SPEECH OF Hon, George H. Pendleton,

An immense mass meeting of the De An instrease mass meeting of the Do-morracy of Clermont and Warren coun-ties, O., was held at Loveland, on Tues-day, August 22d. Upon being intro-duced by the chairman, Mr. Pendicton

I thank the State Central Committee that they have assigned me to Love-land. I have so pleasant a recollection of the last visit I made here, that they of the last visit I made here, that they could not have given me a more agreeable appointment with which to commence the duties assigned to me during this canvass. Aimest the last political specie which I made was here. Soon after I met with an accident which kept me a close prisoner for a long time, and whose effects prevented me from taking an active part in the canvass for the last two years.

Why this infamous legislation, which, in order to frighten them; sacrifices the dearest rights and them; sacrifices the dearest rights and them; sacrifices we have! Why this logenuity so oncrous as our Internal revenue system. It is unequal, unjust, unquisitor. cat with the most unselfish patriotism and purest motives. In this canvass while I shall speak with the plainest language of the principles and policy of the Republican party. I shall endeavor to do entire justice to the intentions and motives of men.

THE DEMOCRACY IN POWER, THE DEMOCRACY IN POWER.

Put the Democratic party in power. It has no new promises to make, no new pledges to give. It will remember its organization and history, and traditions, its principles and policy as they have been proclaimed in resolutions and illustrated in practice. It will refer a buses; it will punish corruption; it will restore purity to legislation and honesty to administration; it will be just to the public creditor, and honest to the tax-payer; it will pay the debt just to the public creditor, and honest to the tax-payer; it will pay the debt in the manner and at the time promis-ed; it will forbid all usurpation of pow-er; it will maintain constitutional gov-ernment; it will choos, it will ernment; it will obey; it will exact from all obedienes to the Constitution; it will restore self-government to all the States, and bring about an era of harmonious union; of real prosperity;
