & Recorder—Williamson H. Jacony, tried Alternage—E. R. Inklem.
The Mondrey—E. R. Inklem.
Teggor—Hand Dewinderno,
Teggor—Hand Dewinderno,
Tessurer—David Lowenbergo,
Tessurer—David Lowenbergo,
The Mondrey—William G. Quick, Cyrus Thins, Hiram J. Reeder.
The Mondrey Corp.—William Krickbaum,
Teller—U. J. Campbell, A. J. Albertson,
Teller—U. J. Campbell, A. J. Albertson,
Teller—U. J. Campbell, A. J. Albertson,

SHELLER.
WORST. JOHN D. HOUCK.
WORST. JOHN D Bloomsburg Official Directory.

Bloomsburg Directory.

STOVES AND TINWARE, M. RUPERT, dealer in stoves & tinware, Rupert block, Main st, west of Market, vi-ns ACOB METZ, dealer in stoves and tinware Main street, above court house. vi-n43 CLOTHING, &c.

AVID LOWENBERG, Merchant Tailor, Main M. MORRIS, Merchant Tailor corner of Cen-tre and Main st., over Miller's store. vs-ns

DRUGS, CHEMICALS, &c. P. LUTZ, Druggist and Apothecary, Main st OYER BROS., Druggists and Apothecaries Brower's block Main st, vi-ns

CLOCKS, WATCHES, &C. ENRY ZUPPINGER, Watches, Spectacles & D. CATHCART, Watch and Clock Maker, Mar.

BOOTS AND SHOES.

ENRY KLEIM, Manufacturer and dealer in Roots and Shoes, Groceries, etc., Main street, vi-us

PROFESSIONAL.

. H. C. HOWER, Surgeon Dentist, Main st., above the Court House. vi-ng . WM. M. REBER, Surgeon and Physician, rehange Block over Webb's book store v3-u28 R. B. F. KINNEY, Surgeon Dentist,—Teeth extracted without pain: Main st., nearly op-ite Episcopal Church, vi-ne R. JKELER, Attorney-at-Law, Office, 2d floor in Exchange Block, near the "Exchange el," B. McKELVY, M. D., Surgeon and Physician-R. EVANS, M. D., Surgeon and Physician, south side Main street, below Market, vI-n& C. RUTTER, M. D. Surgeon and Physician Market street, above Main. Vi-nel B. ROBISON, Attorney-at-Law, Office Hart-man's building, Main street. v2-n2 HLLINERY & FANCY GOODS. PETERMAN, Millinery and Fancy Goods, opposite Episcopal Church, Main st, vi-nis S M. DERRICKSON, Millinery and Fane, bods, Main st., below Market. vi-ne E. KLINE, Millinery and Fancy Goods, in street below Market, VI-n4* S. JULIA A. & SADE BARKLEY, Ladies loaks and Dress Patterns, southeast come and West sts. VI-ns HE MISSES HARMAN Millinery and Faucy woods, Main st., below American House, vin41

HOTELS AND SALOONS.

ORKS HOTEL, by T. Bent. Taylor, east end of Main street. IDMYER & JACOBY, Confectionery, Bakery and Oyster Saloon, wholesale and retail. Ex-age Block, Main street. vi-n43

FERCHANTS AND GROCERS.

C. MARR, Dry Goods and Notions, south-west corner Main and Iron sis. vi-ne

JACOBS, Confectionery, groceries etc., Main st., below Iron vi-48

GIRTON, Groceries & Provisions, Main treet below Market. vi-nss EYER, Groceries and General Merchan-se. Main st., above West. RELVY, NEAL & CO., dealers in Dry Goods, Grozeries, Flour, Feed, Salt, Fish, Iron, Nails, N. E. cor, Main and Market ets. vi-ne

d. MILLER & SON, dealer in Dry Goods froceries, Queensware, Flour, Balt, Shoes ons, etc., Exchange Block, Mainst. vi-na MISCELLANEOUS.

ITMAN, Marble Works, one door below ost Office, Main Street. vi-nil STER, Glue Maker, and White and Fancy abor, Scottown.

The Columbian.

VOLUME IV --- NO 46.

BLOOMSBURG, PA., FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 18, 1870.

327 NORTH THIRD STREET, R. D. CUMMINGS, PROPRIETOR. ESTABLISHED 1793.

JORDAN & BROTHER, Wholesale Grocers, and Dealers in SALTPETRE AND BRIMSTONE No 249 North Third St.

Philadelphia Directory.

EAGLE HOTEL

W. S. KING. J. B. SEYRER HORNE, KING & SEYBERT, WHOLESALE DRY GOODS. No. 421 Market Street PHILADELPHIA. Orders filled promptly at lowest prices.

