County Convention

The Democratic voters of Columbia county are requested to meet at the usual place of election in the several election districts on Saturday Dec. 24, 1870, between the hours of 3 and 6 o'clock, p. m., to choose two delegates from each district to meet in County Convention at the Court House, in Bloomsburg, on the Monday following, Dec. 26, 1870, at 11 o'clock, a. m.

This call is made pursuant to the direction of the Standing Committee as given to their Chairman at a meeting held in September last, and is for the Amendment of the Rules of Nomination and for the transaction of such other business as is proper to a Convention.

W. B. KOONS, Chairman.

A LOT of neatly printed blank Leases for sale at this office.

A CONVENTION of Democratic editors is to be held at Harrisburg on the 10th of January next.

ATTENTION is directed to the advertisement of real and personal property offered for sale by H. J. REEDER, Esq. Executor.

IT is reported that a company has been formed at Watsontown to build one hundred boats for the Delaware & Hudson canal.

WE learn that the saw mill of NELSON BRANDON, at Girard Manor, in the Catawissa Valley, was destroyed by fire last week. Loss about $6,000.

WE are indebted to JOHN A. FUNSTON, Esq., for a box containing four neat pencil rubbers, issued as an advertisement by the Franklin Fire Insurance Company.

LLOYD BRITTON, who was tried at Williamsport last week for the murder of JACOB BAY, has been found guilty in the first degree, and sentenced to be hung.

THE water was let out of the canal last week, and the boatmen are tying up for the winter. They have not had a very profitable season of it the past year.

D. LOWENBERG, Esq., has special editorial thanks for a mounted map of the Town of Bloomsburg. May the shadow of our generous friend never wane!

THE Lancaster Intelligencer is one of the best daily and weekly Democratic newspapers in the State. It will be sent free for one month to any one who chooses to address H. G. SMITH & Co. Lancaster, Pa.

I. O. OF O. F.—Benton Lodge will dedicate their new Hall on the 4th of January next. An address will be delivered at one o'clock of that day. The public are invited to attend. Full particulars next week.

THE track of the Danville, Hazleton & Wilkesbarre R. R., is now laid to within a short distance of the coal mines at Black Creek, and it is thought that coal will be shipped over the road about the first of January.

SAVING FUND.—A meeting will be held in the office of C. W. MILLER, Esq., on Saturday evening, December 24th, at seven o'clock, for the purpose of electing Directors and a President of the "Columbia County Mutual Building and Loan Association." All who desire to take stock in said association are invited to attend said meeting.

WE are happy to state that the peripatetic philosopher who has been doing the agreeable to the readers of the COLUMBIAN in Bloomsburg, during the past year, by delivering their papers regularly at their doors, in heat and cold and storm, will tip his beaver to them on New Year's day, with printed address in hand and pocket in want of "dimes"—"quarters" preferred.

A PRESS of matter previously in type and heretofore crowded out, the length of the Court proceedings, local events and new advertisements, compel us reluctantly to postpone the letter of our able Harrisburg correspondent. Under the circumstances, we hope our correspondent will exercise the rare virtue of patience, so uncommon in these days of impulse and exaction.

AARON SMITH, the newly elected Sheriff of this county, filed his bonds and was sworn into office on Friday last, and on Saturday entered upon the duties of his office. Ex Sheriff MILLARD has taken up quarters in East Bloomsburg, until next Spring, when he intends moving on his farm in Centre township. He has made a most efficient and worthy officer, and carries with him in retirement the good wishes of hosts of friends.

WASHINGTON'S BIRTHDAY.—Washington Camp, No. 50, of Philadelphia, "Patriotic Order of Sons of America," have issued a series of resolutions urging the celebration of Washington's Birthday. They call on "all members of their order, and all patriotic citizens, to use their best endeavors to make the ensuing and all future anniversaries of the birth of Washington, a National Holiday, in word, spirit and in deed." The object is commendable and it is hoped the call will be cordially responded to.

IN support of our position that all business men should advertise, we have only to cite, as an example, JACOBY, of the "Oyster Bay," who by a judicious system of advertising has established entirely a new business. He does business on the principle of advertising to get his customers; and then retains them by furnishing the best of goods, which are in themselves advertisements.

WE notice that M. P. LUTZ is having an unusual rush at his store for Christmas goods. We learn that he has engaged extra help for Saturday, so that all may be served who give him a call.

A NEW supply of spectacles and perscopic glasses received. Coquilte spectacles for inflamed eyes; spectacles for mechanics to keep out dust, and all other kinds from the cheapest to the best. Also, fine jewelry at a very small advance. HENRY ZUPPINGER.

ONWARD to perfection has been the motto of the Singer Manufacturing Co. By purchasing the most valuable sewing machine patents, and combining them with their own during the last eighteen years, has enabled them to offer the public that splendid instrument—the New Family Sewing Machine, which has proved the most decided success of any invention of the age; more than two thousand of them are sold each week, it combines the greatest strength with the least possible friction consistent with the proper execution of a great variety of work, makes it at once the most reliable, durable and efficient Sewing Machine in the market. *

LITTELL'S LIVING AGE,

Issued every Saturday, it gives fifty-two numbers of sixty-four pages each, or more than

Three Thousand Double-Column Octavo Pages

ABLEST LIVING WRITERS.

