The Cause of Rust in Wheat.

A correspondent of the Germantown Telegraph writes to that paper on this topic in this wise:

I have before me an article in last week's paper, stating that it is getting to be the pretty general opinion among farmers that the sowing of grass seed, clover or timothy, in the fall with wheat is the cause of rust in the same, etc.

I beg leav eto differ from that article; first, clover is generally sown in the spring in this region of the country at least—the winter would probably destroy it; but timothy is unusually sown with the wheat, or close following it. If any person wishes to raise a crop of wheat and rust, I will give him a receipt how to do so. Sow your wheat very late in the fall in order to not get much root, so that the frosts of winter may raise much of it out of the ground and cause it to perish; it will then start in the spring thin, grow rank with very dark color, and ripen very late. You may then expect a very good crop of rust. Yet if it is sown in good season, plenty of seed, timothy moderate, you may expect as bright straw as any your neighbors, although they may have sown grass seed or not. Damp or rainy weather is favorable to smut; but that will come if it choose, grass or not. If the wheat is sown early, the timothy need not be so thick as was formerly the custom when sown later; the reason is, it will supply itself with a stronger root. But the grass seed is of high importance, as the wheat crop will barely pay at the present prices of grain, labor, machinery, fertilizers, etc.

It is also claimed that grass seed, sown after harvesting the wheat, will produce as good crops the following year as it would if sown with the wheat. Here I differ again, very much as to the timothy, and clover also, if it is sown after the wheat harvest; for we will know that we are very liable to have much dry weather after harvest, that would be much against its taking root; we also know that many weeds and much of fall grass, as it is usually termed, would be striving for the mastery, and to smother it out, so that in the following fall or spring, we would have to put on our "spees" perhaps, to find it; and to have a good crop the following season, the chance, I think, would be slim. With even a wet autumn, the fall grasses and other intruders would even more quickly, perhaps, choke the newly sown grasses.

Harnessing Horses Correctly.

When harnessed correctly, a strong horse is a powerful animal; but by an imperfect adjustment of the gearing, many strong teams are short of half their strength; and many are often worried more by an improper fit of the harness, or by a decidedly bad attachment to the vehicle they are drawing, than by all the service they perform. But few teamsters have ever been taught how to harness a horse correctly; and fewer still have learned that there is a right way and a wrong way to hitch a team to a carriage. When a harness is taken from the shop, every part should be adjusted to fit the horse that is to wear it. The back-band should be let out or buckled up, until it will be neither too long nor too short when the animal is drawing a load. Many a good horse has had a large sore made on his back simply because the back-band of the harness was buckled up too far. The breeching should also be adjusted properly, so that the horse will not seem like a man in a boy's coat, nor like a colt wearing the harness of a full-grown horse. The collar should fit as neatly to the animal's neck as an easy pair of shoes set on one's feet. The collar should never be so long that a man can thrust his arm easily between the neck of the animal and the lower end of the collar. Many horses—especially old ones—when thin in flesh, require collars so small that they cannot be put over the heads of the horses that wear them. It is of eminent importance that the proprietors of teams should see to such minor points; and provide collars that are open at the top or bottom. Every horse should have his own collar and harness, as much as every man his own boots and coat. The lines are often adjusted in such a manner, that the heads of both horses are hauled away from each other so far that the team cannot travel easily. At other times their heads are drawn too far inward, toward each other. The lines should be adjusted so that the heads may be held just as far apart as the length of the double whiffle-tree. When a team is attached to a carriage, or lumber-wagon, the breast-straps, stay-chains or neck-yoke should be so adjusted that the pole or tongue cannot strike either horse. The tongue is often allowed to have so much play, that it whangs the arms or shoulders of the team with terrible force, when the vehicle is being drawn over rough ways. The neck-yoke, straps, or tongue-chains, should be drawn up so as to elevate the tongue between the shoulders, where the lateral jerking or thrusting will be received by the gearing on the necks of the animals, rather than against the unprotected arm or shoulders of the team.—Practical Farmer.

A Great Farmer's Maxims.

The successful life of Mr. Jacob Strawn the prince of American farmers, is attributed to the close observance of the following maxims, originated by himself:

When you wake up, do not roll over, but roll out. It will give you time to ditch all your sloughs, break them, harrow them and sow with timothy and red clover. One bushel of clover to two bushels of timothy is enough.

Make your fences high, and strong so that it will keep cattle and pigs out.

If you have brush, make your lots secure and keep your hogs from the cattle, for if the corn is kept clean, they will eat it better than if it is not.

Be sure to get your hands to bed by seven o'clock, they will rise early by force of circumstances. Pay a hand, if he is a poor hand, all you promise him; if he is a good hand, pay him a little more; it will encourage him to do still better.