January 3, 1868. H. W. RANK'S
WHOLESALE TOBACCO, SNUFF, AND No. 146 North Third Street,

Between Cherry and Bace, west sid Philadelphia. PRANK & STRETCH, (Successors to I. H. Walter.)

Importers and Dealers in QUEENSWARE, CHINA, AND GLASS, No. 234 N. Third Street, Between Race and Vine Sts. PHILADELPHIA. S. FRANK, C. B. STRETCH, I. H. WALTER. Special Partners.

I M. KEPHEART, BARNES, BRO. & HERRON, HATS, CAPS, STRAW GOODS & FURS, No. 503 Market Street,

(Above Fifth,) PHILADELPHIA. OHN STROUP & CO., Successors to Stroup & Brother, WHOLESALE DEALERS IN FISH,

o. 24 North Wharves and 25 North Third Philadelphia. RICHARDSON L. WRIGHT, JR. ATTORNEY AT LAW, NO. 128 SOUTH SIXTH STREET.

PHOLADELPHI . WILLIAM FISHER THOMAS CARSON & CO PETER ENT, dealer in Dry Goods Groceries Flour, Feed, Sait, Fish, Iron, Nails, etc., Main Vinti

DEALERS IN HOSIERY, MEN'S FURNISHING GOODS, LINENS & NOTIONS NO. 18 NORTH FOURTH STREET Philadelphia. WAINWRIGHT & CO.,

WHOLESALE GROCERS. N. E. Corner Second and Arch Streets, PHILADELPHIA. EAS, SYRUPS, COFFEE, SUGAR, MOL

Orders will receive prompt attention.
may 10,67-tf.

Ashland, Schuylkill County Pa

C. W. MILLER,

E. H. LITTLE,

ROBERT F. CLARK,

RICE, SPICES, BY CARD SODA, &C., &C.

ATTORNEY AT LAW,

ATTORNEY AT LAW.

ATTORNEY AT LAW,

BLOOMSBURG, PA.

OFFICE—Court House Alley, in the Countries building. [Jan4, 67.

WALL PAPER, WINDOW SHADES,

FINTURES, CORDS, TASSEIS, and all other goods in his line of business. A the newest and most approved patterns of the day are always to be found in his establishmen mar.5, 69-11

HARNESS, SADDLE, AND TRUNK

MANUFACTURER,

CARPET-BAGS, VALUES, FLY-NETS

BUFFALO ROBES, ROBSE-BLANKETS &C.,

DOWDER KEGS AND LUMBER

W. M. MONROE & CO.,

POWDER KEGS,

LUMBER

give notice that they are prepared to accommodate ever brought to this place. He is also prepare to make Boots and shoes to order in the lates and best styles. For each only. In the old Pos Office building, corner Main and Market Strees Hoomsburg, 5s.

BOOTS AND SHOES

LETTER HEADS,

BILL HEADS,

Neatly and Cheaply Printed

250,000 PRIME BRICK

FOR SALE AT ESPY.

WIDMYER & JACOBY
EXCHANGE BLOCK, BLOOMSBURG, PA.
are agents for the sale of "Brockway's" justly celebrated Gream and old stock Alea, when they will sell as cheap as country braved alea; whol

From the Latest Styles of Type at the

PROGRAMMES, POSTERS,

TOLUMBIAN OFFICE

R. J. MILLARD, Espy.

OR T. H. MILLER, Lime Ridge.

BUSINESS CARDS,

CHESTER S. FURMAN,

Business Cards. M. G. & W. H. SHOEMAKER, dealers in dry goods, groceries and general merchandise first store in south end of town. v2-ni M. L'VELLE,

THE ESPY HOTEL. ESPY, COLUMBIA COUNTY, PA. The undersigned would inform the travelling ubile that he has taken the above named establishment and thoroughly refitted the same for the same to the stocked with the best the market affords, he choicest liquid, wines and eigars always to be found in his bar.

WILLIAM PETTIT

Apr.23,69-tf

BRICK HOTEL,

ROHR M'HENRY, Proprietor. This well known House, having been put in horough repair, is now open to the travelling ubile. The bar is stocked with the choicest quors and cigars, and the table will be, at all mes, supplied with the delicacies of the season. O pains will be spared to insure the comfort of nests.

Orangeville, dec, 10, 69-1f. MONTOUR HOUSE RUPERT.

This House having been put in therough repairs now open for the reception of guests. No pains will be spared to canure the perfect comfort of the travelers. The Proprietor solicits share of public patronage. The bar will be stocked at all times with fine liquors and cigars maril 70-tf.

W. F. PIATT, Proprietor,

BENTON, COLUMBIA COUNTY, PA.

