

The Columbian.

Bloomsburg, Pa., August 11, 1871.

The Democratic county convention assembled at the Court House on Friday, and its proceedings are given in full in another column.

Most of the nominations were made by large majorities, nearly all having been decided by the people at the delegate elections, and excepting a little Jaeco near the close of the convention, the utmost harmony prevailed.

Look at the ticket! Who will say there is a man on it who is not eminent? Who will say that it is not the Democracy of any one? Who questions the personal integrity or respectability of any one?

It has become the fashion lately for some of our writers to insinuate and even aver that the progress of 1851 was retarded after or suggested by New England examples.

Mr. TURNEY was elected Speaker of the Senate at a time when it was supposed Gov. PACKER's death was momentarily probable.

It is a common cause therefore requires all to stand firmly in support of all the nominations.

Some inconvenience having been experienced in working the old plan of instructing delegates, the convention, by a unanimous vote, adopted a new rule in the nature of a substitute for the plan of instructions, which will apply to all future delegate elections.

Now that the nominations are made, and an excellent ticket is inscribed upon the Democratic Banner, let every faithful and sincere Democrat at once bend his energies to urge UNION and HARMONY as the crowning essential of success!

The business of manufacturing great men out of small material—first introduced from the West—is becoming quite common. So common, indeed, that it is becoming a nuisance.

The sensible papers of the cities—Herald, World, &c., of New York, and Press, Inquirer, &c., of Philadelphia—have such characters as George Francis Train, Wm. Cornell Jewett, &c., who are kept in constant bay, but why they are made prominent will puzzle any brain into which sense is admitted.

But here comes the tug of war! Gen. FRAZER denies the power of the President to remove him, under that tenure-of-office act which was enacted by Congress.

FEDERAL troops are being quietly sent to all parts of the South by Gen. Grant. This is the way he expects to force a re-union and re-education.

Education in Pennsylvania. With the impudence and greedy characteristics of the race, yankee land claims the sole credit of establishing and driving forward the cause of popular education.

The Democracy of the Senatorial district, composed of the counties of Westmoreland and Indiana, have unanimously nominated Hon. JACOB TURNEY for the State Senate.
