The Future. Much is said and written about par ties being dead, and many there are amongst the dead. Some milky philosophers would have the Democracy surrender their organization and support some hybrid formation to be ex-cogitated from cunning brains which shall be expressly fitted, without regard to principle, for defeating the regular Radical organization. And then we have also a modification of this latter cheme which is for the Democracy to kee enterprizes, nominate some disappointed and soured Radical, who will promise whatever is necessary to obtain most votes, and these latter generally, work extravaganza upon farce by suggesting the vilest Radical in the land as the sary to deal justly, mercifully, kindly canaidate, Mr. Chief Justice CHASE. and generously with all their fellow Why SUMNER, SEWARD, BUTLER and beings but more especially their breth the like are not also suggested by this ren and those they hold in their power. reckless crew of bandits is yet not explained. despoiled, and promise all in gracious begin to dictate. No man but a Democrat, and he the good faith that they shall no longer be candidate of the Democratic party can beat Gen. GRANT. Every scheming politician and bond-holding apostate may as well yield to that inevitable truth at once. The power of money is great-but it is not great enough to put aside this truth. Conventions may be bought up but the Democratic people can and man. not be. In spite of any possible occurrences there will be a Democrat running for President in 1872.

Some politicians seem to imagine that a party may be traded off, or its principles changed, at the will of those who are at its head. Because this has time and again been done with the Repub lican party, it is imagined that the same thing may be done with the Democracy The idea is a vain one. The Democrati party does not make principles, but cer unchangeable principles make the party. The principle, for instance, that the people should be left untrammeled to all things not morally wrong, lies a the foundation of Democracy. Can any convention prevent people from entertaining and acting upon that principle -can politicians obliterate it? It will always have unyielding advocates, and so long as it has they will form a party whether known as the Democratic party or by another name. The intelligent advocates of ideas founded on this principle will never permit politicians or conventions to transfer them to opposing principles. Therefore, it is idle to set up any creature of bondholders corporations, or banks, or other selfis interest, as the candidate of the Democratic party. It would be a burlesque upon both sense and honesty to place Mr. SALMON P. CHASE in nomination as a candidate of the Democratic party for President. Nor will any other half converted Radical answer the purpose The miserable hotch-potch patchwork of years passed is to be abandoned, not nsified. Hon. HURSTER CLYMER has returned from his extended trip to Europe and that he is in robust health. One of the ablest and purest of Pennsylvania's statesman, we hope to see him again taking a conspicuous part in the politics of the State. Senator Scott's Insanity in regard to the Ku-klux of South Carolina is so evident that it should excite pity even in the breasts of those whom it is most likely to injure. When Governor Bull-ock, of Georgia, invented his tales of southern outrage, and had them print-ed in Forney's Washington Chronicle at so much a column, they were readily set down to the unscrupulous mendaei-ty of a demagogue. The New York and Other Frauds.

When Democratic officials turn scoundrels and rob the people, as in New York, they are promptly exposed and pursued to punishment by their party friends, and, if possible, made to disgorge. The Democrats have not only openly denounced in Convention those of their party who were suspected of fraud, but, on the suggestion of a Democratic Governor, a Democratic Attorney-General has delegated his powers to the first Democratic lawyer in the State, and he, on the affidavit of the Chairman of the Democratic State committee has brought the offenders so closely within the arena of justice that nothing but the clearest proofs of inno-cence can possibly screes them. The Radical post office thieves, in the same city, walk the streets unmolested ! The National Administration has a fearful recount to settle with the people for not bringing its acknowledged default-ers and other thieves to justice. NEW BRIGHTON, Pa., November 4 Colonel David Stanton, Auditor-General elect of this State, died suddenly at his residence in this place, at ten minutes past one this morning. He had been suffering for a day or two with herpes in the face, causing him much pain, and about seven o'clock last evening, he injected a small quantity of of quieting the pain which had become very severe, and by this he was much relieved. Sleep ensued, from which

Mr. B. was a soldier in the war, was member of the 149th regiment and participated in all the sanguinary engagements in which it bore a part, with great credit to himself. He was taken prisoner in the battle of North Anna, in 1864. On his way to prison in North Carolina he escaped three times from his guards, and the last time succeeded in reaching the Federal lines. He promptly rejoined his regiment and participated in the terrible battles which ended by the surrender of Gen. LEE. For the past two years he has been reading law with Gen. OSBORNE at Wilkes-Barre, and acted as one of his aids during the Scranton riots. H

The Senate Again a Tie.

The death of Senator CONNEL, O Philadelphia, again leaves the Senate a tie. Although elected, he was not yet Senator, the returns not having been presented to the Senate as the law requires and he not having qualified. No acancy can therefore exist until the Senate meets. Then, and not till then, the Speaker will be authorized to issue his warrant for a special election to fill the vacancy. The case of a Senator already sworn in would be differentthen the Speaker could at any time is sue a warrant authorizing an election.

Mr. Connell's district is Republican by 7000 majority and there is therefore no hope of the election of a Democrat ; and there is no probability even that : respectable Republican will be elected, Some low legislative corruptionist will no doubt be elected.

Grant't Idea of Thanksgiving!

The Washington Patriol gets off the ollowing: Gen. GRANT attempted morphine into his arm for the purpose to write his Thanksgiving proclamation without consulting anybody, and of course, as all know, he blundered. Indeed, his mind was so warped by thinking of the Ku-klux, that when the first draft of his Thanksgiving proclamation was placed in the hands of his private secretary for correction, it was in substance very like his preliminary Kuklux proclamation. It commanded the people to peaceably assemble within punctured a blood vessel, which, owing five days from date and deliver up their prayers; and threatened a general suspension of the writ of habeas corpus, a declaration of martial law, and the ar rest of all who disobeyed the order if it was not universally observed. Of course it was corrected, and Grant neve knew the difference.

THE Pittsburg Post says TOM SCOTT is and always was a Democrat! It is not at all singular that nobody except the sditors of the Post know this peculiar fact, for since 1860 Tom has voted for every Radical candidate for President and for Governor, and not once for a Democratic candidate for Congress or the Legislature ! Probably he neve voted for a Democratic candidate in his life. The Post says he was a DougLass man. He may have voted for the in dependent DOUGLASS electoral ticket but as that was in opposition to the regular Democratic electoral ticket, he might as well have voted for LINCOLN direct. We expect next to hear the Post describe a fish with legs, hoofs, horns and feathers !