Main Street one door above E. Mendenhall' Rore. A large assortment of Stoves, Heaters and danges constantly on hand, and for sale at the A large assortment of Stoves, Heaters and Ranges constantly on hand, and for sale at the lowest rates. Tinning in all its branches carefully attended to, and satisfaction guaranteed. Tin work of all kinds wholesale and retail. A fall's requested.

MAIN STREET, BLOOMSBURG.

of all kinds, Stovepipes, Tinware and every va-riety of article found in a Stove and Tinware Es-tablishment is the cities, and on the most reason-able terms. Repairing done at the shortest notice, 2: DOZEN MILK-PANS

ROOTS AND SHOES,

A full and complete assortment of ready mad boots and shoes for men, women and childre i nat received and for sale at reasonable rate Varieties to suit all classes of customers. Th best of work done at short notice, as herelofore Give him a call. [apr870-14.

LADIES' FANCY FURS!

PHILADELPHIA.

FANCY FURS OR LADIES' AND GENTLEMEN'S WEAT

Parewell! farewell! is often heard But it springs not from the heart. It may serve for the lover's lay, To be sung 'neath a summer's sky; But give me the lips that say The honest words, "Good-bye,"

Adien! adieu! may greet the ear In the guine of courtly speech; But when we leave the kind and dear, 'Tis not what the soul would teach, Whene'er we grasp the hands of those We would have forever nigh, The flame of friendship burns and glows In the warm frank words, "Good-bye!"

The mother sends forth her child

And the world a passing dream :

out the deepest sob of anguish gives, God bless thee, boy! "Good-bye." Go, watch the pale and dying one,

And the latest pressure of the hand, The look of the closing eye, Yield what the heart must understand— A long, a last "Good-bye!"

A bright little boy with laughing face, Whose every motion was full of grace; Who knew no trouble, and feared no care, Was the light of our household—the younge

He went to one whom he thought more wise Than any other beneath the skies : Mother"-O word that makes the home!-"Tell me, when will to-morrow come?," "It is almost night," the mother said;
"And time for my boy to be in bed; When you wake up and it's day again. It will be to-morrow, my darling, then. The little boy slept through all the night, ut woke with the first red streaks of light; He pressed a kiss on his mother's brow, And whispered, "Is it to-morrow now?"

"No, little Eddie, this is to-day; Fo-morrow is always one night away :" He pondered awhile, but joys came fast, And the vexing question quickly passed. But it came again with the shades of night; "Will it be to-morrow when it is light?" From years to come he seemed care to borrow He tried so hard to catch to-morrow

"You cannot catch it, my little Ned; Enjoy to-day," the mother said; Some walt for to-morrow through many year,— It always is coming, but never is here.'

Miscellaneous.

THE MILLER'S MAID.

The parish of New Abbey, in Kircudbright, derives its name from a Cistercian Abbey founded in the beginning of the 13th century by Devorgilds, Devorgilla, or Donorguilla (for the name is very variously spelled), daughter of Allen, Lord of Galloway; wife to Lord Baliol, Lord of Castle Bernard, and mother to John Baliol, King of

The abbey was at first called the Abbey of Sweetheart, from the heart of the husband of the fair founder having been embalmed and placed in an ivory box bound with silver, which was built into the walls of the church near the altar. But the name was afterwards al-

ATTORNEY AT LAW. tered to that of "New Abbey." The remains of the abbey exhibit the relies of a beautiful lofty building of the light Gothic style of architecture. ATTORNEY AT LAW, Its church is one hundred and ninety-Office Main Street below the Court Hou Bloomsburg Penn'a. four feet long, one hundred and two feet broad at the cross, and sixty-six at the ends, with a tower upwards of ninety feet high. This structure stands in the middle of a fine level field of about twenty acres, called the Precinct, enclosed by a stone wall eight or ten feet high, built of granite stone of great size. Some of them, even near the top of the wall, seem to be no less than a ton weight.

There used to be, if there is not at the present day, a lonely mill close by E. J. THORNTON burg and vicinity, that he has just received a full and complete assortment of the little picturesque monastery of Sweetheart's Abbey; and this lonely mill is said to have been the scene of the following story, which, whether it be regarded as an instance of presence of mind in a female, or as a special interposition of Providence, is equally emarkable and worthy of attention : It was on a Sunday morning, "ages long ago," that the miller of this mill and his whole family went forth to hear the holy mass, at the church attached to Sweetheart's Abbey.

The mill-which was also the resiwhich he feels confident he can sell at lower are than any other person in the county. Exmine for yourselves.

Shop third door below the Court House, Main River, Bloomsburg, Pa.

Au infant child, of an age unfit for dence-was left in charge of a servant An infant child, of an age unfit for church, was left in her charge likewise.