It is therefore indispensable to every one who wishes to keep pace with the rising tide of intellectual progress of the time, or to cultivate in himself or his family general intelligence and literary taste.

EXTRACTS FROM NOTICES.

From Rev. Henry Ward Beecher.

From the Nation, New York.

"The best of its kind in existence."

From the Illinois State Journal.

"It has more real, solid worth more useful information than any similar publication we know of. The oldest essays, the most entertaining stories, the finest poetry of the English language, are here gathered together."

From the Lutheran and Missionary, Phila.

"An extraordinary value marks many of the articles published in it, because they are the productions of the ablest men of our times."

From the Pacific, San Francisco.

"Its publication in weekly numbers gives to it a great advantage over its monthly contemporaries, in the spirit and freshness of its contents."

From the Advance, Chicago, Sept. 1870.

"Every weekly number of Littell's Living Age now-a-days is found to be first class monthly for solid merit, it is the cheapest magazine in the land."

From the Christian Register, Boston, Aug. 1870.

"It has never borne the marks of more careful research and wiser selections than it does now."

From the Chicago Evening Journal.

"It stands at the head of nineteenth century literature, however critically considered."

From the Christian Examiner, Richmond.

"It is the great eclectic of this country."

From the Chicago Daily Republican.

"UNQUESTIONABLY THE BEST SUSTAINED WORK OF THE KIND IN THE WORLD."

HARPER'S MAGAZINE.

Notices of the Press.

No more delightful treat's are printed in the English language than appear perpetually in HARPER'S MAGAZINE. They are read with equal interest and satisfaction by boys of every grade from eighteen to eighty. Its scientific papers, while sufficiently profound to demand the attention of the learned, are so admirably adapted to the popular understanding, and designed as much to diffuse correct information concerning current scientific discovery as it could be if it was the organ of the "Society for the Diffusion of Useful Knowledge." The great design of HARPER'S is to give correct information and rational amusement to the great mass of the people. There are few intelligent American families in which HARPER'S MAGAZINE would not be an appreciated and highly welcome guest. There is no monthly Magazine an intelligent reading family can less afford to be without. Many Magazines are accumulated. HARPER'S is edited. There is more than that is printed which shows more intelligent pains expended on its articles and mechanical execution. There is not a cheap, flashy, sensational paragraph in it, but, confessedly, a more popular Magazine in the world.—New England Homestead.

It is one of the wonders of journalism—the editorial management of HARPER'S.—The Nation, N. Y.

HARPER'S BAZAR.

A supplement containing numerous full-sized patterns of useful articles accompanies the paper every fortnight.

HARPER'S BAZAR contains 16 folio pages of the size of HARPER'S WEEKLY, printed on superfine calendered paper, and is published weekly.

Notices of the Press.

HARPER'S BAZAR contains, beside pictures, patterns, etc. a variety of matter of especial use and interest to the family; articles on health, dress, and housekeeping. The literary part of the editorial matter is especially adapted to the circle it is intended to interest and instruct; and it has, besides, good stories and literary matter of merit. It is no surprise that the journal, with such features, has achieved in a short time an immense success; for something of its kind was desired in thousands of families, and in publishers have filled the demand. The young lady who buys a single number of HARPER'S BAZAR is made a subscriber for life.—New York Evening Post.

The BAZAR is excellent. Like all the periodicals which the Harpers publish, it is almost literally well edited, and the class of readers for whom it is intended—the mothers and daughters in average families—can not but profit by its good sense and good taste, which we have no doubt, are to-day making very many homes happier than they may have been before the women began taking lessons in personal and household detail, and social management from the good-natured mentor.—*The Nation, N. The Great Pictorial Annual.

Hostetter's United States Almanac for 1871, for distribution, gratis, throughout the United States and all civilized countries of the Western Hemisphere, will be published about the first of January, and all who wish to understand the true philosophy of health should read and ponder the valuable suggestions it contains. In addition to an admirable medical treatise on the causes, prevention and cure of a great variety of diseases, it embraces a large amount of information interesting to the merchant, the mechanic, the miner, the farmer, the planter, and professional man; and the calculations have been made for each meridians and latitudes as are most suitable for a correct and comprehensive NATIONAL CALENDAR.

The nature, uses, and extraordinary sanitary effects of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, the staple tonic and alterative of more than half the Christian world, are fully set forth in its pages, which are also interspersed with pictorial illustrations, valuable recipes for the household and farm, numerous anecdotes, and other instructive and amusing reading matter, original and selected. Among the Annuals to appear with the opening of the year, this will be one of the most useful, and may be had for the asking. The proprietors of Messrs. Hostetter & Smith, on receipt of a two cent stamp, will forward a copy by mail to any person who cannot procure one in his neighborhood. The Bitters are sold in every city, town and village, and are extensively used throughout the entire civilized world. [dec2'70-1m.
