THE Press declares "Speaker Riaine's organization of the Committee of Ways and Means in the luterests of the so called revenue reform, has had a disastrous effect upon the tariff." This nominated! Who ever supposed he is Radical protection of Pennsylvania interests.

GOVERNOR PALMER, of Illinois, has sent an agent to Washington to remonstrate with the President upon the continued usurpations, under color of military authority, in that State, Even advanced Radicals are getting alarmed at the open way in which the Adminis tration is claiming military jurisdiction, upon every prefext that arises.

A NEWSPAPER correspondent interviewed Gen. Lewis D. Campbell, of Ohio, at Washington, the other day. To the question, "What effect will the late defeats have on the interests of the Democracy?" Gen. Campbell replied: "Good. They will secure Grant's renomination beyond a doubt. He can be beaten more easily than any fresh man the Republicans might otherwise have united upon." And this position is correct.

JOHN L. SPEEL, a most worthy citizen of Harrisburg and Treasurer elect of Dasphia county, died on the 15th We note that the Commissioners of Dauphin county, who fill the vacancy, have the manhood to declare that they will appoint no one who does not agree to share the profits of the office with Mr. Speen's family. The Bloomsburg Radical ring might study this action with profit to their manhood if not to their pockets.

OUR Mr. MERCUR is extensively named in the Radical papers for Gov erpor. It would perhaps surprise our readers to tell them that the brilliancy of Mr. MERCUE's speeches in Congress attract Radical attention to him, as these have been most expressive in their character, terse, comprehensive, exhausting, and always plain, to the point and eminently perspicuous-in fact, made up wholly of the words 'yea" and "nay." He must be a dolt, indeed, who does not appreciate the full meaning of such speeches!

PROF. WICKERSHAM, State Superin tendent of Common Schools, in an address to the students on Wednesday morning last, warmly endorsed the se lection of Mr. CHARLS G. BARKLEY as Principal of the Bloomsburg Normal School, promising him and it his hearty support; and reiterating his determina tion that the School must and should succeed. The opening on the 8th of January, 1872, will be under new and fore, and we trust be the beginning of a long and brilliant career.

Now the International Society ha held its funeral procession in honor of the deceased Communist leaders, it is hoped they will also bury all purely European issues, and see in the working of American Democratic Institutions, the best means of advancing popular rights, and the surest defense of liberty. To maintain these institutions from the encroachment of military despotism is the most urgent necessity of our day. For this let all native born and adopted citizens unite, under the Democratic banner.

THE Grand Duke Alexis has given five thousand dollars for distribution among the poor of New York, "wishing them to feel that a visit which has afforded so much pleasure to him has dle into our platforms. They dare not been the occasion of some slight relief to them." Mr. Aspinwall has appropriated one thousand dollars of the stealing! On the trial of three ku-kluxers, now in progress at Columbia, South Carolina, the jury is composed of two white men very strong in the region of Columbia It would seem very probable, under the jurors might turn the scales of justice the wrong way. The negroes, of course, bliter toward the ku-klux gentry, and may be inclined to condemn on mere accusation, without due regard to the testimony. At all events, a half and half jury would have looked better than one consisting of two white men and ten black ones. The picture has far too much shade in it.-Philadelphia time for the past year in writing letters to assure the public that he would re ire to private life at the end of his term. As soon as the newspapers would get through with publishing and com-menting on one of these letters another would be plunged upon the public, the same old regrets would be revamped, &c., but finally the papers got tired of attention. A new form was therefore dent gravely announced that he was not a candidate for President and favored the renomination of GRANT but would not object to his brother Rads opposing the latter idea. Of course this was only to put himself in the way of receiving the nomination should GRANT be thrown overboard. But that goose laid no golden egg and was party would not take the hint, or if they did they would not take the bate. Now Mr. COLFAX is out with a letter stating that he is not a candidate for reelection but will not decline if again would? He decline an office! Certainly no man who ever heard of him would suspect such sacrifice to be made by SCHUYLER COLFAX or any of the land grabbing crew to which he belongs. Oh, no! as long as there are public lands to steal, the public will feel no apprehension that any of the thieves will leave Washington if they can help It. A few go to the penitentiary but none decline office. If such a refreshing incident as a Radical declining an office he can get should occur, we would expect to see the sun obscured by the multitude of hats that would be thrown into the air!

The Vice President. The smirky genius who now officiates s Vice President has spent most of his

The whole movement is a that State, has written a letter in which corrupt job, and should be opposed by he pronounced the Democratic party all honest men at Washington and else-dead, and urged the abandonment of its organization. The Detroit Free Press says: "Hon. G. H. Parker is not a disinterested counselor in regard to the policy which he would have the Democratic party pursue. He left that party ten years ago and expected to see its death immediately follow, but it did not die, He was Mr. Lincoln's govern-Reinstein, publisher, and Wm. H. Van | ment detective at Chicago, for some years during the war, and has not pretended to act with the Democratic party since that time any more than he did then. That he should want the Demoeratic party, as such, to give up its organization is natural. He undoubtedly feels ashamed of his present party associations, and wants a new deal, unfense of the rights of labor against the der the hope that he may, in that way, aggressions of capital. Some of its ad. fall again into decent political company. nerents may possibly occasionally yield 'Hon, George H. Parker,' or Davenport to the seductive power or money of Iowa, is not alone in his auxietics."