The girl was busily employed in preenter but an old sweetheart of hers, named Rerrick Lochdee. Rerrick was an idle, graceless fellow, whom the better, because others gave him no the great drum wheel, countenance. She was glad to see him heir custom with dispatch, and on the cheapast and she told him so, and gave him something to eat, and gossipped with rotation. Having purchased the stock of the old Key-stone Store Store, and added thereto a large and well selected new stock is prepared to exhibihim as he despatched the food she set before him. As he ate, however, he let fall his knife.

"Pick up that, my lass," said he, in joking way to the good-natured girl. She stooped down accordingly to pick ip the knife.

As she was in the act of rising, however, the treacherous villain caught her by the nape of the neck, and gripping her throat firmly with his fingers to prevent her screaming the while, drew dagger from under his coat. "Now, lass," he said, swearing as he spoke, "where is your master's money? I will have that or your life, so take your choice."

She implored him not to make such a horrible resolution; but "Master's failed him, and he heard no more. money or your life, lass," was all he would say. "Well, well, Rerrick," said she, re signedly, what is to be must be; but if you take the money, I will even go along with you. This will be no home for me any more. But ease your grip of my neck a little-don't squeeze so hard attracted their attention, and they has I can't move you hug me so tight. tened home from church to ascertain Besides time presses, and if it be done | the cause. at all it must be done quickly, for the ly let go his hold. "Come!" she said, "quick! quick!no delay. The money is in the master's bed room." She led the way into her master's which his money was concealed. 'Here,' of the town executioner, she said, reaching him an axe, "this will wrench it open at once, and I shall | bride. just step up to my own apartment and get a few things ready for our flight." "Go, lass," he said, "but be not long." She disappeared at the words.

He immediately broke open the chest and began rummaging the contents. While he was thus employed, the brave hearted girl stole down the stairs on tiptoe, and creeping softly along the passage reached the door of the chamber unseen by him, and likewise un heard, securely fastening the door. This done, she rushed forth to the outer door of the mill and gave the "Fly! fly!" she shricked to the child her master's little boy. "Fly to father. Fly on your life! Tell him we shall all be murdered, and he haste not back.

The child at once obeyed the command of the girl, and sped as fast as his legs could carry him on the road by which he knew his parents would return from church. Jenny sat down on the stone bench by the mill door to case her over-excited that a great majority of mankind are A shrill whistle from the grated window of the chamber in which she had shut up the rufflan Rerrick, reached her as changeable as a chameleon, "Robbin! Robbin!" she heard him shout, "catch the child and come hither. I am fast. Come hither! Bring the child here, and kill the girl." Jenny thought to herself that this alarm was a false one, but just as the child reached a hollow in the next field -the channel of a natural drain-she saw another ruffian start up, and catching him in his arms, hastened towards the mill in accordance with the directions of his accomplice.

Retreating into the mill, she double ocked and bolted the door, and then took her post at an upper casement. She searcely had time to secure herself within, when the ruffian from without, holding the helpless child in one hand, and a long sharp knife in the other, assailed the door with kicks acter. "Confound thee," he cried, "open the door or I'll break it on ye." "If you can, you may," was all the girFreplied.

imprisoned rufflan from above. "That will bring her to reason." "An ye open not the door," shouted this whelp's limbs to pieces with my knile, and then burn the mill on your "I put my trust in God," replied the

The ruffian laid the infant for a mo ment on the sward, and searching about for combustibles, espied the only possible entrance to the building.

It was a large aperture in the wall communicating with the great wheel and the other machinery of the mill, and was a point entirely unprotected, because it was never supposed by the simple occupants that any one would ever seek admission through such a dangerous inlet.

By this the rufflan hoped to effect an

In the meanwhile her mind was bus led with a thousand cogitations.

Suddenly a thought struck her. seen afar off. And bappily my master and some of his neighbors, wondering at the sight, may hasten home to learn the cause. A lucky thought," she ex-

No sooner said than done. her to set the machinery in motion. A brisk breeze which sprung up nce set the sails flying.

action-the mill was in full operation. At this very instant the rufflan Robin had succeeded in squeezing himself miller had forbade the house; but through the aperture in the wall, and whom Jennie only liked, perhaps the getting safely lodged in the interior of

His dismay was indiscribable when he began to be whirled about with its shricks were truly fearful-his curses were horrible to hear. Jenny hastened to the spot, and saw him caught like a reptile, that he was, in his own trap.