Always feed your hands as well as you do yourself, for the laboring men are the bone and sinew of the land, and ought to be well treated.

I am satisfied that getting up early, industry and regular habits are the best medicines ever prescribed to health.

When rainy, bad weather comes, so that you can't work out doors, cut, split and haul your wood.

Make your racks, fixing your fence or a gate that is off its hinges, or weather-boarding your barn where the wind has blown the siding off, or patching the roof of your barn or house.

Study your interest closely, and do not spend any time in electing presidents, senators and other smaller officers or talking of hard times when spending your time in whittling store boxes, etc.

Take your time and make calculations, don't do things in a hurry, but do them at the right time, and keep your mind as well as your body employed.

Thousands who have been the victims of incompetent persons, and who have paid heavy fees to be cured in a short time, have found they have been deceived, and that the "Poison" has, by the use of "powerful astringents," been dried up in the system, to break out in a more aggravated form, and perhaps after Marriage.

But however valuable as remedy for existing defects of the skin, H. T. Helmbold's Rose Wash has long sustained its principle claim to unbounded patronage, by possessing qualities which render it a TOILET APPENDAGE of the most Superlative and Congenial character, combining in an elegant formula those prominent requisits, SAFETY and EFFICACY—the invariable accompaniment of its use—as a Preservative and Refresher of the Complexion. It is an excellent Lotion for diseases of a Syphilitic Nature, and as an injection for diseases of the Urinary Organs, arising from habits of dissipation, used in connection with the EXTRACTS BUCHU, SARSAPARILLA, and CATAWBA GRAPE PILLS, in such diseases as recommended, cannot be surpassed. AGENTS Wanted for SATAN IN SOCIETY

A NEW BOOK of the greatest interest and importance. Written from a high moral and physiological standpoint, by an eminent physician and medical professor, it shows how Satan is working out his subtle and dangerous designs through our most sacred domestic and social relations. Purely moral, but outspoken and aggressive, the author handles the delicate subjects treated of without gloves, but in such a manner as not to subject to a prurient curiosity. The Physiological Regeneration of the Race, is a subject justly enlisting the interest and sympathy of all true philanthropists, and this book, it is believed, will contribute not just in proportion as it has readers. A circular sent free, containing a full description and synopsis of the work with liberal extracts. C. F. VENT, Publisher, sep24'70-1y 3 College Place, N. Y.

GREAT IMPROVEMENTS IN PLOWS AND THRESHING MACHINES.

Mr. Jacob Trivelpiece having purchased the interest of Charles W. Low in the above named works, the business will be continued under the firm name of WILLIAM SCHUYLER & Co. Having discovered several imperfections in the plows manufactured in 1870, they have strengthened and improved them, and added some entire new patterns. They will open the Spring trade of 1871 for the advance of anything ever offered to the public, being both practical mechanics, and having their work all done under their own supervision they guarantee their work superior in material and finish to any heretofore offered. Dealers should not accept of any other agricultural implements until they have examined our Manufactures. Farmers should try our plows before buying any other. They also manufacture

VINEGAR BITTERS

Hundreds of Thousands

Bear testimony to their Wonderful Curative Effects.

WHAT ARE THEY?

FOR FEMALE COMPLAINTS, whether in young or old, married or single, at the dawn of womanhood or the turn of life, these Vinegar Bitters have no equal. For Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism, Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Biliousness, Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys, and Bladder, these Bitters have been most successful. Such Diseases are caused by Vitiated Blood, which is generally produced by derangement of the Digestive Organs.

DYSPEPSIA OR INDIGESTION, Headache, Pain in the Shoulders, Coughs, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations of the Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the regions of the Kidneys, and a hundred other painful symptoms, are the offsprings of Dyspepsia.

They invigorate the Stomach and stimulate the torpid liver and bowels, which render them of unequalled efficacy in cleansing the blood of all impurities, and imparting new life and vigor to the whole system.

FOR SKIN DISEASES, Eruptions, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Blotches, Spots, Pimples, Pustules, Boils, Carbuncles, Ring-Worms, Scald-Head, Sore Eyes, Erysipelas, Itch, Scurfs, Discolorations of the Skin, Humors and Diseases of the Skin, of whatever name or nature, are literally dug up and carried out of the system in a short time by the use of these Bitters. One bottle in such cases will convince the most incredulous of their curative effect.

Cleanse the Vitiated Blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in Pimples, Eruptions or Sores; cleanse it when you find it obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it when it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Keep the blood pure and the health of the system will follow.

PIN, TAPE and other WORMS, lurking in the system of so many thousands, are effectually destroyed and removed. For full directions, read carefully the circular around each bottle, printed in four languages—English, German, French and Spanish.