It need not be added that she did not liberate him. She knew that he would be more frightened than hurt if he kept within with its steady, unceasing motion; and round and round went the ruffian along with it, steadily and unceasingly too. Muttering curses he was whirled round and round in the untiring wheel until at last feeling and perception A loud knock at the door was shortly

It was her master and his family, ac companied by several of his neighbors. The unaccustomed appearance of the mill-sails in full swing on Sunday had

Jenny, in a few words told all. The machinery of the mill was at

COL. DEM. - - · VOL. XXXIV - · NO. 39. The ruffian relaxed his grip, and final- once stopped, and the inanimate ruf- Theatres and Balls in German fian dragged forth from the great wheel. The other ruffian was brought down from his prison. to the royal borough of Kircudbright, bed-room and pointed out the coffer in and in due time came under the hands > with a passion previously unrequited. They lived henceforth happily together for many years, and died at a hearted Jenny would shudder as she told the tale of her danger and of her themselves as others may see them." Many long and dreary years in the publishing business have forced the conviction upon us that newspaper patronage is a word of many definitions, and or a little before, till the end of Lent, either ignorant of the correct definition

One man comes in subscribes for a paper, pays for it in advance, and goes home and reads it with proud satisfaction that it is his. He hands in his advertisement, and he reaps the advantage thereof. This is patronage. Another man asks you to send him the paper, and goes off without saying to make their selection. All introduca word about the pay. Time passes on, you are in need of money and ask him to pay the sum he owes you. He flies into a passion, perhaps pays, perhaps not, and orders his paper stopped. This is called patronage.

One man brings in a fifty cent advertisement and wants a two dollar puff goes off mad. Even this is called pat-be called newspaper patronage. One man likes your paper; he takes a copy, and pays for it, and get his friends bling to you or others, but has a friend-the villain from without. "Pil hack pay for the papers, he looks surprised: mention frei tour, when the ladies run ameliorated as far as possible. Hardly You surely don't take pay for such about and ask the gentlemen. They, a single person in Prussia escap paper patronage One (it is good to see such) comes in > is newspaper patronage. It will be seen by the above that

Day and Night in Sweden. down at all. The steamboat goes up from Stockholm for the purpose of con- ones exhibit a curious variety of toilveying those who are curious to witness ettes. I remember at a ball, given to the phenomenon. It occurs only one the Sovereign Prince, seeing one old night. The sun reaches the horizon- lady with her head bound up in a strip you can see the whole face of it, and in of flannel, without even a cap or a five minutes more it begins to rise. At | handkerchief to veil it. The Prince the North Cape, latitude seventy-two came up and paid his compliments as degrees, the sun does not go down for gravely, and the old lady's daughter everal weeks. In June it would be danced as much, as if her mother's about twenty-five degrees above the head-dress had been velvet and diahorizon at midnight. In the winter the monds-so it made no difference to any sun disappears, and is not seen for one. weeks; then it comes and remains for ten or fifteen minutes, after which It descends, and finally does not set at all, but almost makes a circle around the hard study is the unhealthy element

Mechanics' Wives.

It is in the middle rank of life where ve behold woman in all her glory-not ters should make the best wives in the

Rs. $2.00.

RATES OF ADVERTISING.

Executor's or Administrator's Notice, $3.00. Auditor's or Assignee's Notice, $2.50.

Local notices, twenty cents a line; by the year Cards in the "Business Directory" column, $2,00 per year for the first two lines, and $1.00 for each additional line.

Man loves the mysterious. A cloudless sky, the full blown rose, leaves him unmoved, but the violet which hides its blushing beauties behind the bush, and the moon when she emerges from Every one goes to it; the gentry, and behind a cloud, are to him sources of even the middling shopkeepers have inspiration and pleasure. Modesty is their boxes, or at least a season ticket to merit what shade is to figure in in the stalls. The students fill the pit, painting-it gives it boldness and promand are let in at half price, The officers | inence. Nothing adds more to female have the first two rows in the stalls, and beauty than modesty; it sheds around pay about four pence; the common the countenance a halo of light, which is borrowed from virtue. Botanists The doors open at half-past five, and it have given the rosy hue which tinger is all over before nine. You walk in, the cup of the white rose the name of hang up your mufflers at the back of "maiden blush." This pure and deliyour box, and your maid comes and cate hue is the only paint Christian virprovides you with the lantern. The gins should use; it is the richest ornservants collect in the vestibule about ment. A woman without modesty is eight, and have a nice gossip while like a faded flower diffusing an unwaiting for their young ladies, who go wholesome odor, which the prudent habitually without a chaperon. Non- gardener will throw from him. Her subscribers pay one and two pence in destiny is melancholy, for it terminates the best places, the centre-box being in shame and repentance. Beauty pass-reserved for them; and if, when you es like the flowers of the albo, which have bought your tickets, the weather or blooms and dies in a few hours; but any unforeseen circumstance prevents modesty gives the female charms which your going, the good-natured old box- supply the place of the transitory keeper will give you back your money; treshness of youth.

> The old man was toiling through the burden and heat of the day, in cultivating his own land, and depositing the promising seed in the fruitful lap of yielding earth. Suddenly there stood before him, under the shade of a huge linden tree, a vision. The old man was struck with amazement.

"I am Solomon," spoke the phantom, in a friendly voice. "What are you ioing here, old man?"

latest, and they must wait to shut up shop. The girls seldom sit down, that this? In my youth you sent me to the would crush their draperies, but stand ant? I saw its occupation, and learned from that insect to be industrious and while the gentlemen walk up and down to gather. What I then learned I have followed out to this hour."

"You have only learned half your lesson," replied the spirit. "Go again to the ant and learn to rest in the winter of your life, and enjoy what you THE women of Prussia are said to be refuse unless she be already engaged. Beiween the dances the girls walk about with each other, and the gentlethrown in, and when you decline, he men hover around. If a girl dance care of the wounded as the men are for well she is sure of partners, be she ever The dancing begins with a polonaise, in which all, old and young, take a the London Economist, is diligently part. It is nothing but a stately march and efficiently performed. So thorough through the ball and supper rooms and is said to be the organization that the passages, and is led by the highest per- societies know where to turn for lint on present. At half-past nine o'clock and every kind of store in any requisite to do the same; he is not always grum- every one stops for supper. You order quantity that may be of service to the what you like, from a cup of coffee to a wounded; the system being nearly as ly word. If an accident occurs in his regular hot meal, soup and all, just effective for utilizing the resources of paying for what you have. Economical the country as those of the active army. people, who live near, go home for sup- Again, there are numerous societies for per. This pause lasts about an hour, assisting families whose heads are called notice, and asks for extra copies con- then the cotillion begins, and by twelve into the field, and the calamities incitaining it; and when you ask him to o'clock all is over. I must not forget to dent to a compulsory draft are thus modest lambs, crowd up into the corn- doing something toward sustaining the ers, but the girls ferret them out. It is burden of the war, and it is this scienrather amusing to watch the skirmish tific adjustment which has made possigirl. "Never shall ye set foot within and says: "The year for which I paid for a favorite partner, who must dance ble the concentrated effort whose pro-> once and then drops her wherever sha happened to pick him up, makes a bow in Russia are very anxious to marry are other kinds more fatal to its health posedly to work, have made up their under the maternal eye until given to will not notice any one else; other are own course. Almost as soon as a glid is in a flurry, get pushed about in the born in the better ranks of society her ance they meet. These frei lours are must have when she goes to her hushead of Bothnia, where on the 21st of dies dress well at these batts; a great acc, the business being in the hands of June, the sun does not appear to go deal can be done with white muslin a broker or notary. The trousseau is exposed in public before the wedding

HOLD ON .- Hold on to your tongue when you are just ready to swear, lie, or speak harshly, or use an Improper about to strike, pinch, steal, or do any improper act. Hold on to your temper when you or others angry about you. Hold on to your heart when evil aseclates seek your company, and invite you to join in their mirth and revelry. Hold on to your name at all times, for it is of more value to you than gold, all price to you in all times and places, Hold on to your character, for it is scholarship. Every one who has seen and ever will be your best wealth. chylus and political economy injure A GOOD story is told of an American one, late hours and rum punches use up traveling in Paris. Having occasion to a dozen, and that their two little fingers take a bath, his physician recommenare heavier than the loins of Euclid. ded a wine bath. In the employ of the Dissipation is a sure destroyer, and evestablishment there was a colored man ery young man who follows it is as the whom he had known in America, and early flower exposed to untimely frost. of him he inquired how they could Those who have be en inveigled in the give a wine bath for seventy-five cents. path of vice are named Legion. A few "Why, massa," said the negro, "that hours' sleep each night, high living and plenty of "smashes" make war upon wine has been in the bath room for one every function of the body. The brain,

Good housekeepers are putting up all

ame are worth-less,

Orangeville Directory. A. & E. W. COLEMAN, Merchant Taliors and Gent's furnishing goods, Main St., next door to the Brick Hotel. vi-na? A. B. HERRING & BROTHER, Carpenters and Builders, Main st., below Pine. vi-ne BOWER & HERRING, dealer in Dry Goods Groceries, Lumber and general Merchandise Main st.

BRICK HOTEL and refreshment Saloon, by Robr M'Henry cor, of Main and Pine st., vi-ner DR. O. A. MEGARGEL, Physician and Surgeon, Main st., next door to Good's Hotel vi-ne DAVID HERRING, Flour and Grist Mill, and Dealer in grain, Mill Street, viner

H. & C. KELCHNER, Blacksmits, on Mill L. EDWARDS, Physician and Surgeon, Main st., first door above M'Henry's Hotel. vi-n23 JAMES B. HARMAN, Cabinet Make: and Un-dertaker, Main St., below Pine. vi-ner M. HARMAN, Saddle and Harness maker, Main st., oppsite Frame Church. Vinit SCHUYLER & LOW, Iron founders, Machinists, and Manufacturers of plows, Mill St. VI-ne

WILLIAM DELONG Shoemaker and manufac-turer of Brick, Mill St., west of Pine Vines

SAMUEL SHARPLESS, Maker of the Hayhurst

Catawissa. B. F. DALLMAN, Merchant Tailor, Second St. DR. J. K. ROBBINS, Surgeon and Physician Second St., below Main. v2-nl CILBERT & KLINE, dry goods, grocertes, and I general merchandise. Main Street v2-nil

J. B. KISTLER, "Cattawissa House," North v2nls

M. BROBST, dealer in General Merchandles, Dry Goods, Groceries &c. v2-n1 CUSQUEHANNA or Brick Hotel, S. Kosten D bander Proprietor, south-east corner Main and Second Street. vini

S. D. RINARD, dealer in Stoves and Tin-ware, WM. H. ABBOTT, Attorney at law, Main St.

Light Street.

H F. OMAN & Co., Wheelwrights, first door JOHN A. OMAN, Manufacturer and dealer in Poots and Shoes. J. J. LEISER, M. D., Surgeon and Physician.

R. S. ENT, dealer in Stoves and Tin ware in Espy. B. F. REIGHARD, BRO, dealer in Dry Goods, Groceries, and general Merchandise. v2nli posite the Steam Mill. T. W. EDGAR, Susquehanna Planing Mill and Box Manufactory, v2011 Buck Horn.

ESPY STEAM FLOURING MILLS, C.S. Fowler,

J. D. WERKHEISER, Boot and Shoe Store and Hotels.

ORANGEVILLE, COLUMBIA COUNTY, PA. C. B. BROCKWAY,

WILLIAM BUTLER, Proprietor

BENTON HOTEL.

This well known House having been put incrough repair is now open for the reception istlors. No pains have been spared to ensure perfect comfort of guests. The propriet is runs a Singe from the Hotel to Bloomsbund intermediate points on Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday of each week. [nage70-17]

Stoves and Tinware. YEW STOVE AND TIN SHOP.

TOVES AND TINWARE.

stomers can be accommonated FANCY STOVES

FOR LADIES' AND GENTLEMENS WEAR.
Having enlarged, remodaled and improved my oid and favorably known FUR EMFORIUM, and having imported a very large and spiendid assortment of all the different kinds of Furs fronties that the second of the second first hands in Europe, and had them made up by the most skilling workmen. I would respectfully invite my friends of Columbia and adjacent countries, to call and examine my very large and beautiful assertment of Fancy Furs, for ladies and collidren. I am determined to sell at an low prices as any other respectable House in the city. All Furs warranted. No misrepresentations to effect sales.

718 Aacii Street, Priladelphia.
Nov. 4, 1879-2m.

Poetical Selections.

The Last Good Bye. From the ilps of those that part; Tis a whispered tone, 'tis a gentle word,

To meet with cares and strife ; She breathes, through her tears, doubts and fear For the loved one's future life. No cold "adieu," no "farewell" lives Within her choking sigh, When the brow is as cold as the marble stone,

To-Morrow.

In a moment she perceived her dan-and curses of the most dreadful char-

"Cut the brat's throat," roared the these walls whilst I have life to prevent is about to expire, I want to pay for with whoever first makes a courtesy to digious results we have seen

All this was unseen by the girl with "It is Sunday," she said to herself The mill never works on the Sabbath, Suppose I set it going now. It can be elaimed. "'Tis God sent it to me,"

The arms of the huge engine whirled round with fearful rapidity-the great wheel slowly revolved on its axle-the smaller gear turned, and creaked and paring the dinner, when who should groaned according as they came into

His cries were most appalling-his his rotatory prison. Meanwhile the wheel went round age company for plays and operas.

Both were then bound, and sent off

It was not long until Jenny became The bridegroom was the miller's son, who had loved her long and well, but good old age, surrounded by a flourishing family.

In the latest hour of her life, the brave

Newspaper Patronage. There seems to be a great many different ways of defining and understanding the phrase "newspaper patronage," and as a party interested in a correct definition of the same, we give the following disquisition on the subject by one who knows whereof he speaks. It may serve, perhaps, as a mirror, in which, it is a mere matter of course and no certain parties may be able to "see favor. These quiet ways and early hours take away the feeling of dissipa or are dishonest in a strict biblical sense of the word. Newspaper patronage is about in clusters near their mammas, tions generally takes place, but it is not indispensable. In the ball-room you are all on an equality, and any gentleman has a right to ask a lady to dance

Another man don't take your paper It is too high priced; but he borrows and reads it regularly, and that could section he informs the editor. This is newspaper patronage. One hands you a marriage, or other another." He does so and retires. This him. He takes her around the room while certain kinds of patronages are and is generally whipped off by anoththe very life of the newspaper, there er claimant. Some girls go very com-and circulation than the coils of a boa minds whom they mean to choose, and constrictor are to the luckless prey he patronizés. crowd, and take out the first acquaint-The peculiarities of the day and night systematically introduced to allow a band She must furnish everything for n Sweden strike the traveler very fore. lady a little liberty of choice. There an outfit in life, even to a dozen new bly, after being accustomed to the tem- are not above seven or eight dances in shirts for her coming husband. The perate zone. In June the sun goes the evening, so a belle may be obliged young man goes to the house of his prolown in Stockholm a little before ten to refuse many partners; if she invites posed bride and counts over her dresses, o'clock. There is a great illumination them in the frei tour, it a sign that and examines the furniture, and sees all night, as the sun passes round the they really came too late; if she do not, the whole with his own eyes before he earth to the north pole, and the refract they are to understand that they are commits himself to the irrevocable bartion of its rays is such that you can see not to ask her again. The gentlemen gain. In high life such things are conto read at midnight without any artifi. are sometimes indulged with a frei tour dueted with more apparent delicacy; cial light. There is a mountain at the on the same principle. The young la-a doll to carry silk and jewelry; not a puppet to be flattered by profane adoration; reverenced to-day, discarded to-morrow; admired, but not esteemed; ruling by passion, not affection; imparting her weakness, not her constancy, to the sex she would exalt; the source and mirror of vanity-we see her as a wife, partaking the cares and cheering the anxieties of a husband; dividing her toils by her domestic diligence; spreading cheerfulness around her for his sake; sharing the decent refinements of the world without being proud of them, placing all her joys and happiness in the man she loves. As a mother, will find her the affectionate, the ardent instructress of the children whom she has tended from their infancy; training them up to thought and virtue, to plety and benevolence; adafter heard, and Jenny hastened thithdressing them as rational beings, and preparing them to become men and women in their turn. Mechanics' daugh-

> has a mile of children. His name is thirty. There is encouragement for Furioug, and he has four boys and four women to tell the truth about their girls. Eight furlongs make one mile. | age.

Our little town has its theatre, which open four times a week through the winter, and which has a very good aver-

Towns.

tion, and the extreme cheapness of the treat places it within every one's reach,

The theatre is open from Michaelmas, and always filled by the same audience.

The German balls are just as reasonable in their way as German theatres.

Almost every town has two or three classes of subscription balls, its muse um, or its casino, and all assemble very early-indeed, the trade people are the

What Breaks Down Young Men.

It is a commonly-received notion that of a college life. But from tables of the mortality of Harvard University, collected by Professor Pierce from the last triennial catalogue, it is clearly demonstrated that the excess of death for the first ten years after graduation is found in that portion of each class of inferior

the curriculum knows that where Æs

the heart, the lungs, the liver, the spine

inous decay. Fast young men, right

CREBILLION the younger once said that a really fine woman never reaches her full loveliness until she was at least so ugly.

Womanly Modesty. soldiers go into the gallery for a penny.

An Allegory.

"If you are Solomon," replied the venerable laborer," "how can you ask without further formality, nor can she have gathered up." as comprehensively organized for the military service. Little may be heard. amid the din of arms, of what these women are doing; but the service, says > occause they have no liberty before marriage. They are kept constantly their husband, and then they take their parents begin to prepare the dowry she but the facts are ascertained with accur-

Hold on to your hand when you are are angry, excited, or imposed upon, high places or fashionable attire. Hold on to the truth, for it will serve you well, and do you good throughout eternity. Hold on to your virtue-it is above week, and you is the thirty-eighth person that bathed in it." "Well, I suppose they throw it away when they are the limbs, the bones, the flesh, every done with it." "Oh, no, massa; they part and faculty are overtasked and send it down stairs for the poor people. weakened by the terrific energy of paswho bathe for twenty-five cents." sion loosened from restraint, until, like then what do they do with it?" "Bota dilapidated mansion, the "earthly house of this tabernacle" fails into ruthey sell it for French wine." they sell it for French wine '

Many men are worth nothing, and

THE favorite romance of office-seekers-Put yourself in this place.